PIANOS

AT FACTORY PRICES

Must be Sold Within Ten Days

Pianos of world-wide reputation such as Kimball, Decker & Son, Lester, Marshall & Wendell, Hobart M. Cable, Kohler & Campbell and the celebrated self-playing Auto-piano offered at prices never before quoted in this city.

Commencing Wednesday, June 10, we inaugurate our annual sale of Pianos in Hood River at the Bartmess Furniture Store. Owing to the proximity of Hood River to Portland, our headquarters, we have not deemed it wise to establish a branch store here. We prefer to annually hold a big ten days sale and give the people of this city and vicinity the benefit of the cost of operating a piano house here. Including rent, drayage, and freight bills, salary of local manager, etc., the cost of operating a store in a city of this size amounts to not less than $3,000 yearly. You, Mrs. Piano Purchaser, will get the benefit of this tremendous saving during this big sale. For $187 we will sell you a piano for which the small dealer asks $300; for $248 we are offering a high grade instrument that retails regularly for $375. Do you wish to save $60, $100 or perhaps $135 on a piano and at the same time get it from a reliable house?

MEETING OF COMMON COUNCIL

The meeting of the common council was held Thursday evening, an adjournment having been taken from Monday evening on account of the city hall being used by the election board. Councilmen Arnold and Hershner were absent.

A report was received by the judiciary committee that the bond of the Columbia Bridge Co. was responsible, and it was accepted.

The petition to open Lena street was laid on the table, on account of there being no funds in the city treasury to pay for the land to be taken for a street.

E. F. Smith rendered a statement of damages against the city for the sum of $599.50 for using his lot as a street, putting sewer across the lot, cutting down fruit trees, tearing down shed, etc., and also stated that he had been put to an expense of $254.55 for surveyors, attorney's fees and additional expenses on account of such action by the council. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

The new Pine street ordinance was passed.

Marshall Ganger asked for instructions about hiring a man to watch prisoners when working them on the street, and was given authority to do so.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid:

H. Taylor, street work, $28.
W. Ganger, salary, $75.
R. Lewis, salary, $60.
Fashion Stables, draying, $1.75.
W. G. Aldred, hauling gravel, $305.95.
Stanley-Smith Lumber Co., lumber, $50.84.
J. J. Luckey, repairs, 75c.
O. P. Dabney & Co., supplies, $3.50.
Ramona Hotel, meals for prisoners, $10.25.
Wm Haynes, supplies, $2 25.
Electric Light Co., $19 25
Walker & Co., grading Pine street, $300.
A. J. Derby, legal services, $20.
News-Letter, advertising, $5.
County Clerk, recording deed, $2.
First National Bank, expense, $150.

ST. JOHNS

In the Hood River column of the St. Johns Review, we find the following:

Here's to you Hood River counnty, May there be no limit to your prosperity, nor end of days unt l Gabriel blows his horn on the morning of the last great day, and may you have a clean record to bring up with you.

We were made happy yesterday by a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Bert Entrican of Hood River. Mrs. Entrican used to put our copy into type when we played quill-pusher on the News-Letter. She is one of the nicest little ladies that ever stuck type for us, and used to put up the longest string of the cleanest proof of any on the job. She has gone back on the "profesh," though, she has contracted with Bert to clear an apple ranch on the West Side. She is a "man of, her word," to, and will prove a helpmeet for Bert. May their days be many and every one of them happy.

H. E. Huggins, of Hood River, was in the city today and reports the Apple City flourishing. He did not have time to take in the town but just stopped off a car to say hello.

Another Hood River friend called Tuesday, Mr Steptoe, whose daughter lives in St. Johns. Mr. Steptoe informs us that he is about to sell his Hood River ranch and buy a dairy farm in Washington. There has been a number of the old timers selling thier ranches thi spring at wonderfully increased prices. We will bet a "yailer dollar," that seven-fifths of them will be sorry they sold out before the year is out

Mrs. Laurence N. Blower, wife of the mayor of Hood River, and three daughtors were visitors in the city Monday and honored our office with a call. We would be delighted to see these good people locate here. Both Mr. and Mrs. Blowers like St. Johns and we do not believe it will take much urging to win them if there is an opening. Mr. Blowers is one of the pioneer business men of Hood River and we hope he may find it profitable to move with his most estimable family to St. Johns.

A bunch of young friends from Hood River were down Tuesday to attend the Rose Carnival and of course could not turn down the old Hood Riverite, but called for a little while. We regret sincerely that we were so busy we could not show them the town, for we are proud of our little city. There were in the party, Misses Pearl and Lizzie Eby, Nina Noble and Messrs. Earl Eastman and Earl Noble. It was a bunch of girls and boys we used to play with in Hood River, ever since they were little children, and it was good to see them.

E. P. Monson, of Dee, Oregon, a good friend of both the Review bosses, was a very welcome visitor in the office Saturday. He was in Portland in attendance at the funeral of his uncle, Nels Johnson. Mr. Johnson has been a resident of Portland for many years and has been employed in the Good Samaritan hospital for 15 years. He died at 8 o'clock a.m. on the 27th and was buried in Riverside cemetery Sunday from Holman's undertaking parlors at 10 o'clock a m. Mr. Johnson leaves a brother and sister in Minnesota and a sister in Idaho

J. W. Taylor, one of our Hood River friends has bought into the firm of Olson—Roe Transfer company, of Portland. Kindly note their ad in another column and give them a good share of your business. While we do not know the other members of the firm, we do know Mr. Taylor. He is alright. For a number of years he was a "pirate of the main," and with his boat served people of the upper Columbia. He was Johnnie on the spot when wanted and we feel sure he will bring this valuable characteristic with him into his new business.

Mrs Walter Upson of Hood River, with her three daughters have been visiting the past week in Portland and Monday honored the family of the scribe with a call and stayed to tea. We were delighted to see them, as they were our next door neighbors in the Apple City and we remember many good times we had together there. We hope none of our good Hood River friends will turn us down when they come down to the city. Our latch string is aways out. And when here take a look around. We have the nicest little city in the state and it will in the near future be one of the biggest and best. Better catch onto the band wagon before it gets to going too fast

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL NOT DICTATE

At the regular meeting of the Commercial Club Monday evening, a delegation from the Democratic organization, consisting of Dr. W. S. Nichol, chairman, A. J. Derby and C. A. Bell, waited on that body and asked for conference on the matter of recommending officers for the new county.

Considerable discussion of the matter resulted, in which it was decided that the club should not take up the matter of party politics as it would result in dissentions within that body to its detriment as an organization for the improvement of the welfare of the business and other interests of the city and valley.

A committee from Park Grange, consisting of M. R. Noble, B. F. Shoemaker and Frank MacFarland, asked that the Commercial Club cooperate with Park Grange at Grange Park, and also have a double celebration of the Fourth and the creation of Hood River county. It was agreed that the club endorse the proposition.

A delegation of ladies asked to have the Commercial Club make arrangements for a strawberry festival Saturday. A committee, consisting of C. T. Early, W. I. Clarke and W. H. Walton, was appointed to look up the matter of arranging for an excursion from Eugene and Albany, which places, it is said, wanted to have an excursion to Hood River. It was proposed to get rates of $2 from Portland for the round trip, to include a strawberry lunch, 25 cents for which was to go to the ladies of the Unitarian church, who would get up the lunch. Aside from the committee to look up the excursion matter, the club would not take the responsibility of making arrangements for the festival.

Jos. A. Wilson laid a complaint before the club that boys were again selling cull strawberries at the trains, and said if it could not be stopped he would not be responsible for the reputation of the booth and would turn over the keys to the association. The matter will be taken up and an effort made to regulate it.

The directors then held a meeting, at which the routine business matters of the club were attended to.
