 Best Game of the Season.
 The Hood River baseball enthusiasts went to The Dalles over a hundred strong Sunday to witness the game between that team and the home nine, and proved to be the best game of the season. There was no unpleasantness at any time, and the game was fair from start to finish, the score being one to nothing. The Chronicle reports the game as follows:
 The Dalles baseball nine beat the Hood River team Sunday afternoon 1 to 0 on the local diamond at the city driving park. The game throughout was particularly clean and well played; the diamond was in fine condition for the game. The grandstand was well filled with spectators, many of whom were from Hood River and other places. The day was delightful; the atmosphere was clear and the scene from the reviewing stand was inspiring and picturesque. The Dalles band discoursed several fine selections for the enjoyment of the crowd and for the inspiration of the players.
 The attention of the spectators was given to the center attraction on the diamond just before the game began, for it was then that Mayor Kelly and Mayor-Elect Wingate were to pitch and catch the first ball of the game. Then it was seen that the Mayor and Mayor-Elect had not practiced in many moons, for Mr. Kelley pitched too high and Mr. Wingate didn't catch the ball. They shook hands and the game went on with more expert pitching in the field.
 Hood River had good players among whom were many from Hood River and other places. The day was delightful; the atmosphere was clear and the scene from the reviewing stand was inspiring and picturesque. The Dalles band discoursed several fine selections for the enjoyment of the crowd and for the inspiration of the players.

 Enlists in the Navy.
 Omar L. Day left here two weeks ago to enlist in the navy for four years as an electrician, and a letter received here by his brother states that he was successful. He took the examination at Bremerton, Wash., a week ago, scoring 97 as an electrician and 90 in his physical test. He reported on board the Philadelphia June 24, where he acted as a substitute for one of the regular men until Friday, when he was transferred to the battleship Virginia and is now on his way to San Francisco.
 Mr. Day will spend four months at the training school as a seaman, at the end of which he will receive a regular appointment as electrician. The enlistment is for four years. He is 18 years old, and has a fine chance for promotion. His pay will be $10 a month while in the training school, $24 when he enters the service, and he is expected to become proficient.
 Mr. Day was in the employ of the electric light company here and was one of their trusted employees.
 Brazelton-Clark.
 Married June 26, at high noon, Mr. Ward Brazelton and Miss Caroline Jeannette Clark, Rev. Wm. Hiram Fowler, of the First Presbyterian church of Portland, officiating. The ceremony took place at Eggermont, the beautiful summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Egert. The impressive service was followed by the afternoon and the Order of the Temple in the evening. The visitors were very nicely entertained while at The Dalles and enjoyed the occasion in spite of the excessively hot weather. The following attended: W. F. Laraway, E. L. Smith, C. K. Marshall, H. S. Hasbroock, G. R. Castner, J. M. Wright, E. O. Blancher, D. McDonald, Capt. Crandall, of Hood River, and a very estimable young lady. The groom is a member of the firm of Egert, Young & Co., and has been a resident of Portland for the past three years. He is a very popular young and rising business man.
 The occasion was a sort of a triple celebration, as it happened to be the birthday of Dr. Foulkes and Mrs. Newton Clark.
 Mr. and Mrs. Brazelton will spend a short honeymoon at Eggermont before returning to Portland, their future home.
 Those present were: Rev. Wm. Hiram Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark, Frederick Egert and Owen O. Tiekner, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dwinell and son, Clark, of Harabo, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clark and son, Newton; Mrs. A. L. Parker and Miss E. R. Jones, of Hood River.
 Frightful Accident.
 Geo. Maiker, in the Pine Grove district, met with a frightful accident Monday. While in a tree cutting out some of the branches with an ax, a limb broke, throwing him backwards to the ground, a distance of about twelve feet. As he fell he dropped the double-bitted ax, which struck in the ground, leaving the other blade exposed. As he fell his shoulder struck the ax, cutting through the ribs, severing one completely, and the blade penetrated the lungs. A physician dressed the wound and at last reports he was getting along as well as could be expected, and while the wound is a dangerous one, no very serious results are anticipated.
 Born.
 To Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Swabley, June 29, a girl.
 Card of Thanks.
 A. Kohler and family desire to thank the many kind friends and neighbors for their sympathy and assistance in their late bereavement.
