

MOSIER.

Mr. Angle, of Portland, who has been laying the Davenport farm off in ten-acre tracts, returned home Sunday, having completed his work.

Rev. Wolverton, of Portland, came up Tuesday to oversee the work going on on his place. Mr. Wolverton has about 500 trees he is very anxious to get out.

Amos Root finished setting out an apple orchard of about 600 trees the first of the week.

The county convention of the Modern Woodmen of America met here last Wednesday at 11 o'clock. There were five delegates from The Dalles, one from Tygh Valley and three from Hood River. After the meeting they had dinner at the hotel. The afternoon was taken up in sight seeing. The delegates from Hood River returned on the local. The Royal Neighbors of America from The Dalles came down on the local. They were Messrs. Moore, John and Gostings. They were entertained by Mrs. Mosier until evening, when a reception was given by the Royal Neighbors of America for the Woodmen and visiting neighbors. After supper the evening was taken up by speeches and songs until 10:53, when the train came. They all bid adieu declaring they had had a fine time.

Ray Thomas left Thursday for Mt. Hood, where he goes as a rider for the government reserve for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davidhizer and two children were Hood River visitors Thursday.

Miss Carrie Brown went to Portland Friday to spend a few days with her parents and relatives.

Mrs. Hannah Johnson, of Idaho, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Johnson.

Ed. L. Howe came up Sunday to look after his farm here and also the log bungalow which he is having built. The bungalow is almost completed and is certainly a fine structure.

Mr. Delaney, of Hood River, spent Sunday here.

Mr. Wintner, of Portland, came up Sunday and brought with him some men to work on his farm.

Mrs. Ernest Jacobson and son, Paul, of The Dalles, spent Sunday with her daughter, Evelyn Hayes.

Mrs. Anna Ouslin, of Sumpter, Oregon, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Johnson.

Ben Yett, who has been helping John Davenport plow, returned to his work in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stark came down from The Dalles Sunday and returned Monday, taking their father, Rev. W. A. Stark, who was hurt so long ago, with them. We are glad to hear that Mr. Stark is able to be moved, as we feel sure the change will be a help to him.

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen:—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906." Sold by Keir & Cass.

UNDERWOOD.

A quiet wedding took place at the Rockhaven hotel last Wednesday. The contracting parties were Lyle Underwood and W. M. Howell. Promptly at 11:30 a. m. the bride and groom marched out to the front parlor, accompanied by Miss Katie Underwood as bridesmaid and Henry Wever as best man. The ceremony was performed by E. W. Dehart.

Miss Underwood is the daughter of the late Edward Underwood and Isabel Underwood. She is in her 17th year and one of the most popular and highly esteemed ladies of Underwood. Mr. Howell is a popular young farmer from Wasco, Sherman county, Oregon.

Soon after the noon hour the happy couple crossed to Hood River in order to take the train to Wasco to take up ranch life under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Howell. The best wishes of all their friends go with them to their new home.

M. S. Smith made a pleasure and business trip to Cascade Locks last week, going to the Locks Thursday evening by the Simons, visiting with his sister over night, going to Portland Friday morning on business, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Adams.

Phil Stuart, superintendent of the river forces for the Wind River Lumber Co., came down from the camp Saturday evening. He reports that they have several million feet of logs in the river of last year's cut, which they are very busy getting out and his company has decided to put off logging until after July 1.

Uncle Amos Underwood went to Stevenson the first of last week, returning Wednesday morning.

Mr. Sunderland, of Portland, is up on his ranch, setting his ground to peaches and strawberries.

H. E. Hamlin, of Portland, moved up from Portland to Dr. Whiteside's place last week. Mr. Hamlin and the doctor have formed a partnership on the 102 acre tract of land and are going into the fruit business strictly.

M. S. Seely was over trading last week.

There is music in the air on Wm. Kollock's fruit ranch. We are able to hear the exhaust and whistle of the donkey, the jingle of the grub hoe and ring of the tin, and we hear every man speak in his own tongue, the Spaniard, the Japanese, American and Missouriian, except Claud Ayresman, the foreman, and he talks all of them.

Babe Brox, of Portland, came up Sunday to look over Fred Lyle's place. They seem to think it is just what they are looking for. This deal adds more Portlanders to our list.

Passenger traffic Sunday at Hood was evidence of better accommodations. Eleven passengers took the train for down river points.

A woman shows good judgment when she buys White's Cream Vermifuge for her baby. The best worm medicine ever offered to mothers. Many indeed are the sensible mothers who write expressing their gratitude for the good health of their children, which they owe to the use of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

Matrons' Medal Contest.

A matrons' silver medal contest between The Dalles and Hood River was held at the Congregational church Friday evening. The contestants were seven in number, four from Hood River and three from The Dalles, and in the contest were known only by numbers. Score cards were given to five different persons in the audience, who were chosen to act as judges.

No. 1 gave an account of four Bends who were sent forth to find recruits for his matanic majesty's domain. One was to have charge of the vineyards, another the grain fields, another the dairy and another music. The work of each field and the final results were graphically portrayed by the speaker and held the closest attention of the audience.

No. 2 told why she hated rom, and the listeners were made to feel that she had good cause.

No. 3 gave his (Ronald's) reasons for not casting his first vote for the saloon. The employees of a certain shop were told that if they voted for the saloon in the coming election $10 extra would be found in their envelop on next pay day. Ronald worked hard to support his widowed mother and crippled sister, and the $10 looked very large, but when his mother told him how Nell came to be a cripple from a blow given by father while drunk the $10 in comparison with the life-long sufferings of his crippled sister looked very small, and Ronald's first vote was cast against the saloon.

No. 4 gave "Grandmother's Prayer," in which grandmother and May, his wife, wept and prayed for the dis-solute grandson. The prayer was answered and the happy ending was a joy to all.

No. 5 told a story of an occurrence in 2005 A. D. A lady from Hood River visited her sister in The Dalles by means of her new flying machine which they had found somewhere and which was written as long ago as 1908, and was very amusing to them, because it portrayed the fashions and customs of that barbarous age. The rum blossom now was described and the progress of that in-curable disease known as office itch. The speaker declared that when a person once caught the contagion he was never of any use again.

No. 6 told of the evils of alcohol as given by Robert G. Ingersoll. A better speech would be hard to find.

No. 7 described the alarm which is felt when a panther is loose and told how all turn out to guard the children, but when something worse than a panther is lying in wait to pollute their souls we sit quietly by and allow them to be caught.

While the judges were working on their score cards the audience was entertained by songs by Miss Jackson and Ruth Spear and a recitation by Miss Blanch Ford. The judges then gave their decision, which was that No. 4 had scored the highest number of points with No. 1 and No. 5 following very close.

No. 1 was Mrs. Smith French, of The Dalles; No. 2, Mrs. Julia A. Hunt, Pine Grove; No. 3, Mrs. Snipes, The Dalles; No. 4, Mrs. J. W. Rigby, Hood River; No. 5, Mrs. D. J. Cooper, The Dalles; No. 6, Mrs. J. K. Carson, Hood River; No. 7, Mrs. Evinger, Hood River.

Serious Accident.

Don Nunemaker, of the Frankton school, suffered a serious injury last Monday at noon while playing ball. While running for a base he stepped on a small rock, which rolled under him and dislocated his ankle and broke one bone in his leg just above the ankle. His father took him home in a buggy and called in physicians to set and dress the broken limb. He is getting along as well as could be expected and rests fairly well.
