

Hood River Leads World's Market

By J. W. Denny, of W. Denny & Sons of Covert Garden Market, London.

We have now seen the first arrival of Oregon Newtoms on this market and have to report, with much regret, that the quality of the fruit is inferior to what it has been in previous years. It may be, however, that the earlier arrivals are the greenest fruit and that considerably better quality and color may be expected with subsequent arrivals. We sincerely hope this may be so, as the fruit we have seen does not stand out sufficiently to demand the attention of the best trade. There have been on the market this week two or three thousand boxes of Hood River Newtoms, which were considerably finer fruit than that from your district, notwithstanding which, they were sold by our neighbors at the low price of from 9s to 12s per box, a price which is our opinion, was too low, but which has had the effect of attracting the buyers away from the lower quality of Oregon fruit.

We are strongly of opinion that there is nothing to be gained by forcing sales, and we are therefore lying low and refraining from pushing out the stuff at a lower price than that which we think it ought to command. The trade for apples continues best. Supplies up to now have constantly been in excess of the demand, and the market has never been clear. We cannot think that this can last much longer.

Choked to Death

is commonly said of babies who have died of the croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had the croup without having a cold or cough at the start. If you will stop the first symptom of the croup with Ballard's Homebound Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

Industrial Notes of Northwest

One of the most important gatherings to be held on the Pacific coast during 1907 will be the convention of Portland of the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations, which will be held through the instrumentality of President W. J. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural College. The American Association of University Presidents, the American Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations, the American Institute of Workers, the Agronomic Society, and the Association of Agricultural Chemists always hold their conventions at the same place and time as the Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations, and will therefore be held also. Delegates to these meetings comprise college and university presidents, directors of experiment stations, experts in the different branches of the Department of Agriculture, and other specialists, and an attendance of between 1200 and 1500 is expected. An extended visit to the A-Y-P Exposition is included in their schedule. The exact date of the convention will be announced soon.

J. E. Delebaugh, editor of the "American Lumberman" of Chicago, who has bestowed such marked praise on Douglas fir, has the following to say editorially in the current issue of the "Lumberman":

"The Pacific Northwest makes a wonderful appeal to every visitor. It is a land of living waters, of golden soil, of mineral wealth beyond comprehension, of forests which will bless mankind when other lands are desolate; a land of mountain, plain and valley; of a people great in intellect, energy, endurance and kindness. In this golden Northwest, in a climate without the harshness of the North, the everlasting softness of the South, these people are building an empire. They have harnessed the stream for power, or pouring them over the plains, have produced fruitful fields and gardens; they are wrestling from the earth its mineral wealth; they are converting the forests into forms of utility and beauty; they are building schools and colleges; the Bible vision of every man dwelling under his own vine and fig tree is realized here, where his every bodily need and intellectual want may be gratified. The natural wealth of the country is great and great are its achievements, but better than all this are the people themselves, a chosen race—growing in numbers and in all the accomplishments of mind and body which make a people mutually useful and happy."

The convention of the Oregon State Dairy Association at Salem last week was the most successful ever held by that body. Washington and California were represented in both attendance and exhibits. The grand prize for best display of dairy products was awarded to F. A. Schubinger of Salem for an exhibit comprising 25 varieties of cheese. The Douglas Creamery Co. of Roseburg won first award for highest scoring creamery butter, F. G. Matthe of Sweet Home, for highest scoring dairy butter, and T. J. Ballantyne of Hobsonville, for highest scoring cheese. The dairymen pledged a fund of $150 per month for the employment of an expert to bring dairy conditions throughout the state up to the highest possible standard. An appropriation of $5000 will be asked from the legislature. President F. L. Kent of Corvallis was re-elected, with Carl Abrams, of Salem, secretary. The time of next year's meeting will be chosen to harmonize with the date selected by the Washington Dairymen, who meet at Chehalis this week. Hon. C. L. Mitchell, of the Dairy Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture, is in Chehalis for this meeting.

For That Dull Feeling After Eating

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—David Freeman, Kenner, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at Keir & Cass's drug store and see what a splendid medicine it is.

C. W. Mott, General Immigration Agent of the Northern Pacific, and R. H. Jenkins, Assistant Passenger Agent of the Portland, Spokane & Seattle Railroad were visitors at Hood River Tuesday. Mr. Mott and Mr. Jenkins had been making a tour of the towns along the North Bank road in the interests of the Northern Pacific lines and came over from White Salmon for a short stay here on their way back to Portland. While here they looked up O. L. Vanderbilt who was formerly in the employ of the Northern Pacific and associated with them in the general offices of that company. They believe that there is a great future in store for the country across the river and state that the new railroads will do everything it can to help develop it.

Christmas stamps placed on sale here by the Visiting Nurses' Association of Portland, are meeting with a ready sale and it has been impossible some of the time to meet the demands for them. An additional supply was received Monday, however, and it is expected that Hood River will make a good showing as compared with the rest of the towns in Oregon where they have been placed on sale. They can be bought at the stores of Chas. N. Clarke, Keir & Cass, Chas. Hall, Wood & Huggins, the Mount Hood Hotel, and several other places.

Kodol for Dyspepsia, indigestion, weak stomach, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, etc., is guaranteed to give prompt relief from any form of stomach trouble. It will cure your dyspepsia. Sold by Keir & Cass.

Card of Thanks

The ladies of the Pine Grove Methodist Episcopal church Aid Society, desire to most heartily thank all their friends and the general public for the generous patronage and cooperation, which made their chicken pie dinner and supper so great a success. The Correct Time to stop a cough or cold is just as soon as it starts—then there will no danger of pneumonia or consumption. Just a few doses of Ballard's Homebound Syrup taken at the start will stop the cough. If it has been running on for some time the treatment will be longer, but the cure is sure. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

A Huge Poultry Farm

Alvin Dings, recently from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, has started in on a large scale to prove what can be done in Lewis county in raising poultry on a large scale, says the Centralia Chronicle. He has purchased 27 acres of land on the Olympia road two miles from the Centralia postoffice and is putting it into shape for the raising of several thousand chickens every year. A brooder house is being built which will have a capacity of 20000.
