Why We Do These Things.

Many customs are so common that we have lost sight of their origin. Times and habits have changed. Relics of olden days have been handed on and carried down from generation to generation to our present day.

Perhaps the modern woman discovered the origin of the courtesy, and that is why it has dropped out of use. At one time it was the custom for women to go on the knee to men of rank to beg for mercy, and later it became an acknowledgment of superiority.

What of the oldest of old customs, the kiss? To kiss is to adore, and the word adore signifies simply to carry the hand to the mouth. Kissing the hand to the statue of a god was a Roman form of adoration and as a mode of salutation expressed reverence and worship.

Will Try to Keep Town Wet. Medford—Saloon men and anti-prohibitionists began suit Monday to prevent prohibition from going into effect in Medford. A clause in the city charter gives ground for this action, and Robt. G. Smith, of Grants Pass, has been retained as attorney in the case.

The old remedies are the best. Hickory Bark Cough Remedy has been in use for over one hundred years by the old Dutch Dunkards of Pennsylvania and is still in use by all the old families of Western Pennsylvania. It is absolutely pure; made from the bark of the white or shell bark hickory tree.

Hopes Center at Denver.

Chicago, June 8.—Leaders in the woman suffrage movement held a meeting today to decide what they should do with the Republican National Convention. The radicals were in favor of fighting, but the veterans counseled moderation and said the best plan was neither to beseech nor demand, but to make a dignified request.

Wife Fills the Pulpit.

Seattle, Wash., June 8.—Mrs. Winfield Scott Smith filled the pulpit of the Rational Church last night, taking the place of her husband, the regular minister, who is recovering from a surgical operation. The congregation agreed that she filled all requirements. In explaining his absence, Rev. Mr. Smith sent a characteristic message by his wife, which he called the "First Epistle of Winfield Scott Smith to the Rational Church, which is now assembled in Seattle." Rev. Smith's charge is a creedless congregation, whose belief is along universalist lines. Some of the most prominent citizens of Seattle are among its members.

CHARGES AGAINST GEO. H. HILL DISMISSED.

Vice-President of the Title Guarantee Company Cleared. Portland, Or., June 8.—George H. Hill, vice-president of the defunct Title Guarantee & Trust Company, will not be prosecuted on the four charges on which he was indicted with J. Thorburn Ross, T. T. Burkhardt and J. E. Altholson. All four charges were dismissed this morning in the Circuit Court by Presiding Judge Gantenbein at the motion of the Deputy District Attorney.

The dismissal of the charges as to Hill does not affect the other three bankers, and they still have the charges hanging over them. Ross is the only one who has had a trial and he was tried on only one of the four charges.

It is the opinion of District Attorney Manning that Hill was not active as an officer of the bank and knew practically nothing of the deals which led to the indictments. The books of the bank revealed no active participation by Hill.

If State Treasurer George A. Steel is indicted because of his part he played in the handling of the educational fund of the state, which resulted in its dissipation by the officials of the Title Guarantee & Trust Co., it will be returned by a grand jury or an information will have to be filed by George J. Cameron when he assumes charge of the office of District Attorney.
