Will Open Art School. Miss Helen M. Stafford, a student of Miss Eleanor P. Clark, of the Massachusetts Normal Art School, will open an art studio in the Henderson residence at 245 State street. Instructions given in oil and water colors, pen and ink, crayon, and charcoal work. The public is cordially invited to call and inspect Miss Stafford's work on August 4th and 5th. Information and terms, and dates of all classes given at that time to all desiring instruction. Increase in Bank Deposits. A statement published in another column shows a very substantial increase in the deposits of the Hood River Banking & Trust Co. Since last March the deposits in this institution have increased from $29,000 to $55,000 showing a gain of $26,000. Much of this amount is new capital that has come into the valley and shows that investments are steadily on the increase. Constructing Cattle Pens. The Swan-Hammond Lumber Company, of Bingen, has secured a contract with the North Bank Railroad to supply 400,000 feet of lumber to be used in constructing cattle pens along the new road. The first shipment of lumber was made by the company Tuesday and work will be commenced on the pens at once. Real Estate Deals. E. J.
