

CRAM'S STORE IS RELIABLE

You, and we too, hear it so often that we don't realize all that it means sometimes. It is quickly said, to be sure, but when we stop and consider how carefully the structure of such a reputation must be built, it looks different and is worthy of some sober thought. How in the beginning the foundation must be laid in the strongest and best material this world knows, absolute honesty of purpose, how each transaction must be carefully placed in its position, putting one square deal on top of another, until we erect such a wall of confidence about us, that friends and neighbors gladly gather within and assist us in the work we are doing toward building up a great business right here in Hood River, a business that you and I are proud of, a business which does and will command the respect of this community. This Fall finds us ready with the greatest line of wearing apparel ever assembled in Hood River. We ask the pleasure of showing you any items you are interested in. Its no trouble.
