

ROAR OF CHEERS GREET'S W. H. TAFT

BEFORE PORCH OF BROTHER'S HOME TAFT GIVES THANKS.

Whole Nation Represented When the Nominee Receives His Formal Notification.

Cincinnati, July 28.—Standing on a flag-draped platform in front of the old colonial portico of his brother's home, Judge William H. Taft, at noon today, accepted the nomination of the Republican party to be its candidate for the Presidency.

SEES FATHER FOR WIFE'S LOVE

San Francisco Society Leader Demands $50,000.

San Francisco, July 28.—The height of sensationalism in the marital woes of social set was reached when Bernardo Shorb, the young society favorite, engaged an attorney to bring suit against his father-in-law, John Sheehan, for the alienation of his wife's affections.

His bride was Miss Elizabeth Sheehan, daughter of a wealthy contractor, and the wedding, which took place July 2, 1907, in St. Mary's Cathedral, was one of the affairs of the season.

The bill for $4500 was presented to Sheehan, who vigorously refused to pay it. Finally, Shorb went home one night and discovered a note stating that his wife had returned to her parents.

Held in Bondage by Japanese.

Portland, Or., July 28.—G. Kageyama, a Japanese with a mission education, and Miss Elsie Preston, daughter of an American farmer, living at Yakima, Wash., are in the city jail as the sequel to a romantic elopement from Yakima a week ago.

When the two were arrested the Japanese had the girl imprisoned at a Japanese rooming-house and was holding her against her will until she reconsidered a sudden change of mind about marrying him.

Woman Gets Sixth Divorce.

Los Angeles, July 28.—Mrs. Grace Snell-Coffin-Walker-Coffin-Layman-Love became the champion divorcee of the world when Judge James granted her a decree from her latest husband, Hugh M. Love, secretary of the Board of Health.

LARGE LEVEE GIVES WAY.

Damage to Farm Lands on San Joaquin Estimated at $50,000. Antioch, Cal., July 28.—About 200 feet of the San Joaquin river levee gave way on the fertile Jersey Island tract located east of here, flooding the entire island comprising nearly 4000 acres.

The Jersey Island Company had 100 acres of the finest celery in the river section, estimated at 8000 carloads, that would have been ready to harvest in about two months.

Besides this direct loss all the ditches used for draining the land will be ruined. Also thousands of young celery plants. It was intended to make this one of the largest celery fields in the state.

Grosscup Calls Decision Final.

Washington, D. C.—The President in commenting on the Standard Oil decision said: "There is absolutely no question of the guilt of the defendants or of the exceptionally grave character of the offense. It would be a gross miscarriage of justice, if through technicalities the defendant escaped the punishment which would unquestionably have been meted out to any weaker defendant who had been guilty of such offense."

Judge Peter S. Grosscup, of Chicago, one of the three judges who reversed the action of Judge Landis in bring the Standard Oil Company $29,400,000, declared that the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals was practically final. The judge then said that neither the Attorney General nor any one else had any right to demand a retrial of the case.

"All that can be done is to apply to the United States Supreme Court for permission to reopen the case. It is not meet that I should enter into a discussion with the President. The President comes into court with no greater and no less privilege than is accorded to any other private citizen. His powers are simply those of any defeated litigant."

Change in Telephone System.

Portland, Or., July 28.—Extensions and betterment of the service are the purposes behind the plan of reorganization that has been adopted by the directors of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company. The new system will become effective about the first of August. It includes the redistributing of the company's telephone system into three districts.

GRAND PAGEANT FOR PRINCE.

Depicts Romantic Stories in Annals of Old French City.

Quebec—The Prince of Wales occupied the royal box on the Plains of Abraham to watch the pageant depicting the romantic history of Old France in Canada. It was a production after the style of old-time mystery plays, presented on a scale of vast magnitude, with over 3500 actors taking the many roles. It was also the first appearance of the so-called historical pageant on this side of the Atlantic.

PRINCE OF WALES.

of Quebec and the landing of Jacques Cartier and his band. Later the scene changed to the French court at Fontainebleau and Louvre, where Champlain was commissioned to set out for Quebec. The court scenes were given by upwards of 1500 courtiers and court ladies, drawn from the leading families, and several hundred horses, with the open plain forming the stage on which this army of players appeared.

The final scenes showed the armies of Wolfe and Montcalm, in numbers almost equalling the original armies, marching side by side in a parade of honor.

Typewriter Girl Wins.

Reno, Nev., July 28.—A verdict of $1825 returned in the case of Kathryn Collins against a brokerage company in Reno closed a unique damage case. The plaintiff alleged that she suffered injuries requiring two operations because she was compelled to sit at her typewriter on a cane-bottom chair several inches too high. Expert evidence as to what constituted a proper typewriter's chair formed the feature of the two days' trial.

Bryan Admitted to New Lodge.

Omaha, Neb., July 28.—William J. Bryan was admitted to the mysteries of the Knights of Ak Sar Ben, an order composed of the business men of Omaha and the state of Nebraska. A large number of Lincoln business men came to Omaha to witness and participate in the initiation. Mr. Bryan's welcome on his return to Nebraska from his trip to Chicago to meet the Democratic leaders was strictly non-partisan, but none the less cordial. The name of the organization of which he was the guest is the word Nebraska spelled backward, and Mr. Bryan said it appealed especially to him, for his habitual backwardness has been a matter of comment.
