

CORRESPONDENCE

ODELL.

Mrs. C. C. Masiker has been visiting relatives at Columbus, Washington. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Conley has been ill of pneumonia. At last accounts she was improving nicely. Dr. Shaw attended her. Roswell Shelley of Carson, Washington, made a few days business visit in Hood River and Odell last week. Mr. Shelley and his wife intend going to California early in December and expect to remain there for the winter. Mrs. Thomas Lucy has been very seriously ill as a result of having a tooth extracted. Dr. Shaw was called and checked further progress of the disease and at this writing Mrs. Lucy's condition is improving. Mrs. Eunice Luckey of Portland who spoke in the Congregational church in Hood River in the interest of home missions visited at the home of her friend, Mrs. John Kroeger, several days last week. Mrs. Branson, who has been ill of rheumatism is able to be about the house. We understand two well known explorers whose homes are in Odell had made all preparations for flight last Sunday but owing to weather conditions the state of the weather, the attachment to their motor in which is stored the motive power, (hot air), failed to inflate sufficiently and they remained here for a time. Now one of these explorers recently traveled to that far away country known as Mosier in a fruitless attempt to find Portland via the eastern route and we would suggest that on future journeys he carry a book that might be called "Wearly Willes' Guide Book." Boys, mother's cooking and the certainty of a place to rest at home beats the certainty of nights without shelter and eventually the juvenile court and the reform school. Marie Lockman is Odell's central and like Mrs. Lafferty always obliging. Mr. Karalatter and family are at home in the Guy Wilson house. Mr. Hall is at home in a house owned by F. P. Friday instead of in the Guy Wilson house as noted in this issue of the Glacier.

Percy T. Shelley of Marmot, Oregon, is here for a short visit at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Troy Shelley. The many friends of Leita Bowerman will be glad to hear that she is in very much better condition than at this time last week and improves steadily. The Kiemer Bungalow was ready for the plasterers Monday. Cards are out for the wedding of one of Odell's girls, Elizabeth Bertha Lenz, and Mr. Teleford W. Blount of Hood River, Wednesday November 25. Odell friends extend congratulations. After Friday next Ray Markley and his sister Gladys will be at home in the house on the property recently purchased by Smith Bros. of Hood River. Mr. Markley will have charge of the work of clearing land on this tract and will begin at once. Mrs. Talmage informs us that she is not in the house in which Odell notes placed her and that she and her husband are still looking for a house. Mr. Hale and family, formerly of Pine Grove, are at home in the house formerly owned by Guy Wilson now the property of Mr. Knapp of Portland. Mrs. Branson, who has been ill of rheumatism is able to be about the house. Wilson house as noted in this issue of the Glacier. Monday Leroy Krohn was at school jumping with a log stick and he jumped from the high end of the school house porch down to the ground and fell in such a way that one arm was broken and the joint thrown out of place. A very painful injury but we hope that surgical skill and care may soon restore the arm to usefulness. MOSIER. L. Wither, came up Tuesday morning from Portland, stopped off at Mosier and went out to his ranch. He was on the way to The Dalles on important business. Mr. A. M. Koop went to The Dalles Tuesday. Frank Ginger and C. A. Hage made an overland trip to The Dalles the first of the week. C. L. Hosen, who has spent a week on his Mosier ranch, returned to Portland Tuesday. W. I. McClure was in The Dalles this week. F. M. Hunter and son Price returned Tuesday from a visit to the coast. A pleasant surprise was the social event of the week. In the form of a donation party at the church, in honor of Rev. W. A. Stark and wife. The people were not slow in contributing all kinds of edibles, from flour and coffee, rice and yellow lezzed chicken. Some brought nice wearing apparel. A supper of cake and coffee was served, interspersed with music, singing and speaking. Nearly the whole country side was present and those who could not attend were sorry to miss such a nice evening of sociability. W. A. Davis and J. Conner went to The Dalles Wednesday. George Parrish went on a wild goose chase up near the Des Chutes the first of the week. L. Wither of Portland stopped to see old friends Tuesday. He went on to The Dalles Wednesday to make final proof on his homestead. Ira D. Evans returned Thursday from The Dalles where he has been for the last few weeks taking medical treatment. Lee Hunter came home Thursday from The Dalles, having gone the day before to act as a witness for Mr. Wither. D. A. Sturges is making a visit in Loue, Oregon. J. P. Carroll went to The Dalles Thursday to have some dental work done. Mr. Frank Ginger returned home from Heppner, Thursday afternoon. Misses Grace Hodge and Agnes Phillips were shopping in Hood River Thursday. Mr. C. H. Miller was in The Dalles Thursday. O. W. Butts of Omaha, Nebraska, was in Mosier the first of the week. A. L. Dundas came up from Portland Thursday evening to spend a few days on his ranch. L. Lamb went to The Dalles Friday. J. P. Snyder returned home from Hood River Friday. Mr. Heely of Portland spent Friday in Mosier. Miss Elsie Dennie gave a party Thursday evening in honor of her sister Fronia's birthday at their home near town. About 25 schoolmates were present and all reported a very pleasant evening. About 12 o'clock much was served, after which all departed for home. Chas. Bennett returned Friday afternoon from The Dalles, where he has served on the Jury for the last two weeks. Geo. Chamberlain went to Portland Friday on important business. Mr. Wellberg is making a nice improvement to the Pines Hotel, by having another story put on part of the house, thus making more room. He has often been crowded of late to furnish accommodations for all who apply. He has also extended the sidewalk to the corner of his property. J. S. Hunter is laying a foundation and making preparations to erect a dwelling for his family in town. Mrs. John Evans came up from Rithdon Saturday. Wm. N. Akers has disposed of his stock of hardware and furniture to M. E. Choate of Portland. The new proprietor takes possession at once. Born—Saturday November 21, to Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Winans, a daughter. Mrs. A. L. Gove went to Hood River Saturday afternoon to spend Sunday with home folks. John Davenport went to Hood River Saturday afternoon. Frank Ginger went to The Dalles Monday. G. E. Townsend has moved his family into the city for the winter. They are occupying the Davenport house. Mr. C. A. Rainous made a trip to Hood River, Monday. Mrs. Watt of The Dalles visited old friends in Mosier last week. Ray Sturges went to The Dalles Monday. M. F. Grose left for Portland Monday. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morrison and son Lawrence went to Hood River Monday afternoon. Geo. Chamberlain closed a sale of 40 acres of land Monday to the East Hood River Land Co. The land was the remainder of the old Stoneman estate. Try Kodol today on our guarantee. Take it for a little while, as that is all you will need to take. A conference of the officers of the State Dairy Association at Salem has determined the details of that Convention, December 10th and 11th. The sessions will be held in Ye Liberty Theatre, while a commodious hall has been secured for exhibits. The board of trade of that city will receive exhibits and care for them so that they will be in excellent condition for display. Messrs. Wm. M. Ladd, Dr. N. Hutchinson and James Withycombe are among those on the program. Trained Wild Animal Circus. Tuesday and Wednesday nights, December 1 and 2, Al G. Barnes' trained Wild Animal Circus will make its first appearance in this vicinity, and from reports of the press from other and larger cities it is a grand affair. The citizens of Hood River will be the first to have the privilege of seeing the three baby or cub lions that were born at Portland a few days ago, and if you are superstitious or believe in touching lucky objects, you will have the privilege of taking one or more of the baby lions in your arms. There is a tradition among the savage tribes of Africa, and especially Nubia, that if a young lady of a marriageable age will touch a baby lion, she will be married inside of a year. So get in line, girls, and try your luck. A clipping from the Butte Miner reads as follows: "The principal feature in an amusement way, at Al G. Barnes' trained Wild Animal show. Never in the history of amusements in Butte have people been treated to a more interesting and delightful program. This is a real trained animal show, and does not have to take the prize of seeing the big circuses, for few of the big shows have ever carried so large a group of wild and educated beasts. In the center of the big tent is erected a mammoth steel cage, and the audience can sit within arm's length, witness the many thrilling acts, and see as well all taking place in the other rings, for there are three rings. Mlle. Barnes and her riding lion create more favorable comment than any other of the numbers on the program, for the reason nothing has ever been seen to compare with this act in animal training. Miss Altimore and her daring act with the Nubian lions caused several gasps from the less glib, and many a strong man turned his head when, with her great strong arms, she opened the lions' mouth and placed her head between their ugly jaws. Martha Florine slashed her panthers over the nose with a tiny whip, and while they snarled and growled she lay down with them as a mother would fondle her babe. It is a well known fact panthers are the most dangerous of wild animals, but it is also true, as Mlle. Barnes says, "wild animals are never to be counted on." A blue group of ponies, as slick as ribbons, give a part of the program appealing to the little folks, and one pony recently seemed to understand everything said to him, and gave as fine a performance as did ever Jim Key in his blindest days. Election Notice. Notice is hereby given that on the 8th day of December, 1908, at the City Hall, in the city of Hood River, County of Hood River, State of Oregon, a general election will be held for city officers as follows: One Mayor, one Recorder, one Treasurer and three Councilmen; which election will be held at eight o'clock in the morning and will continue until seven in the afternoon of said day. Dated at Hood River this 3rd day of November, 1908. J. R. Nickelsen, City Recorder.

Every one may know the delight of using a perfect range The MONARCH PAYS FOR ITSELF EVERY woman would like to have a perfect range—one that would turn out beautifully browned loaves of bread, cake and pies, baked just as much on one side as another. But some do without this pleasure because they think they can't afford it. It's not economy to keep on using that old range or cook stove—nor buy a range just as good because it costs a few dollars less than a Monarch— Buy a MONARCH Malleable Range and It Will Pay Back It's Own Cost By the use of unbreakable Malleable Iron in the place of the brittle cast iron found in the ordinary type of "Steel Range," the MONARCH is built with every seam practically air tight. The leakage of air that causes excessive fuel waste is done away with so that the MONARCH will require but little more than half the fuel needed by a range of the common sort. With fuel bills cut in two it's easy to see how the MONARCH "Pays for itself." It does better work too—always. We Can Prove These Things to You! LET US show you how the Monarch is built—riveted like a steam boiler. LET US show you how the Malleable Iron in Monarch Ranges will withstand intense heat that would burn up the grey iron in common ranges. LET US explain the Duplex Draft. LET US demonstrate all of these things and the hundred and one other Monarch features that go to make up range perfection. THEN YOU will realize how it is that the Monarch would do your work with less fuel, less time, less labor than is now required. MONARCH MALLEABLE The Stay Satisfactory Range. FRANKTON. Walter Radliff has resumed his school work after several weeks absence. Mr. and Miss Poor, consins of Nina Noble visited Frankton Thursday morning. Lee Sausser last week had the misfortune to fall on a rusty nail. The nail went into his back and he was unable to be in school. This week we are glad to have him back in school. Last Friday ended the third month of our school year. Thus far the school work has progressed very well and we hope to improve the remaining months. The fruit and vegetables brought by the children for the Aid Society express the helpful feeling that prevails in our community and shows the interest the parents are taking in this work. A large box filled with apples, pears, canned fruit, preserves and jellies, and vegetables will make many glad little hearts on Thanksgiving day and the older people will feel that they have been well paid for the time and material expended. Wednesday afternoon Earl Eby spent in visiting his old schoolroom and play ground and recalled memories of happy schooldays spent in Frankton. The intermediate room had prepared a fine Thanksgiving program and on Wednesday afternoon they entertained the primary pupils. The program was nicely prepared and rendered and was much enjoyed by the primary children. The water pipes were all connected and put in place last week and now our water system is very convenient. Pleasant, sure, easy, safe little-liver Pills, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Sold by Kier & Cass. MOUNT HOOD. Mr. Wm. Koeling has finished his house on his homestead so they have moved into it. The Ladies Aid society had a special meeting at Mrs. Walter Gribble's last Wednesday afternoon. A kitchen shower was given in honor of Miss Mae Cooper. Many useful gifts were presented and a long and happy life was wished for the bride to be. Glenna Wilson is home for a weeks vacation from Corvallis. A very interesting meeting of the grange last Friday night.
