HAPPENINGS IN OREGON

Klamath Falls-According to H. P. Hoey, chief engineer of the California Northeastern, as the branch of the Southern Pacific is called which is under construction from Weed, Cal., to this city, cars will actually be running to the new town of Dorris by April 20, 10 or 12 days earlier than heretofore announced, and work will be rushed on the seation intervening between Dorris and navigable water on the Klamath river, with a view to elimination of the stage and freight wagon service early in the fall. People who are coming to Klamath Falls should take notice that when the cars reach Dorris only 11 miles of staging remain on the entire route from Weed, the point of departuhe from the Southern Pacific in California. The 11 miles will be between Dorris and Blidel, on the Klamath river, within two hours' run by steamboat to Miamath Falls.

Mountain Lake Disappears.

Salem-Hunters who have recently returned from the vicinity of Mount Jefferson report that Lake Pamelia, one of the prettiest lakes in the Cascade Mountains, has gone dry. The lake was formed by a huge slide from the mountain and it is presumed that the water finally found a channel through the base of the great dam formed by the slide of earth and rocks. The lake was nearly a half mile wide, two miles long and very deep.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism for a number of years. I have tried many remedies, but never got much re lief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Cham berlain's Pain Balm. I found relief be, fore I had used all of one bottle but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by Keir & Cass.

Gets $1,500 for Breach of Promise. Salem-For alleged alenation of her affections and disappointing her in her martial expectations, the jury in the breach of promise case of Mrs. M. A. Wells, of Lawton, Okla., against R. R. Stewart, a well-to-do farmer of this county, found a verdict for Mrs. Wells last week for $1,500. The suit was brought for $6,000 damages, and the verdict was a compromise.

LOGGERS IN A DILEMMA.

Removal of Duty on British Columbla Logs Is the Last Straw.

Seattle, Wash., April 13 .- Timber land owners and loggers are viewing the situation with alarm. The recent removal of the $2 export duty on British Columbia logs bids fair to drive prices even lower than at present, and by well-known loggers the statement is made that rather than submit to a further reduction the majority of the camps will be

That the lumber and logging interests are getting a cross-fire from three sides is the view they take of th situation. The rate litigation was bad enough and the closing down of so many mills has had a bad effect on the logging situation.

Then loggers and timber land owners have had their assessments increased many fold in many instances. County Assessors have levied on thousands of feet of standing timber not before assessed and they promise to go even further. Then comes the prospective further drop in prices resulting from the removal of the export duty on British Columbia los

FLAMES DEVOUR CHELSEA ..

Square Mile of Boston Suburb Is Destroyed. Boston, April 13 .- An apparently insignificant fire which started among the rags on a dump in the City of Chelsea Sunday was fanned by a northwest gale into a conflagration which obliterated nearly onethird of the city. Five hundred dwelling houses and public buildings were destroyed, 1,500 families were driven from their homes and 10,000 people made homeless.

Two lives are known to have been lost and two other persons are reported to have perished in the flames, one woman having shot herself in a frenzy over her inability to save her property. From 50 to 100 persons were injured. The loss is estimated at $10,000,-000, covered by half that much in-

Robbers Escape on Handcar.

Canby-The vault of the Canby Bank & Trust Company was entered by yeggmenlate last week, but the large manganese safe used by the bank baffled the robbers, who left after tearing open boxes of documents and papers. No money or valuables were obtained and the only thing missing from the bank was a rifle kept in the vault for hold-ups. The postoffice was also visited and several dollars worth of stamps taken but no money had been left in burglars left on a handcar taken from the Southern Pacific toolhouse,
