Hood River Masons TAKE MORE HONORS An important convocation of the Masonic Fraternity of Oregon took place in Portland Saturday, which was attended by many members of this organization from all over the state. Ten members of Tieman lodge of Hood River were present, seven of them being initiated into the mysteries of the Shrine and one taking a degree in Scottish Rite Masonry. The former were W. L. Clarke, Truman Butler, J. K. Carson, A. D. Snow, J. M. Wright, R. E. Laraway and H. F. Davidson, and the latter C. K. Marshall. Other Masons from here who attended were Dr. F. C. Brosius, C. H. Stranahan and Andy Pearson. J. C. Egbert, R. G. Atwood, and W. A. Johnson, of The Dalles, Representative H. C. Danks, of Dufray and Wm. Oshman, of Rufus also took the Shrine's degree.

The initiation of the class for Scottish Rite honors took place in the afternoon and comprised 31 candidates among whom were H. M. Cole who was elected president of the class which was organized into a permanent organization. After the ceremonies an elaborate banquet was served in the Commercial Club rooms.

The ceremonial session of Al Kader Temple Nobles of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine took place in the evening and was one of the most successful ever held by the Shrine in Portland. There were as many as 61 candidates initiated into the mysteries of what is recognized as the social side of the Masonic bodies.

The ceremonial was attended by members of the temple residing in almost every part of the state, including visiting nobles from almost every state in the Union. Indeed it is a well known fact that no Shrine ever misses a ceremonial if he can possibly help it.

Among the visiting members was Fred A. Hines, of Los Angeles, Cal., the Imperial Chief Rabbah which spells the same as the next Imperial Potentate of the Imperial Shrine of North America—the highest position in the gift of Shrinedom. Noble Hines was accompanied by Ellis Lewis Garretson, the Potentate of 48th Temple of Tacoma and escorted by the popular Arab Patrol of AMH, consisting of about 10 picked men.

Among the pleasant features of the evening's programme, was the presentation of a loving cup to the illustrious Recorder B. G. Whitehouse, who has been the recorder of Al Kader Temple for a quarter of a century.

The banquet served was a very successful event in all the efforts of Potentate L. G. Clarke, assisted by the other officers and the Arab Patrol of the Temple, were in every way a great success.
