

CORRESPONDENCE

ODELL.

Mrs. James English went to The Dalles Friday for a few days visit with relatives. Roswell Shelley was visiting about Odell several days last week. Mr. Shelley is always firm in his faith in Hood River valley and its possibilities which are now and will continue to be proven. Quite a number of Odell people have been ailing from colds or a sort of grippe. F. A. Massee was showing his friend Mr. Galloway of Wisconsin some Odell orchards one day last week. Mrs. Callison's many friends will be glad to hear that she is doing nicely, an operation for tumor having been performed a week ago last Tuesday. Odell school is closed this week as the teachers will attend the institute. Clinton Wood and Elmer Lafferty have been doing some artistic work in the building and painting line as shown by the barn at the home of A. Wood. James English now owns the team formerly owned by B. E. Young and Mr. Young owns the one formerly owned by Mr. English. In plain words they traded horses. J. W. Strong and family expect to go to their new home at Washougal, Washington soon, quite likely this week. Orchardists are busy harvesting their apples. W. L. Carnes has built an apple house on the Claude Copple tract. Mr. Carnes has charge of the orchard on that tract. Miss Cooper left Saturday for Georgia where she is to teach the current school year. Mrs. Jones and daughter Lottie left last week for San Francisco to spend the winter with Mrs. Jones' elder son, James. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Moody will live in Mrs. Jones house during the winter. Robert Morton left Monday to attend the Pendleton academy the present year. Rev. Washburne of Washington, Mo., arrived Friday with his wife to be one pastor during the winter. He delivered two able sermons Sunday. Rev. Cornelius, who has been filling the pulpit during the month of September left Tuesday with his family to attend Presbytery in Portland, from which he will return to his work on the Umatilla reservation. Rev. Washburne made a business trip to Portland this week. Miss Nan Cooper's friends were glad to shake hands with her again Sunday. School closed Tuesday for the rest of the week. The teachers, Prof. Murdoch and Miss Parcell, having gone to The Dalles to attend Teachers' Institute. The hunting parties including Jim Cooper, Chester Walton, Johnnie Cooper Mr. Hill of The Dalles, Geo. Dimmock and others, returned with seven deer which they generously shared with their many friends. Warren Cooper, Deputy Forest Ranger and his crew of helpers, J. Davidson, Geo. Cooper Mr. Phisick, Floyd Hess, Lawrence Puddy, Cliff Ford Thomas, Joe. Palkey and Alex. Fortan returned Wednesday from the Mt Jefferson country where they had been fighting fire and made trails during the summer. We are glad to have them all home again. A crew of ditch workers are camped of the Hess ranch. Grandma Wishart and daughter Miss Emma have returned from their visit in Nebraska. BELMONT. Miss Beas Iseberg spent Saturday and Sunday at home returning to Portland Monday morning. M. P. Iseberg is visiting his daughter at Forest Grove. Miss Pearl Blaylock spent Sunday at home.

rooms over Harry Connaway's warehouse. The groom is a brother of Mrs. J. J. Krumenacher and since coming here a few months ago has been known as an industrious young man. The bride who recently came from Illinois is very favorably mentioned by those who know her. The friends of the young couple wish them a long, happy, and prosperous life. Work is in progress that is to result in a 40x10 modern bungalow in which when finished Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Klemmer will reside. This bungalow is being built on Mr. Klemmer's 40 acre tract which is one of the finest orchard tracts in Odell and with the addition of this modern home will make this valuable property even more desirable. Everett Lafferty was down from Green Point Sunday for a visit at the home of his parents, M. R. and Mrs. G. W. Lafferty. Horace Hollenback of Myrtle creek, Oregon, has been here for a visit with the family of J. F. Strong. Notices of Presidential election to be held Tuesday November 3rd have been posted. In some manner a mistaken idea has prevailed and appeared in Odell notes of last week. This was regarding registering of voters. Those who registered last spring are not required to register in order to vote at the approaching election. Arthur Strong and George Pfingst came home Saturday rich in experience if not in finances. Rev. Troy Shelley has gone to Santa Cruz, California hoping his health may be benefited by the change of climate. Mrs. Guy Talmage and little daughter Rosalie have gone to Marmont, Oregon. MOUNT HOOD. Miss Cooper left Saturday for Georgia where she is to teach the current school year. Mrs. Jones and daughter Lottie left last week for San Francisco to spend the winter with Mrs. Jones' elder son, James. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Moody will live in Mrs. Jones house during the winter. My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

Best hair dressing for men. It is a hair tonic, a hair food. Sarsaparilla Pills. Cherry Pectoral.

Young Men's Clothes Ederheimer, Stein & Co., Makers

YOU young fellows must depend on this store for your style ideas same as your books for a knowledge of history, or daily paper for the news.

Marvelous how easy it comes with these Ederheimer-Stein suits. They're the product of specialists in the Young Men's field; more authentic and dependable on that account. We're showing the new Fall styles; the new shades; in all sizes for Young Men.

brother, Geo Chamberlain and sister, Mrs. Eruston. Geo. Huskey, wife and child came up from Crawfordsville, Oregon, Friday evening. They expect to spend the winter in Mosier. George bought with him a fine pair of Elk antlers; he killed the elk a week or so ago. Among the Mosierites going to Hood River Saturday, we noticed the following: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davidlizer and children, Mrs. E. L. Root and children, and Clyde Root. Mrs. W. A. Husbands was in Hood River Friday afternoon and evening. Mrs. A. M. Koop's daughter-in-law and little son came from Independence, Oregon, Saturday to pay her a visit. The Modern Woodmen gave a watermelon social at Lamb's hall Saturday evening. It was "free for all" and a number of Woodmen and their friends were present and all enjoyed the treat of melons to the fullest extent; a large crowd gathered around the table which extended the full length of the hall and the Woodmen were careful to see that no one was overlooked in serving the delicious melons, of which they had a great plenty. Games and some wrestling feats amused the visitors until late in the evening when all turned homeward, declaring that they had enjoyed a rare treat as well as a very pleasant evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor returned Saturday evening to their Mosier home for the winter. J. M. Carroll made a business trip to Hood River Monday. Wm. Akers has improved so much he took a trip to The Dalles Saturday, expecting to remain several days with relatives.
