Reliable Goods

Everyone has a work to do in this world, and to do that work, we are given facilities, in keeping with our ability to reach out, and grasp them. The season of 1908 is unusual. It is OUR work to supply the wearing apparel needs of a constantly growing list of customers. WE have taken advantage of the conditions prevailing in the manufacturing and jobbing centers of this country in a way that is going to prove very profitable to our patrons who give us some, or all of their business. We have bought the best line of Spring and Summer merchandise that ever came West. We have bought it for cash in the New York markets at a time when One dollar did the work of TWO under usual conditions. In justice to yourselves we ask you to look our line over carefully for anything needed to wear. You will find it pleasant and profitable. Our lines are complete and we have not, in our efforts to secure price consideration, overlooked the cardinal features of true merchandising, we are more particular about Quality and Style than ever before. We Stand Ready to Show You.

Nation and remained the balance of the week on account of the illness of Ned's father, who is now recovering. Sunday a party of people, including the following, spent the day at Point Pleasant, near Tucker's mill: O. B. Hartley and family, Hubbard Taylor and wife, Robert Perigo and wife, J. E. Hanna and family and Dr. Edgington and family. They all drove out and spent the day very quietly enjoying the beauties of God's own country. The second annual convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance will be held in the Alliance chapel, corner May and 8th streets, Hood River, May 21 to 24. First service at 8 p. m., May 21. Dr. M. M. Bates, of New York, field superintendent, and Rev. Isaac Hess, of China, will be present. Come and enjoy the feast of good things with us. C. E. Perry, Superintendent. E. E. Howes, of Howes & Co., of Portland, was in the city Monday inspecting hot air engines and water works which he installed for E. J. DeHart and Lawrence & Smith, in the valley. He says they are working fine and the owners are well pleased with the investment. Mr. Howes also bid on several other jobs of the same kind while here. The system of hot air engine and pressure tank which he installed by Howes & Co. give the country home all the advantage of city water works, and after the plant is installed there is but little expense to operate it. There will be a gospel temperance meeting at the Congregational church Sunday evening, May 17. Mrs. Wm. Kerr will read paper, Rev. Gilmore and others will give short addresses and special music will be provided. Let everybody come. Rev. C. A. Nutley was taken with an attack of lambrago after his return from the Baptist conference two weeks ago, but was able to preach at the Baptist church Sunday, and came down town Monday for the first time since his illness. The high school baseball team will go to Goldendale Friday and Saturday of this week to cross bats with the Klickitat aggregation, and are confident of winning. It will be a two days' session and if transportation can be secured they will return Saturday evening. Horace E. Wray brought over a few ripe strawberries Thursday from the ranch of E. M. Peck, of White Salmon. As these berries were grown on top of the hill they are the earliest berries to come to Hood River from that elevation and are as early as the first berries from the river bottom lands. The Willamette Baptist Association will meet in Hood River the latter part of June and about 100 delegates are expected to be present. A good program of entertainment is being arranged for the visitors, and their meeting will also be a very interesting one. The association comprises all the Baptist churches in Multnomah, Clatsop, Clatskan and Clackamas counties, the Hood River church being the only one in Wasco county to belong to that association.

E. H. Hartwig returned from a trip to Mosier Monday afternoon. Thomas C. Godbersen, of Mosier, spent Sunday with friends in town. See Arthur Clarke's window for bargains in silverware. For one week only. Mrs. C. F. Nichols and daughter, of Milton, Ore., are the guests of J. E. Nichols and wife. J. K. McGregor, of Mosier, attended the meeting of Hood River Commandery Monday evening. The silverware that Clarke, the jeweler, is offering in his reduction sale is all 15 years guaranteed goods. The next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Mrs. Hartmann's residence Tuesday, May 19, at 2:30 p. m. Jerome Bradshaw, of Woodworth, Mont., an old schoolmate of Mrs. W. F. Laraway, is a guest at the Laraway home. Rev. C. A. Nutley has moved into the home at the rear of the Baptist church, which will be more convenient for a parsonage. The Ladies Guild of the Episcopal church will hold a special meeting at the residence of Mrs. R. W. Pratt this afternoon at 2:30. The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church gave a very successful social last Friday evening at the parsonage grounds, and a very pleasant time was had. D. C. Clapp arrived Sunday morning from Casper, Wyo., and will make his home with his brother, C. Geo. P. Ross, who recently purchased a place near town. If you are in need of knives, forks, spoons, etc., take advantage of the silverware sale going on at Arthur Clarke's. Begins Saturday, May 16, for one week. Heshel Padlock, of the Episcopal church, will be in Hood River Saturday evening and hold the morning and evening services at the church next Sunday. On account of not having sufficient room to show his large stock of silverware, Arthur Clarke, Mr. Inman, is offering some fine bargains for one week, beginning Saturday, May 16. J. E. Nichols sent a casket to Stevenson Saturday to receive the remains of Ruth Hebens, who died Saturday and was buried Monday at that place. Rev. Perry officiated at the services. There will be a "silver medal" speaking contest at the opera house Saturday evening, May 16, at eight o'clock. Admission, 25 cents. Children under twelve years of age 15 cents. S. E. Blythe is recovering from his severe attack of muscular rheumatism, which occurred last week, and will go to St. Martin's springs this week to spend a short time taking the hot baths. J. L. Inman, a merchant of Marshfield, Iowa, visited Hood River one day last week. Mr. Inman has been here seven years ago, and was surprised at the development of the city and valley since that time. Straubhan & Stevens are erecting a residence for W. C. Cameron, at Portland, who has been making P. M. Hall-Reside. Mr. Cameron has made his residence in Portland since disposing of his lumber interests at Menominee. There will be a gospel temperance meeting at the Congregational church Sunday evening, May 17. Mrs. Wm. Kerr will read paper, Rev. Gilmore and others will give short addresses and special music will be provided. Let everybody come. Rev. C. A. Nutley was taken with an attack of lambrago after his return from the Baptist conference two weeks ago, but was able to preach at the Baptist church Sunday, and came down town Monday for the first time since his illness. The high school baseball team will go to Goldendale Friday and Saturday of this week to cross bats with the Klickitat aggregation, and are confident of winning. The association comprises all the Baptist churches in Multnomah, Clatsop, Clatskan and Clackamas counties, the Hood River church being the only one in Wasco county to belong to that association.

Arthur Clarke was in Portland over Sunday. Miss Stenberger returned from Portland yesterday. Wm. Brykett, of White Salmon, was in the city yesterday on business. H. J. Frederick spent a couple of days in Portland the first of the week. A. O. Adams, postmaster at Cascade Locks, visited A. C. Buck yesterday. Mrs. A. A. Jayne and son were passengers for Portland Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Eragg, of Colfax, Wash., are the guests of R. B. Bragg and family. Mr. and Mrs. McCord, of Portland, arrived yesterday and are visiting at the home of P. S. Davidson. Andrew Chasnavva left for Omaha this morning, where he has been called as a witness in a sheep case. H. C. Doda, Republican candidate for representative, and F. H. Johnston were in from Dufur Saturday. Rev. Staver, of Pacific University, addressed the pupils of the high school Thursday on "Higher Education." The road meeting held at Pine Grove last week resulted in a vote to purchase gravel from Ed. Hawkes at five cents per yard. Miss Nettie Buck has resigned her position as telephone manager at Wasco and left for Portland yesterday to visit friends. Gene Bush went to The Dalles yesterday to see the circus. Gene says he never has been to a circus and thought he would take it in. Rev. J. Bandy has been engaged as the regular pastor of the Unitarian church, and will hold services every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mrs. M. P. Jacobs, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Frederick, was called to Portland yesterday on account of the illness of Mr. Jacobs. V. V. Jones, of the Jacobs-Slone Co. of Portland, was in the city yesterday and said that his company would open a branch real estate office in Hood River. The union gospel temperance meeting, which was to be held at the Congregational church, was postponed indefinitely, owing to the commencement exercises. F. H. Dwinell and wife, of Baraboo, Wis., arrived last week and are the guests of W. L. Clark and wife. They will remain here for the summer and may locate here permanently. H. S. Richmond is building a new corner in the Davidson building. Mr. Richmond is an experienced furniture designer and builder, and says he contemplates opening a shop of that kind in Hood River. Charles A. Briggs and N. Ament, real estate agents of Seattle and Wenatchee, have opened an office in Hood River and are located in the Davidson building. They have had considerable experience in selling orchard lands in Washington and through their other houses will be able to reach many prospective buyers. Horace W. Day, of Sgoebel & Day, New York, was in the valley last week looking over the apple prospects. Mr. Day has been making a round of the fruit sections of the coast and says that indications point to lower prices this year. He said that as an indication, California is making contracts for their orchards at just one-half of last year's prices. Governor Chamberlain spoke at the opera house last night in the interest of his candidacy for the United States senate. He came in from The Dalles on the local and among those who accompanied him from that place were: Geo. C. Blakey, John Garvin, F. A. Seufert, Oglesby Young, Oswald West and John A. Jeffrey. The sever bids were opened at the recorder's office Saturday and awarded the contract to Jacobson & Co., of Portland. There were only four bids, as follows: Treiber & Zolla, $5650; John Keating, $6550; A. Gordon, $5900; Jacobson & Co., $5241. While the price is considered too high by the council, yet there seemed to be no prospect of getting lower bids and the contract was awarded. It was hoped that local parties would be able to bid at a lower figure and several expressed their intention of doing so, but failed to put in an appearance. The Cutler Bros. of Ohio, have purchased the E. J. Young place of 54 acres, in the Ocell district, for $33,000, and have taken possession. Mr. Young has but recently finished a fine new residence on the place, and the boys step into one of the finest improved farms of the valley. They expect a sister out from the west soon to keep house for them. They spent several months looking over the Pacific Northwest and California for a good ranch proposition, and concluded that Hood River was the best country they had seen.

Clarence Gilbert and mother went to Portland Tuesday afternoon. The Royal Neighbors gave a surprise for Mrs. Ella Klinger, the occasion being her birthday. The evening was spent with music and games, and delicious refreshments were served. Hon. E. L. Smith addressed the students of the high school Wednesday afternoon on the subject of "Forestry." His talk was very interesting and was appreciated very much by the students. Sketches of Dr. Lathrop for Sunday's A. M., "The Sacramental Cup." After the sermon the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. No services in the evening on account of the baculaeate exercises. "Things That Endure" will be the subject discussed at the Baptist church at 11 a. m. next Sunday. In the evening the pastor will give the third in a series on the Sabbath question, "How to Spend Sunday." Mrs. John Cowley requests that if the person who broke down her rose bushes and trampled the seeds out of existence in her flower garden, in order to get some peonies, would call any time during the day from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m., they will be very gladly presented with a bouquet of flowers. The tracks of the culprits have been traced to their own doors. C. B. Tudor and wife, of Columbus, Ohio, who have been spending the winter with their son in California, stopped off on their way home to visit their cousin, J. C. Porter, and family. Mr. Tudor was delighted with the valley and says that he did not see any part of California which had the substantial resources back of it that Hood River has. California cannot produce the results, and the inflated values in that state are a disappointment to the purchasers. Egbert-Hunter. Married—May 9, 1908, at the home of B. P. Moses by Rev. W. C. Gilmore, Solon B. Egbert and Jennie Hunter. Only members of the immediate family were present. Born. To Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Gilmore, at the Cottage Hospital, May 9, a son. To Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Jordan, May 7, a girl. Masonic Meetings. Friday evening, Royal Arch, work in M. M. degree. Saturday evening, A. F. & A. M., work in F. C. degree. Monday evening, Commandery, work in K. T. degree. REAL ESTATE DEALERS VISIT HOOD RIVER The visit of the Portland Realty Board to Hood River Saturday was enjoyed by the visitors, although the day was cold and windy, in fact, one of the most disagreeable of the season. On account of the unpleasant weather the entertainment of the visitors was somewhat curtailed and confined to the trip through the valley, while the speaking was done at the Pine Grove Grange hall, and no stop was made in the city. The visitors were met at the boat with automobiles, carriages and jasses, and taken at once on their ride through the valley. Although many of Portland, many of them had never before been through the valley and remarks of praise were universal asked for the endorsement of the movement by the visitors, who assured the "that it would certainly be given. W. L. Boise, representing H. W. Fries, president of the board, who was not able to be present, thanked the apple men for the cordial reception, and said he had noted in the past four years large additions to the acreage devoted to apple culture in the "Garden of the Gods, where fruits were brought up by both sides of the valley and the bright prospects for the future. It will result in much good to Hood River, as it will give the men who are selling property to the west before the close, and each one of the candidates must not overlook any support which they can control, and thereby lose by inactivity. The following was the vote taken yesterday afternoon: Margaret Nickelson..... 1088 Leah Herberner..... 1001 Nettie Allen..... 1180 Irma McReynolds..... 891 Mamie Howard..... 800

LAST WEEK OF THE QUEEN CONTEST

Saturday, May 16, at six o'clock in the evening, the contest for the honor of representing Hood River at the Rose-Carnival will close. The last few days has witnessed considerable activity among the friends of the fair contestants, and when the polls close Saturday evening there is expected to be a good big vote rolled up for each one. The lead was changed yesterday to Miss Nettie Allen, with Miss Nickelson second and Miss Herberner a close third. It is anybody's race so far and it is impossible to tell at this time who will be the winner. It is said that there will be some surprises in store before the close, and each one of the candidates must not overlook any support which they can control, and thereby lose by inactivity. The following was the vote taken yesterday afternoon: Margaret Nickelson..... 1088 Leah Herberner..... 1001 Nettie Allen..... 1180 Irma McReynolds..... 891 Mamie Howard..... 800
