CRAM'S

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

The Dietz Studio for photos. Clover and Timothy seed at Whitehead's. Earl Bailey, of Mosier, was in town Friday. Chicken for Sunday dinner at McGuire's. Just arrived—Eastern white fish at Jackson's. Mrs. Isenberg went to Portland last Saturday. Pickled pork and corned beef—McGuire Bros. Maple Syrup and New York State Buck Wheat at Jackson's. Vetch, timothy, clover and garden seeds at Jackson's. Dr. Dumble made a professional trip to Mosier Friday. Fresh halibut, salmon and razor clams at McGuire's Friday's. Land plaster both kinds, Utah and Ore., at Whitehead's feed store. H. F. Davidson returned from a week's trip to the sound country. Go to W. S. Gribble, Mt. Hood, for the District No. 76 Shoe. Special orders taken for Hazelwood Ice Cream specialties. C. P. Ross. E. A. Ranous, of Mosier, had business at Hood River the last of the week. Miss Margaret Raz, one of the teachers at Odell, left Saturday for her home at Hillsdale. Dr. Dumble and Dr. Jones went to Mosier Sunday to look after their ranch interests at that place. Mrs. Hanley, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Clark, for a few days, returned home Saturday. The Royal Tailors of Chicago and New York are the largest and best merchant tailoring house in the world. See their line of samples for spring at The Toggery. A meeting of the Hood River Horticultural Society was held Saturday and Murray Kay was elected president and J. L. Hershner secretary and treasurer. Now is the time to order your Spring Suit. The very latest and best things out will be found at the Toggery. Confidence in the Royal tailors means better clothes for you. If you want to buy or sell real estate go to Outhark & Otten. Money to loan on first mortgages. Abstracts and legal papers carefully prepared. Notarial work of all kinds. Cleveland's Baking Powder, in 3-lb. cans only cost $1, and 5-lb. can $1.65. Both these cans have the metal handle under the regular cover. They are useful when empty. Sold by Hanna & Perigo. Clarence Gilbert went to The Dalles Thursday, where he made a demonstration of the Cadillac before prospective buyers. S. S. Baldwin came up from Portland to run the big red machine during his absence. If you wish to save $50 to $75 when you buy your piano, buy direct from the factory dealer and not from agents or canvassers. Several beautiful instruments just received from Chicago at Soule's Piano House. Second hand pianos and organs taken in exchange. Balance cash or time payments.

Fresh ranch eggs at McGuire's. Pickled clogs' feet at McGuire's. See that Clover Seeder at McDonalds. Our work guaranteed. Dietz Studio Finishing for amateurs at Deitz Studio. Metal house numbers at Hunt's Wall Paper store. Fresh made sausage at McGuire Bros. every day. See W. S. Gribble for Duck Eries, Feed orders. Mr. Merrill was a Portland visitor on Saturday. Yucca Trans. Protectors, kept in stock at McReynolds. D. J. Treiber was a passenger to The Dalles Saturday. Petaluma Incubators for sale at McReynolds & Co. Rex spray in any quantity at Whitehead's feed store. Clover, Timothy and Alfalfa hay at McReynolds & Co. Smoked halibut, herring, salmon at Jackson's. Stock foods of different kinds at McReynolds & Co. Percy Cross has returned from Portland and is up at Dee. There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Aid at Mrs. M. H. Nickelsen's Friday afternoon. All the leading teachers of cookery use Cleveland's Baking Powder. Sold by Chapman Co. Miss Rosh, who has been teaching at the Odell school, on Saturday last went to attend the summer school at Monmouth. Those who have used it the longest praise it the most—Cleveland Baking Powder. Recommended by Henry F. Loge, the East Side Store. Call at Soule's Piano House for Edison photographs and records. With the exception of one house in Portland this is the largest stock in Oregon. The Apple Growers' Union has the agency for Black Leaf Dip, a tobacco preparation, sure thing for all kinds of aphid. Can be used with lead spray, or separately. Order now. W. S. Wood and family, of Vancouver, Wash., are camping in the Pine Flat country, and Mr. Wood came over Tuesday to visit his brother, J. M., of Wood & Smith Bros. It cannot help but be good. Why? Because Cleveland's Baking Powder has been used for the past forty years. This certainly is an excellent recommendation. Ask H. Connaway.

T. W. DeBussey went to Mosier Sunday morning. Miss Zula Fowler spent a few days in Portland this week. Miss McGrath spent Sunday with Miss Leslie in The Dalles. Mrs. O. B. Hartley left Saturday for Portland to visit her sister. Mrs. Scobie and small daughter spent a day at Viento last week. Geo. Dimmluk left for Portland Monday evening for a few days. Jack Morrison and Ralph Reed had business at the county seat Thursday. Miss Carrie Brown, of Mosier, spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Z. C. Phillips. Mrs. Hazer, of Portland, came down Saturday and is working at Young's oyster parlors. There will be a meeting of Royal Arch Chapter Friday evening. Work in R. A. degree. Dr. R. Cooper and H. C. Kush, of Mt. Hood, went to The Dalles Monday evening. Mrs. M. Wood left Monday for San Francisco, Calif., to visit her aged mother, who is quite ill. Dr. Sharp has purchased a fine horse and carriage, and is now able to take care of his country patients. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moo and daughter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor at Mosier Sunday. Miss Ruth Potter, who has been ill for some time, is better and left Tuesday to stay awhile at The Dalles to rest and regain her health. E. G. Walther, of Boise, Idaho, arrived Monday evening on a visit to his sister, Mrs. A. D. Moo and Mrs. C. L. Clapp, and families. The members of Grays' orchestra went to Stevenson last Saturday to play for a dance given there that evening. They returned Sunday morning. C. J. Bruce and wife, of Valentine, Neb., arrived Friday and are the guests of Jasper Wickham, an uncle of Mr. Bruce. They are looking for a location in the Pacific Northwest. R. H. Weber, Geo. C. Blakely, Dr. Geisendorfer, C. F. Gibson, Dr. H. Logan and Thos. C. Hauford came down from The Dalles Monday evening to attend the meeting of Hood River Commandery. Miss Snow Cooper, who has been trimming hats at Mrs. Billings, left Monday for Menominee, to visit her friend, Mrs. Cole. After her return she expects to resume her former work of dressmaking. The water company was busy all the week laying the new iron pipe along Oak street and it is being put down to stay. The present wooden mains will be left in the ground for the present at least and will be a great convenience in cutting over the system into the new pipes, and would be a good reserve in case it was required. The old pipes have been an annoyance both to the company and the public on account of the constant leaks and the iron pipes will be appreciated.

Early Rose seed potatoes at Whitehead's. Miss Nettie Buck is visiting the home folks. Lime and cement in any quantity at Whitehead's. Mrs. W. F. Laraway went to Portland yesterday. Black Leaf Tobacco Extract, sure death to aphid, at Whitehead's. Father Solands was in Mosier this week, the guest of J. N. Mosier. Timothy, red and white clover, vetch and alfalfa seed at Whitehead's. G. W. Snow, of Snow & Upson, was in Portland on business Monday. Wheat, alfalfa, clover, mixed clover and timothy hay at Whitehead's. Mrs. Johnson and son, of Viento, were in town Thursday shopping. Cabbage and tomato plants. Earliest and best varieties at Whitehead's. Messrs. Markam & Underwood were both in Portland last week transacting business. Mrs. John Wilson is visiting her daughter, the teacher at Tygh, for several days. Dr. Shaw, we are glad to say, is able to be out and around again after his recent illness. If you want a No. 1 horse without a fault, or single harness, buggy or new phaeton, call on A. S. Blyden at once. Miss Jones, one of the able nurses here, returned Monday from The Dalles, where she has been on a case. Editor Michell, of the Stevenson Pioneer, attended the meeting of Hood River Commandery Monday evening. Mrs. M. A. Farquhar, who has been visiting friends in Hood River for a few days, returned to her home at Portland last week. C. D. Nickelsen gave a short talk yesterday to the students at the high school on the proper ways and methods of conducting an up-to-date newspaper. Frank Davenport, Jr., spent Sunday and Monday on his ranch at Little White Salmon. He has over 80 acres, five of which are in full bearing trees. All members of Canby W. R. C. are requested to be present at the regular meeting on Saturday, May 9. Lunch will be served after meeting. Press Correspondent.

Mrs. Balsiger, of White Salmon, went to Portland Thursday. Mrs. F. W. McKeenolds is in The Dalles visiting her daughter. Mrs. Dickson, of Menominee, was here on business yesterday. H. M. Huxley and family spent Sunday on their ranch at Mosier. Miss Charlotte Howard went to Portland yesterday to spend a few days. Mrs. R. R. Adams, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur Clarke. Mrs. Hansberry, of Cascade Locks, was in town last week visiting her mother. Miss Mattie Hudson came up from Mosier Thursday to have some oculist work done. Geo. S. Smith, of Washougal, has been visiting his brother here for the past week. Elmer Gribble, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jas. Cooper, of The Dalles. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hadley, of Collins, spent Sunday with their parents in Hood River. Misses Grace Sellinger, Grace Coyle and Mattie Hudson were down from Mosier Wednesday. Mrs. L. Clark left on the steamer Simons yesterday for Collins Hot Springs for a week. Mrs. M. Stoltz left yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. Garrett, at Mill Creek, The Dalles, for a few days. C. G. Ruff, who is the owner of a ranch in the Mt. Hood country, came up from Portland last week to view it. Miss Irlene Leslie came up from The Dalles Tuesday to spend the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cowley. Mrs. Sheehan, of Cascade Locks, went to Portland Thursday. She is a teacher of music and has a large class at both the Locks and White Salmon. Night Watchman Lewis returned Saturday evening from Warm Springs, where he went to visit his brother and recuperate, and went on duty at once. F. M. Slaven feels very grateful for the kindness and assistance rendered by friends and neighbors since the burning of his residence and contents. Mrs. Bertha Spight is attending the State Sunday School Convention at Forest Grove this week, as a delegate from the Baptist Sunday school of this city. Mrs. Wm. Keir received word yesterday of the death of the twin daughter of Mrs. Kelley, at Chicago, daughter of Mrs. Kerr, and that the twin boy was also very dangerously ill. Thos. K. Campbell and Clyde B. Aitchison, members of the Railroad commission, were in Hood River yesterday on a tour of inspection of the depot. Mr. Campbell went up to Dee on the Mt. Hood road. A report of the State Sunday School Convention will be given by Pastor Nuy at the Baptist church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. In the evening the topic will be, "Why Keep Sunday Instead of Saturday." The regular covenant and business meeting of the Baptist church will convene Friday evening of this week instead of Wednesday on account of the pastor being in attendance on the State Sunday School Convention at Forest Grove. DeBussey's chop house is adding new improvements constantly. Mr. DeBussey has recently had a fine new electrical sign made of green and red glass with the name and business placed on it. It can be seen from the trains and is a good thing. Wm. Stewart, of Lyman Smith avenue, received a telegram yesterday from Fargo, N. D., that his wife had recovered from an operation in a hospital at that place, but was not doing as well as was hoped for, and he left for Fargo on the evening train. Sheriff Chrisman and Jas. Harper were down from The Dalles Saturday and returned with Chas. Miller, who is accused of larceny committed several months ago. It appears that Miller has been in Vancouver for some time, but returned to Hood River recently, and Sheriff Ganger notified the sheriff with the above report. Subjects for Dr. Lathrop The Sunday: s. m. "The Seven Words on the Cross;" e. m. "The Logic of Answered Prayer." After the morning sermon Miss Florence Hanna will sing, "Fear Ye not, O Israel, by Buck." After the evening service Prof. J. Adrian Epping will sing, "The Promise of Life," by Cassin. The choir, led by Prof. Crouse, will render anthems morning and evening.

Don't Forget The BASE BALL and TRACK MEET Friday and Sat. May 1, & 2 Business hours will be closed Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Miss Hazel Waters, of Portland, a trimmer in one of the largest wholesale houses there for the past eight years, arrived Wednesday to assist Mrs. Billings in her store here. Miss Waters is a very charming young woman and we all hope that she will be contented to remain here in Hood River with us. Mrs. A. B. Billings, from Mt. Hood, the mother of the popular Gribble boys, left yesterday for The Dalles to be with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Cooper, who is very ill with tuberculosis. The physicians have given the family no hopes for her recovery and her many friends extend their sympathy to her people in their trouble. Burnett Duncan returned Tuesday from his ranch at Mosier. He is not going to give the railroad company many more dollars for his transportation to his little ranch, for he has recently purchased a bright red new auto-bi and will speed along over the hills in less time and at far greater convenience than the train would do for him. Miss Stella Crouse, who has been teaching at the Frankton school for the past few years, left last Monday for her old home at Louisville, Ill., where she will reside for the future. Miss Crouse is one of Hood River's charming young ladies and it is with the greatest of regret that we see her go. Her sister and husband, Prof. and Mrs. Crouse, expect to leave in a month for the same place. Miss Nellie Horner entertained the Epworth League with its many members and friends at her home last Monday evening. Although the principal purpose of the evening was the election of officers for the ensuing year, games were played and refreshments enjoyed. The new cabinet has the following officers on it: President, Alvah Day; first vice president, Albert Lathrop; second vice president, Marie Fettes; third vice president, Omar Day; fourth vice president, Pearl Bradley; secretary, Ionia McGrath; treasurer, Flo W. Orr; organist, Nellie Horner; assistant organist, Jennie Edgington.
