

OREGON STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The 36th annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer Association was held in Portland Thursday, June 11.

Sheriff Blakeley, of Umatilla county, last week brought to the penitentiary the 50th prisoner sent here from his county in the last 18 months.

The Eugene School Board has re-elected L. R. Alderman City Superintendent of Schools and increased his salary from $1400 to $1600 per year.

Clyde Wilson, of Forest Grove, who was shot through the neck a week ago by Quong Lee, a Chinese laundryman, died of his wounds Sunday morning.

Condon is making extensive preparations for an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration. One of the features of the celebration will be the holding of a market day and also a broncho-busting contest.

Several thousand people attended the first annual picnic of the Marion County Modern Woodmen of America at Royal Neighbors in Salem last week. It was a great success in every particular.

Although Lincoln County went wet by the very narrow margin of three votes, the drys refuse to abide by the decision of the voters and propose to contest the result. There is no accusation of crooked work whatever.

Twenty-two graduates, the largest class that has yet left the Eastern Oregon State Normal School, at Weston, will be presented their diplomas June 9 by E. Hofer, of Salem, representing the board of regents.

Ex-Sheriff W. D. Bradford, of Hillsboro, is improving physically, but not mentally. Bradford was one of the most efficient sheriffs the county ever had, but was never right mentally after the hanging of Gus Wachline, who killed John Ledrick in the early '90's.

Tariffs have just been published by the O. R. & N. announcing lower rates on fruit baskets in carloads having a minimum of 24,000 pounds from Portland territory to all stations on the Oregon Short Line. The new rates range from 33 to 40 cents per 100 pounds.

W. E. Grace, who has been president of the Citizens' National Bank, of Baker City, has retired and will be succeeded by F. P. Bodinson of that city. The bank began laying the foundation for its new $30,000 home last week. Mr. Grace will remove to Portland.

The Washington County Board of County Commissioners has agreed to expend no less than $1000 for a county exhibit and for advertising matter at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Fair, provided a private subscription of $2000 more is raised.
