

Agents for Sweet, Orr Overalls and Corduroys

CRAM'S

Butterick Patterns 10c & 15c. Sole Agents for Hood River

That Trip to the Sea Shore

Calls for a new smart tailored Suit, or perhaps a swell new Dress Skirt and some crisp new Shirt Waists. Well, CRAM has them, and anything else, that the good old vacation time calls for in new, stylish wearing apparel. We will save you enough on your outfit to pay a week's board at a swell Beach Hotel.

Togs For the Little Men

When you are considering your Boy's next Suit, if you are not already a patron of our up-to-date Boys' Department, remember that NO STORE IN AMERICA can offer you any better and few as good as the line we sell. Responsible makers, new ideas, honest material, moderate prices, perfect construction, a few of the interesting points in our clothes.

Boys' Swimming Trunks

Royal Worcester Corset Agency

THE UP-TO-DATE STORE

Iron Clad Boys' & Girls Stockings, 25c

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

The Diets Studio for photos. See that Clover Seeder at McDonalds. Pickled pork and corned beef—McGuire Bros.

Lime and cement in any quantity at Whitehead's.

C. H. Stranahan went to Potland on the local Saturday.

E. B. Long went to the Rose City Saturday to spend Sunday.

Fresh halibut, salmon and razor clams at McGuire's Friday's.

Schram Fruit Jar, easy to seal, easy to open, for sale at McDonalds.

Land plaster both kinds, Utah and Ore., at Whitehead's feed store.

Timothy, red and white clover, vetch and alfalfa seed at Whitehead's.

Go to W. S. Gribble. Mt. Hood, for the District No. 76 Shoe.

Black Leaf Tobacco Extract, sure death to aphids, at Whitehead's.

Wheat, alfalfa, clover, mixed clover and timothy hay at Whitehead's.

C. G. Partt came up to spend the day with his son, E. W. Partt, Thursday.

For sale—At a bargain, a modern house with two 1/2 lots and barn, lots face on Oak running through to State street. Apply to J. Otten.

W. A. Morgan and wife, who are now located on a farm near Oregon City, visited Mrs. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Abbott, last week.

Now is the time to order your Spring Suit. The very latest and best things out will be found at the Toggery. Confidence in the Royal Tailors means better clothes for you.

If you want to buy or sell real estate go to Outhank & Otten. Money loan on first mortgages. Abstracts and legal papers carefully prepared. Notarial work of all kinds.

The Royal Tailors of Chicago and New York are the largest and best merchant tailoring house in the world. See their line of samples for spring at the Toggery.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Fouts and Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Duncan joined Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker at Camp Overalls, in the Lost lake district, this week.

Rev. Stark, who has been in charge of the Lutheran church in the valley, left for the east Friday. It is expected that a pastor will be supplied the church from Portland.

If you wish to save $50 to $75 when you buy your piano, buy direct from the factory dealer and not from agents or canvassers. Several beautiful instruments just received from Chicago at Soule's Piano House. Second hand pianos and organs taken in exchange. Balance cash or time payments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Collier, of Valparaiso, Neb., who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cooper for several days, left Saturday for a trip through California. Mr. Cooper and Mrs. Collier formerly lived in the same town in the middle west where they went to school together. Both Mr. and Mrs. Collier were very much impressed with the attractions of Hood River and expect to return here with the idea of locating.

Fresh ranch eggs at McGuire's. Our work guaranteed. Deitz Studio Finishing for amateurs at Deitz Studio.

Best line of Spray Nozzles at McDonalds.

Chicken for Sunday dinner at McGuire's.

Wood For Sale—Phone 3595. L. E. Taft.

Wheat and Timothy hay at Whitehead's.

For Flower and Alfalfa Seeds go to McDonalds.

Metal house numbers at Hunt's Wall Paper store.

Fresh made sausage at McGuire Bros. every day.

See W. S. Gribble for Duck Eries, Feed ovens, if

Yucca Tree Protectors, kept in stock at McKeenolds.

Petaluma Incubators for sale at McKeenolds & Co.

Rex spray in any quantity at Whitehead's feed store.

Clover, Timothy and Alfalfa hay at McKeenolds & Co.

Stock foods of different kinds at McKeenolds & Co.

C. J. Calkins returned from a business trip to Eastern Oregon Friday.

W. A. Lockman left for the harvest fields of Eastern Washington Friday night.

E. P. Mitchell, of the Skamania Pioneer, of Stevenson, was a visitor at Hood River Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heilbronner went to Portland Sunday for a short visit with Mrs. Heilbronner's parents.

Mme. Abbott's closing out sale is still on. To any one wishing to locate in a good paying business I offer my stock and fixtures at invoice.

Call at Soule's Piano House for Edison phonographs and records. With the exception of one house in Portland this is the largest stock in Oregon.

Persons desiring to pack apples for the Apple Growers' Union this year are requested to call at their office and register.

A nice home for sale at less than cost, if taken in the next 30 days. Lots facing Oak and State streets. Apply to J. Otten.

H. H. Bailey, who recently removed to Portland, but has been visiting at Hood River for a day or two, went back to Portland Saturday.

Mordecai Jones came over from his ranch at Haslam and went to Portland Friday. Mr. Jones does not expect to return to England until late in the fall.

J. H. Reid, of Milwaukee, member of the State Board of Horticulture, who acted as one of the judges at the Hood River fruit fair in 1908, was a passenger for Portland on No. 1 Sunday. Mr. Reid stated that he would be on hand for the fair this year.

A. D. Hughes, of the new abstract firm of Hughes & Wentz, arrived at Hood River from Baker City Saturday. Messrs. Hughes and Wentz went to The Dalles Monday to make preliminary preparations for starting on the work of transcribing the records.

D. C. Clapp returned from a visit at Portland Friday.

J. L. Roberts, of Mosier, spent Sunday at Hood River.

Frank Davenport returned from a business visit to Troutdale Monday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newby, at Mitchell's Point, July 29, a girl.

Mrs. Mattie Williams, of Atkinson, Neb., is visiting Mrs. W. A. Lockman.

A. P. Hatham, accompanied by his daughter, Maud, took a drive over the valley Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nichols, of Milton, Ore., are visiting at the home of their son, J. E. Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nichols left Monday for Moro for a visit with Mrs. Nichols' parents at that place.

W. L. McGooglie and W. H. Colley, of Roylton, Minn., visited at the home of C. U. Dakin last week.

Francis Sealy, of Sealy & Mason, who owns a place in the valley, came up Sunday and spent the day here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. MacInnes, of White Salmon, made a brief visit at Hood River Saturday on their way to Portland.

James A. Cook returned Sunday evening from Portland, where he left Mrs. Cook at a sanitarium for medical treatment.

Douglas Lockman and his sister, Mrs. C. H. Williams, who is visiting the Lockmans, went to Portland Friday on a business visit.

The Ferris Carlisle Stock company is billed to appear at the opera house Thursday and Saturday evenings. Tonight they will present a new play, "My Uncle from Japan," and Saturday night "Pretty Miss Nobody."

Ernest C. Smith, who has been engaged in the practice of law at Pendleton, has decided to locate at Hood River and will engage in the practice of his profession. It is probable that Mr. Smith will take office room with A. J. Derby.

S. J. Frank has sold his harness business to G. Irwin, who recently came here from Denver, Colorado, and will move to his ranch in the valley. Mr. Irwin, who succeeds Mr. Frank in business, is experienced in the harness business and will conduct it along the lines established by the former proprietor.

Prof. W. S. Ballard, well known in the horticultural world, was a visitor at Hood River last week. Prof. Ballard was here for the purpose of gathering data to be used in a work on overharding and tree diseases, and stated that he secured some new and valuable information. It is his opinion that orchards can be kept free of insects by methods that will entail less labor on growers and he is working along this line to perfect a system of doing it.

J. W. Herrian, in charge of the fish hatchery at Ontario, Oregon, has notified the officers of the Commercial Club that trout fry there are ready for distribution and that he will send some of them to Hood River to be placed in streams here upon request. Mr. Herrian says that the order should be received at once, as the fish must be shipped within the next few days.

C. D. Hartsch spent Sunday at his ranch.

Mrs. L. Clarke is spending a few days at Hood River.

Geo. Carroll, of Mosier, made a business trip to Hood River Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Van Horn went to Portland Tuesday for a brief stay.

Dr. Carnes, who has been away on a vacation, returned home Wednesday.

E. Shelby Morgan returned to Portland, after a visit here of several days this week.

C. L. Ireland, editor of the Moro Observer, was a caller at the Glacier office Friday.

Geo. Chamberlain, of Mosier, came down from there Monday and spent the day in town.

Mrs. C. A. Robinson, who has been visiting at Forest Grove, returned home this week.

E. A. Schiffer and wife, of Pendleton, visited in Hood River the latter part of last week.

M. F. Hill, who has been in Portland for several days, returned to Hood River Sunday.

J. A. Porteous, of Clifton, Ariz., is visiting D. R. Cooper at Mt. Hood and Jas. Cook, of Odell.

Geo. P. Knowles, who is now located in Portland, came up to Hood River for a short stay Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bagley, of Portland, came up from there for a visit at Hood River Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. McClure and daughter, Pearl, of Mosier, were the guests of Mrs. J. W. Wiedrick Tuesday.

The Apple Growers' Union has appended paper on hand. Better get what you want now while there is plenty.

Mrs. J. Edgington was fortunate enough to draw the buggy recently offered as a prize by Hanna & Perigo.

Mrs. S. P. Rolph and son will leave Thursday for their old home at Waukau, Wis., where they will spend some time visiting friends and relatives.

Methodist church—Subjects for Dr. Lathrop Sunday, a. m.: "Lessons from High Priests' Bread Plate," p. m. "Environment" All invited.

Hattie P. Newmeier, who has been employed at the Mt. Hood hotel, left this week for Portland, where she will take a position at the Hotel Barton.

N. S. Genung and H. Fleming, of Glenwood, Iowa, were callers in Hood River this week. Both these gentlemen are friends of W. F. Laramy and are on the coast looking the country over.

P. W. Jackson, of Walla Walla, Wash., was the guest of his long-time friend, A. D. Moe, for a day or two last week. Jackson formerly lived in the same town in Wisconsin with the editor, and went to school to his grandfather 60 years ago.

Dr. Hawley, of Washington, D. C., who is a nephew of Mrs. DeBusey, recently spent several days at Hood River. Dr. Hawley is an expert chemist in the employ of the government and has been in the northwest since May making investigations for the forestry service. He recently made a valuable discovery in the vast acreage of stump land near Astoria, where he found large quantities of raw material for campher. The doctor has been summoned to Washington in connection with his discovery and will return there in a few days.

O. P. Dabney, who has been attending the Chautauque meetings at Ashland this summer, states that the sessions of the society were very interesting this year. While at Ashland Mr. Dabney met Alfred Montgomery, who is known as the "father painter." In addition to being an artist of great ability, whose portrayal of farm life is world wide, Mr. Montgomery is also known as a student and thinker of great depth. Mr. Dabney says that Mr. Montgomery is a man of great personal magnetism and force of character, and that his addresses were listened to with rapt attention.

Roswell Shelby, of Carson, Wash., accompanied by H. W. Murphy, of the Willamette Valley, came up to look the valley over Friday. Mr. Shelby and Mr. Murphy are old friends and classmates, having attended school together many years ago.

Mr. Murphy is an Oregon pioneer of 1852 and his father, Rev. J. E. Murphy, was the founder of Christian College, now the State Normal School at Monmouth, Ore. In his early days he herded cattle on the plains of Eastern Oregon with Bee, Sulpha, Oregon's cattle king, and afterwards went to the Willamette Valley. He acquired big land holdings there, but four years ago sold 650 acres of it to Krebs Bros., who have since planted it to hops. Although he had passed through Hood River many times this was Mr. Murphy's first visit here and he stated that he was greatly pleased with the country.

"My Uncle from Japan" at the opera house tonight.

Rev. W. C. Gilmore returned from a trip to Portland Saturday.

C. F. Waldo has bought the John Donahue place in the valley.

F. C. Stout has been appointed rural delivery carrier for route No. 2.

C. K. Marshall and son returned from Portland Monday, after a two days' visit.

Murray Kay and T. A. Reavis have been appointed road viewers by the county court.

Miss Carrie Copley, of Portland, came up Friday for a visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Adella Moe is spending a week with Mrs. Caldwell, on the latter's ranch near Green Point.

A Japanese baby was born at Mt. Hood last Friday. It was a boy and for this reason its parents hailed its coming with joy.

R. W. Kelley is acting as secretary pro tem of the Hood River Irrigation District, vice Percy A. Smith, who has resigned the position.

Mrs. Ollie Muir, of Bellingham, Wash., sister of Mrs. Edgington, Mrs. Hartley and Mrs. Green, arrived Sunday for a visit with them.

Mrs. Hayes, accompanied by Mrs. C. T. Bonney, of Gervais, Ore., who will spend a few days here visiting relatives, returned to Hood River Monday.

Civil service examinations for rural delivery carriers will be held August 22. The examinations will be open to all, but applications should be filed as soon as possible.

"Pretty Miss Nobody" will be presented by the Carlisle Stock company Saturday evening at the opera house. The play is a good one and is said to be well rendered by the Carlisle company.

Mrs. Wheeler and daughter, Nona, of Hood River, were in the city last Monday and looked us up. As our little chaperone was away they promise to come again.—St. John's Review.

The ladies of the Unitarian church will hold a bake sale at the store of Wood & Smith Bros. on next Saturday. Everything in the line of good home-made pies, cakes, cookies and doughnuts will be on sale.

Roy Dean, Harry Bailey and Clarence Shaw, who recently formed a partnership to do electrical work, have rented the basement under the Hood River Banking & Trust company and will conduct their business there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lage will leave the last of the week for an extended trip in the east. They will go over the Canadian Pacific and visit in a number of eastern cities, and on their way back will spend two months with relatives and friends in Iowa.

Chas. Hall has the latest addition to the automobile squad. It is a six-horse power brush auto buggy. Mr. Hall received the new machine last week and is using it to save many steps in getting around to attend to his several business enterprises in the city.

Six cars of machinery and other material for the new Hood River Spray company's plant have arrived and work of installing it has been commenced. It is expected to have the plant in readiness in time to manufacture spraying material for fall and winter orders.

A communication from the Mt. Hood Development League calling the editor's attention to the fact that many orchards there were overlooked by the Glacier man in his recent trip through the upper valley, was crowded out this week for lack of space. It will appear next week.

S. Green, representing the United Wireless Telegraph company, which has established a plant in Portland, and has a station on Council Crest, is at Hood River, in its interests. The United Wireless company is being given a great deal of attention lately in the Portland papers. It is said by them that this system is being very successfully operated along the coast. Mr. Green expects to remain some time at Hood River and may open an office here.

Hurt in Runaway. W. L. Carnes, while returning to his home in company with his ten-year-old son Saturday, was run away with and sustained painful injuries. When near Gill's store the horse on out of the harness Mr. Carnes was driving became unmanageable and the team became unmanageable. Calling to his father to jump the boy tumbled out of the wagon and escaped unhurt. Mr. Carnes did not do so, however, and was thrown from the buggy with such force that he was rendered unconscious. He was hurriedly brought to Dr. Shaw's office, where he was revived, and it was found that he had sustained several bad cuts about the head and face. He was also badly

READ These warm Days. A Large Assortment of LATE COPYRIGHTS Regular $1.50 Editions now 65c Now is the chance to read those books which you could not afford at $1.50. Slocum's Book Store PICTURES FRAMED

MARION MacRAE PORTLAND F. W. ANGUS HOOD RIVER LIST YOUR PROPERTY WITH MacRae & Angus Portland and Hood River We are prepared to handle HOOD RIVER FRUIT LANDS on a large scale and if you want to make prompt sales give us your contract. Phone Mr. Angus at his farm, Home phone No. 187L, Hood River. Write to the Portland office, 432 Chamber of Commerce.

FOR SALE 5 ROOM HOUSE AND TWO LOTS $800 On Montello Avenue. Three blocks from postoffice. House well built, plastered; main house 14x26 with L 14x16; has city water, sink, etc. Lots occupy 70x100. Magnificent view. Terms, Half Cash Balance on very easy terms. House will rent readily for $10 a month, or 15 per cent on investment. Briggs-Ament Land Co. Room 6, Davidson Bldg. Hood River, Oregon bruised and shaken up. His injuries are not serious, however, and it is expected he will soon recover. Notice. Notice is hereby given that the assessor of the Hood River Irrigation District has completed the assessment roll for 1908 and turned the books over to the secretary, where it may be inspected. The board of directors will sit as an equalization board, commencing Wednesday at 2 p. m., August 28, 1908. By order of president, R. W. Kelley, Secretary.

GET IN THE HABIT OF TRADING AT Booth's THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES Ever Pick Up a Dime On the Street? Kind of a self satisfied feeling that you are that much ahead, isn't it? Well just walk up the street and gaze into our Rummage Sale window and you'll see bargains that will fill you full of such feelings. Hundreds of articles that are useful, which you can buy during the sale at under prices. We couldn't buy more like them and sell them at such prices, so you had better Do It Now