County Judge C. J. Treuchard, of Astoria, suggests that the Oregon Development League take up the matter of good roads throughout Oregon.

The fact that the city will not receive any money this year from license fees makes it necessary for the city council to provide some other source of revenue.

As commemorative of a great event in the history of a nation the celebration adopted by the American people and put in practice each year on July 4th to keep alive in succeeding generations the spirit of independence and patriotism is unique in the annals of the world.

As commemorative of a great event in the history of a nation the celebration adopted by the American people and put in practice each year on July 4th to keep alive in succeeding generations the spirit of independence and patriotism is unique in the annals of the world.

To the man who has passed to years of discretion there is no doubt that the noisy part of this great annual celebration makes slight appeal.

But we regret to say that the veneration for that great instrument which decreed the right of every American citizen to liberty is considerably on the wane even among those who are older.

Jack Morrison, proprietor of one of the local saloons, which were recently forced to close, Wednesday shipped over $1,000 worth of whiskey and other alcoholic beverages to Portland and announces that there is not now in his former saloon or house a drop of liquor of any description.

It is not difficult to picture the consternation that would have been created by an announcement of this kind fifty years ago and the same spirit ought to still prevail.
