RAILROAD MUST PAY FOR SPOILED APPLES

One of the largest verdiets of its kind ever rendered in Minnesota was the railroad by Emerson Hadley and ests are authorities for the statemen Charles Donnelly, St. Paul, The decision will be of the greatest interest and advantage to shippers of fruits, produce, live stock and per ishable property in general, affording cently the number of men who is a precedent as to their rights in simi-

The suit resulted from the failure of the railway company to provide refrigerator cars with reasonable promptness for the use of Richey & Glibert Co. to ship some 40 cars of fance boxed apples from the stations at North Yakims and Toppenish, Washington, to the eastern market during the fall of 1907, as a result of during the fall of 1907, as a result of which delay, the apples became over ripe and damaged and the market declining before they could be shipped.

The railway company asserted that its line, yard and terminals became congested because of an unusually beavy press of business and that a great number of its refrigerator cars had been shipped off its lines early in the season, necessarily delaying the movement of its trains and caus-ing a general car shortage.

The shippers affirmed that the railway company had advance notice of the shipment, which was about the usual crop, and that the road should have been prepared to take care of the shipments without any delay whatever.

The court instructed the jury as matter of law, that it was the duty of the railway company to promptly furnish necessary and suitable cars on request for all shipments which the company might reasonably anticipate would be offered, and that the failure to do so would make it liable to the shipper in damages arising from deeline in market as well as from deterioration in condition.

The Richey & Gilbert Co. is one of the largest truit shipping firms doing business in the Yakima Valley. H. M. Gilbert of North Yakima, Wash., who was present at the trial of the case, is president of the Western Ap ple Growers' Association. - Minneap-

A Jolt for the Legislators

Down in California, the lower house of the legislature is thinking of dispensing with the services of a chaplain, since a Sacramento divine who was called upon to open the house with prayer overlooked the usual taffy that is expected to be handed up to the Lord in behalf of the lawmakers and proceeded as follows:

"We are sorrowful, Oh, Father that the members have detented the Sunday law bill; we are sorry the race track bill has been defeated; we are sorry. Oh, Father, that they have de-feated other high morals of measures which would have uplifted the growth of our state, yet we would hate to of our state, yet we would hate to think that any man here was elected to do nothing but draw pay, draw corks and draw poker. We hope this is not so, and we sak that the proceedings of this great body may be blessed and taken in charge by the spirit of God. We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen." Hereafter, it is quite likely that be-fore prayer is offered in the lower house in that state, the members will want to first look over the inventory
