IN telling you that our stock of Boy's Fall Clothes is ready for you, we want to say some things for you to weigh carefully before making a purchase anywhere else.

If you really knew that we represent the one leading maker of boy's clothing, and had fully learned the difference between XTRAGOOD and other brands,—it wouldn't be necessary for us to use a single line of printed matter to tell the merits of our goods. You would never think of getting any clothes for your boys but XTRAGOOD; and we could count on your coming here when ready to buy.

The best tailors that ever lived work in the Ederheimer-Stein shops. This firm uses more high class materials and less of the poorer kind than any house in the boy's clothes business. They manufacture on a greater scale. That means a bigger purchasing power to our money, and to yours,—decreased cost and lower prices all along the line.

This is the only store in town selling XTRAGOOD clothes. The only store that can get them. We're out to please and satisfy you; we've selected the makers best able to help in this. It's one grand effort on the part of both the makers and this store to see how much we can give you for your money.
