

CORRESPONDENCE

ODELL.

Mrs. C. H. Williams, of Atkinson, Neb., has been here for a visit with her brothers, Douglas and W. A. Lockman, and with her mother and other relatives. Mrs. Williams went there and take a trip to the coast and visit a sister at Nampa, Idaho, before returning to her home. Mrs. and Mrs. G. A. Heinz, of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Reed, of Scott's Mills, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. V. I. Hickox and son, M. Hickox, of Hood River, were visitors at the home of G. E. Bowerman last week. W. A. Lockman has gone to Endicott, Wash., where he will help the wheat men harvest their crop. Last Friday a fire started accidentally destroyed 400 cords of wood owned by Geo. Prather and for a time more damage was threatened, but the fire was gotten under control and farther danger averted. It is not known how the fire originated, but possibly a lighted match or cigar stump thrown by a passerby on the river road may have caused this loss. Last Friday the pipe boring machine was moved from the site it has occupied the past four months and was taken to Willow Flat, where it will be stored for the present. B. T. Young has gone to Carson, Wash., where he relieves his son, Wallace, who is in the employ of Shelby & Son, who conduct a transfer business. Wallace has gone to Lost Lake for an outing. Mr. and Mrs. T. Lacey, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Crosby and Mrs. W. A. Lockman went to Green Point Saturday for a few days buxle berrying. W. L. Carnes met with an accident Saturday and though he was badly out and bruised, everyone is glad that the results were not even more serious. A snap about the bridge became undone and placed the horses beyond control. They ran over a fence into a field, overturned the back and threw Mr. Carnes out, rendering him unconscious and severely cutting and bruising his face. He was taken to a physician and had his wounds dressed, and was then taken to the home of his brother, where he remained until Monday morning, when he was taken home. His physician states that he will get along nicely, but must remain quiet for a number of days. G. W. Lafferty is home from an extended visit in Idaho, Colorado, Oklahoma and Missouri, and is still well pleased with Hood River valley. In last week's account of a party at Lost Lake C. R. Masiker was mentioned as one who was there, when in reality he was at home. Mrs. L. D. Boyd and daughter, Naomi, are in Portland this week. Henry Lewis and family are at home in their new residence south of "Netherby." Miss Alice Lewis is here from Portland for a visit with her parents and with other relatives. Horn-To Mr. and Mrs. Emil West, Thursday, July 30, a son. Master Dale Shelley and his sister, Vivian, were Odell visitors Saturday. Everett Lafferty was down from Green Point Sunday for a visit at home. Vernice Callison has returned to her home at Ols, Oregon in more than one sense of the word Vernice leaves a vacancy that is hard to fill. Her friends are legion. O. H. Ehrek and Clinton Wood ride in brand new buggies of the latest style. Girls, a word to the wise should be sufficient. Mrs. Jas. Cook is in the open air sanitarium at Portland for treatment. Elmer Smith's new piano is now in place at the home of G. W. Smith. A party left Odell early Monday morning bound for Lost Lake for an outing. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kemp, Misses Bertha Lafferty and Margaret Howard, and Messrs. Wallace Young and Don Crosby were of the number.

BELMONT.

July 31 was Mrs. M. P. Isenberg's birthday and M. P. and his sons and daughters planned a surprise for her, and to any it was a surprise puts it very mildly. A very fine kitchen cabinet had been ordered, the flour bin, sugar bin, spice boxes, tea and coffee caddies all filled and it was brought out from town and placed in her kitchen as a token of their love and affection. In the evening her children from Hood River drove out, bringing ice cream and cake, having added to their number Lou Isenberg and wife and Will Somerville and wife. A very happy evening was spent. Miss Lena Isenberg gave her mother a cut glass pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Somerville a vase. We all wish for her many, many returns of her birthday. Miss Mabel Heaton is sewing for Mrs. Robert Jones. Mrs. Barker and daughter, Misses Zillah, Hazel and Norma, were callers at the Isenberg home Thursday. Mr. Williams, who lately bought 12 acres from G. D. Woodworth, has rented the MacFarland cottage and is moving his household goods. Marsh Isenberg had the hay baled Wednesday. Charlie Miller had the hay baled this week. J. H. and Will Davis are baling hay on their places. Fred and Harry Barker are building a fume to put water on the Tuff ranch. Mr. Wentz, being an insurance man, has hired a horse and buggy, and will leave the county for business during his vacation and also see the country. Miss O'Neil is staying for a few days at the C. E. Miller ranch. Mrs. Tolman and children are picking blackberries for Ed Barker on Arcadia farm. Mrs. Holmes and daughter, Lois, are visiting in Oregon City. Miss Zillah Barker left for Portland Sunday afternoon. Mr. Isobell will take possession of the Tyler place August 10. His family will be here by that time. Mrs. Dr. MacFarland and daughter are visiting at Frank MacFarland's. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent by the Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Ramsey's beautiful home. The new company in Belmont were invited as guests of the aid. Mrs. M. H. Nickelson and Mrs. Clark were with us once more. Refreshments of cake and lemonade were served by the ladies of the aid. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Mr. Skinner, of Washougal, has been visiting for several days among his Belmont friends. Mrs. Henry Jantzen, of Oak Grove district, visited Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Church Friday. There are many imitations of De Witt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve, but just one original. Sold by Keir & Cass.

MOUNT HOOD.

Dr. and Mrs. Pineo and Miss Pineo are camping near the Walter Gribble place. Miss Lizzie Cooper is visiting friends at Butte, Wash. Miss Florence Toon came up Monday to visit through August with Miss Nan Cooper. Mrs. Harry Liebe, an old settler of the Mt. Hood valley, was up visiting old friends here last Saturday. Mr. Liebe was surprised at the progress of development in the community, and says he wishes he had not left the place. Mrs. C. C. Babbidge came Monday of last week and went into camp with Mr. Babbidge on the Larwood place. The Misses Constance and Eleanor Ewing accompanied her and expect to spend the summer here. Mr. Fredenburg has been laid up with a sprained ankle for quite awhile, but is able to be about his work again. Mrs. S. J. Duffield, mother of Geo. Duffield, came last Friday from her home in Goldendale to make a summer visit with her son. Mr. Duffield's son, Sherman, came with her. Master Otis Wilson had the misfortune to cut his foot about six weeks ago and has been laid up with it ever since. He has stood his misfortune very bravely and we are glad to see that he is improving. Mrs. Ed. W. Taggart and Mrs. Dr. Brown, both of Portland, are spending a few days at the Larwood home. Mrs. Taggart expects to visit the Inn before returning to Portland. Among other new residences we notice that Jake Lenz is building a substantial dwelling on his place. Chas. Monroe, who has been working for Mr. Gribble, left last week for his home in Eugene. Elmer Meyers had the misfortune to cut his foot last week. We hope it will not prove serious. The central telephone office has been removed from Mr. Gribble's store at Mt. Hood and Mrs. Lafferty, of Odell, now answers to the call for central, the office having been moved to that place. Some of the citizens toward the north and west of the valley have been somewhat alarmed by the forest fire which has been raging the past week. Most of the able bodied men have put in their time the past few days fighting it and we hope it will not become more dangerous. The falling logs have obstructed the county road several times, but have been removed. It has been most troublesome so far on the Gribble, Stanton, Paterson and Dumais places. Mr. S. M. Baldwin died last Sunday, after an illness of about four days. The funeral services were held Monday, a short service at the house at 8:30 conducted by Rev. C. C. Babbidge. Two appropriate selections were sung and after a scripture reading, prayer and a very short talk by the minister, the remains were carried to the waiting hearse and taken to the Idlewild cemetery, near Hood River, for interment. The pall bearers were: C. A. Puddy, R. J. Morton, Will S. Gribble, D. R. Cooper, James Langille and H. C. Rush. In the death of Mr. Baldwin the community has lost one of its oldest and most respected citizens. No words were spoken of him, but words of praise and respect were certainly and sincerely a gentleman.

Mrs. Parent and the Misses Cross and Rivers, of The Dalles, after spending two weeks at the camping meeting, returned home on Saturday of last week. H. C. Deltz and family, of Hood River, attended the camping meeting on last Sunday and also on the preceding Sunday. The old Pennsylvania Dutch Dunkard recommends "Hickory Bark Cough Remedy."
