MIGHT HAVE BEEN A FAILURE

The fruit fair was a great success. It added further laurels to the many that Hood River has already obtained and demonstrated more conclusively than ever that it has become a feature of the apple industry here that accomplishes untold good in many respects and must be maintained. It was only through the merest accident however that this great success was not turned into failure by a continuation of the rainy weather and the fact that Hood River has no permanent building in which to give the great apple show that has become one of the most important events on the coast.

With a suitable building the action of the elements could to a large extent be defied. Each time that the fair is given the managers of the association experience the same trouble in securing quarters in which to house it. When it is possible to insure the absolute success of the fair and to do away with much of the arduous work connected with it by the erection of a building, which could be easily accomplished by the popular subscription of a comparatively small amount, it is hoped that before the next two years roll around that this vexatious question will be taken care of.

Many who have never given this matter any thought before were this year confronted with the seriousness of it and are loud in their demand that the matter be taken up at once. There is no doubt that now is the time to do it and that a meeting should be called to consider the proposition while all are interested. As we have before stated plans for a building of this character have been made on a basis that would not only make it self supporting but pay interest on the investment. There are many reasons for the erection of a permanent fair building, but the most urgent is, that a great success such as has just been scored for the Hood River apple may not be turned into failure.

THE MAN FOR THE OFFICE

As a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people, William Taft is undoubtedly eminently qualified for the office. In summing up his capabilities the Philadelphia Public Ledger, an Independent Democratic paper says: Of all the presidential candidates within the memory of this generation, Taft is unquestionably the best equipped, in training and experience, and in wide and close contact with large affairs. In one important respect his equipment is unlike that of any of the presidents, no one of whom had ever served on the bench. With the exception of those nominated on their military records, and two or three who had been governors of their states, the presidents have been men whose political training was in the legislative branch. Taft was never in Congress, or even in his state legislature. He is wholly without personal experience in what is called practical politics. He was educated for the bar; early became a judge; the whole trend of his thought and of his ambition has been in the line of the judiciary, and his ingrained judicial temperament it was that made him so conspicuously useful and successful in the many difficult administrative problems he was later called upon to solve.

It was a distinct sacrifice he made when President McKinley took him from a life position that he enjoyed, and that was in the line of his dearest hopes, to lay upon him the burden of establishing peace and order in the Philippines. The judgement, tact and skill with which he carried out that great task; the candid diplomacy with which he smoothed away perplexing obstacles; the unselfish devotion with which he has upheld the interests of those far away people in the face of indifference at home, were an honor to the nation. The same qualities of a wise adjudicator have been repeatedly at the service of the country. In Cuba, in Panama, in Japan, it has been necessary only to "send for Taft." Misunderstandings are cleared up and difficulties vanish before this gracious personality, this calm, clear, disengaging mind. His intellectual integrity and disinterestedness have been an unmistakable and his quiet strength, his unswerving sense of justice, his absolute honesty. It is not a mind that moves by impulse or in startling flashes; it is a mind well poised and of singular lucidity, that reaches its results by logical principles, which do not antagonize, but convince.

There is a wide difference, says the Oregon Tradesman, between the slang and colloquial expressions, "kicker" and "knocker." The "knocker" is one who seeks to injure and belittle everything around him, merely because he is dyspeptic and ill-natured. The "kicker" makes his protest because he believes something is seriously wrong and needs a remedy. The "knocker" is not only useless, but also harmful to a community. The "kicker" may be useful and beneficial, or he may be a bore. It depends upon his wisdom and keenness of understanding. The honest and wise kicker has done much good in the world. His protests have been the effective awakening of the public conscience and the public eye to ill-used abuses more than once. But the "knocker" is no good.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS TIE 2ND COLUMBIAS

The foot ball game played here Saturday between the second Columbia team of The Dalles and the Hood River High School proved an interesting contest and was attended by about 300 spectators. The weather was all that could be wished for and the game developed some very fast playing on both sides in the first half. The score was tied 6 to 6. A remarkable thing about the contest was the fact that no one was injured. After the first half, in which each side scored a touch down and the contest slowed down and ended in a slow struggle for supremacy.

The line-up was as follows: Hood River: Hartley 1 e, Sanders Phillips 1 t, Melroy Kent 1 g, Farmer Young 1 c, Bradshaw Johnson 1 r, Sulpes McFarland 1 t, Rusik Earley 1 e, Cohen Bell 1 q, Bohn, Capt. Moe, Capt. 1 h, b, Alexander Coshov 1 h, b, Connor Baker 1 b, Jones. Umpire—Bandy; referee—Murray. Liners—Huggins and Sexton. Timers—Huston and Davis. Touchdowns—Alexander, Baker. Time—2 hrs. 25 min.; halves, 15 minutes intermission.

In the first half the Dalles kicked off and carried the ball to the six yard line. In the mixup Sanders of the Columbia got the ball and carried it over the line for a touch down and made a good kick for goal. When the ball was again put in play Hood River kicked off sending the piskin for 25 yards into their opponent's territory where it was forced back five yards and then punted to the middle of the field. Baker returned the punt and Bell made a good tackle. The Dalles team then made two offside plays and Hood River lost ten yards by an end run, and a Baltimore breaking through the line. Hood River got the ball and Baker punted for 30 yards. Within 15 yards of the goal the home team made two line backs and got the ball just over the line for a touchdown. Baker kicked goal.

In the last part of the first half the kick off was made by Th Dalles. Early of Hood River fell on the ball and Baker punted from the 5 yard to the 30 yard line when time was called.

In the second half Baker kicked off and Hood River ran the ball down to the thirty yard line. Connor of the Columbians made a clever end run of twenty yards but was brought to the ground by Bell who made a fine tackle. The rest of the second half was devoid of any thing particularly interesting except Coshov's run for a 12 yard gain.

Got Too Cheesy. Dave Edwards after visiting The Dalles set too cheesy Sunday morning and had to be taken to the city lockup. Monday he was fined $25 and costs.

Offe Big Money For Evidence. Several Portland detectives who stated that they had been hired by Hood River reformers to get evidence of alleged illegal liquor selling spent several days here last week. According to their story they were paid $25 and expenses for making the trip and were to be paid $200 if they found evidence that would secure conviction.

A Health Talk. Mrs. Stafford will throw open her home on State street, (formerly Dr. Jordan's residence) to the ladies of Hood River on Friday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock, when Miss Helen New and Mrs. Hitchcock of Portland will give a "health talk." As both of these ladies have lectured in Hood River before, no doubt but that they will be greeted by a large number of ladies. All are invited to attend.

Passed Forged Check. An unknown man passed a forged check at the store of F. H. Morlan Tuesday. The forger worked the usual game of making a small par base, giving the check in payment and getting the balance in cash. The forgery was discovered shortly after the man left the store and officers are looking for him.

Have a Big Stock of Cement

Strausman & Clark have leased the warehouse of Page & Son which was recently moved to a site near the depot and have stocked it with 1000 barrels of cement. It is stated by members of the company that they are going into the cement business on a large scale and on account of the increased building operations here and had been partly locked, was opened without force.

A. A. James has money to loan at 6 per cent on first class security.

Senator Fulton last evening addressed a large and enthusiastic audience on the issues of the campaign at the Opera House. In attendance were many from all sections of the valley. Several burglaries have been reported recently on the hill. The articles stolen were of small value but the fact of their taking place there has alarmed many in that neighborhood.

Events in Oregon

Resume Fight on Pinchot.

Pendleton—J. N. Burgess, president of the State Woolgrowers' Association, has issued a call for the annual convention, which is to be held at Heppner, November 17 and 18. It is believed here that at this meeting the fight on Chief Forester Pinchot will be resumed by a large number of the woolgrowers of this state who are opposed to the forestry policy inaugurated and being carried out by the "Czar of the West," as they call Pinchot.

Found—Purse on street Saturday. Owner desired by district attorneys of the various counties to begin proceedings at once against every dividend-paying mine in the state which has not paid its bullion tax. It is probable that many of the officials of mines that have filed sworn statements showing that they are operating at a loss and yet have been paying dividends will be indicted for perjury in falsifying their reports.

These prosecutions will follow the lines suggested by State Bullion Tax Collector Haley, which shows that, while the output of the state's mines is a million a month, only $45,000 has been paid in for taxes in the last six months. A feature of the report is that many lotteries have been operated openly in the state in violation of Federal and state laws.

The report also showed that the revenue of the state from gambling was in excess of $500,000 a year. The 61 games pay $75 a month each.

Car Blown Into Canyon.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 20.—Two persons were killed and 28 others more or less seriously injured as the result of a small tornado blowing a caboose on a Southern Pacific work train down a 30 foot-embankment near Sherman last evening. The two men killed were laborers.

$80000 Investment Pavilion for Cheanlis

Dentef & Company have started a force of men to excavating at the corner of Pacific avenue and Center street, to provide for a $80,000 amusement pavilion for Cheanlis. C. R. Knutson of Hood River, Oregon, is the man who is financing the scheme. Permission has been granted by the city council for the erection of a reinforced concrete building, one story high, 100x100 feet, on the lots in the rear of the office of the Settemar Abstract & Security Company. The walls will be 16 feet high and six inches thick, and will be built strong enough and so arranged that another story can be added, and the walls thickened, should occasion demand. The floor will be heretofore.

The purpose for which the building is being erected is to provide for Cheanlis an amusement place. It will be used as a skating rink, dancing room, and for other amusements of that nature.

Also a stage will be erected in one end of the building, and the building may be used for an opera house.

Clair D. Noel said that he expected to have the building ready for use in about twenty days.—Cheanlis Beacon.

Accomplished.

Tourist (in Okla.)—Your friend, Gold-button Jack, seems to be a very bright fellow. Alkali Ike—Bright! He's the most accomplished man I ever knowed in my life. Why, he knows how to say "Don't care if I do," in four different languages!—Puck.
