

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

STEINHART & KELLY PRESENT PAINTING

Monday morning Manager Huxley, of the Apple Growers Union, received an elegant painting from Steinhart & Kelly, of a box of Hood River apples. It was in a rich gold frame, enclosed in a plain lined glass covered case, and is the most realistic painting of Hood River apples ever seen here.

The picture is of a box of apples elevated at one end as on display with a half dozen taken out of the paper labels and lying on top, while three of the red Spitzenbergs are on the outside of the box. The white paper lining of the box is thrown outward over the sides. The beautiful box label of the Union is reproduced perfectly in the painting on the end of the box, the red printed paper wrappers around the apples in the box being shown out distinctly. A plate on the frame is engraved with this inscription: "Presented to Hood River Apple Growers Union by Steinhart & Kelly, New York."

The following letter was received by Mr. Huxley:

New York, March 29, 1909.
Hood River Apple Growers Union,
Hood River, Oregon

Gentlemen: We take the pleasure in advising you that we shipped you today by express, all charges prepaid, painting of a box of Hood River Spitzenbergs which we had done some time ago by the celebrated artist A. L. Cox.

This painting has been exhibited up to the present time in several of the leading fruit stores of New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston, and wherever so exhibited has received most favorable comment and no doubt has been quite a factor in our campaign of education to get the next acquaintance with the error of your ways.

We are sending this painting framed in a gold frame with our compliments to the directors of the Hood River Apple Growers' Union. We hope that you appreciate it from an artistic standpoint, and receive it in the spirit in which it is being tendered to you.

Now that the season of 1908 and 1909 is practically over, as we wrote you in several letters before, we look back to our business connections with you with a great deal of pleasure. They have been very pleasant through out, and we can say to you truthfully that never have we done business with a concern which has been so uniformly courteous and so absolutely straight in all their dealings.

We hope that this painting will grace your new office in the new building for many years to come, and will always tend to remind you of a very pleasant and profitable season.

Extending to the board of directors and to the members of the union our most distinguished consideration, we have the honor to remain,

Yours faithfully,
Steinhart & Kelly.

INDIGESTION IS ENDED FOREVER

GET SOME DIAPEPSIN NOW

Eat Your Favorite Foods Without Fear of Dyspepsia or Any Other Stomach Distress.

Why not start now—today, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pope's Diapepsin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pope's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of indigestion and upset stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take gas from the stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and besides, one triangle will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach could do it.

When Diapepsin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all stomach misery is waiting for you so soon as you decide to begin taking Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want to be thoroughly cured of indigestion.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill., but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead, he used Bucklin's Ankle Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of ear, nose, fever sores, boils, burns and piles around the world. 2c, at Chas. N. Clarke's.

Destroying Old Orchards. Fruit Inspector Armstrong is busy inspecting orchards and, though a trifle curt in yet, he reports indications generally good for a bumper fruit crop.

There are few orchard owners who may feel the penalty of the law requiring destruction of orchards, though the inspector finds most orchardists anxious to comply and do everything in their power to promote and improve the industry.

Certain individuals assert to the inspector that they will not spray their orchards and that, since it would cost them more to spray than their fruit crops would be worth, they cannot be compelled to spray.

Against such logic the inspector reasons that such orchards are of very little consequence or value to the owners any way, and if infected they must not be allowed to remain a menace to other orchards in their vicinity. He has explained to several that spraying in accordance with the law must be done wherever there are indications of infection. Failure to comply with the law is punishable by cutting down the orchard, a penalty that would seem to be simple to make the statute entirely effective so far as proper protection to desiring orchardists is concerned.—Gervais Star.

Hot Not Water for Stevenson.
P. S. C. Willis now has a scheme on hand by which he hopes to raise funds so that he may pipe water from his hot mineral spring into town. The distance is not great and the scheme is entirely feasible and Mr. Willis should be given every possible aid and inducement by our citizens, one and all, in order that he may accomplish his purpose. The water could be brought here in pipes practically as cheap as it comes from the ground and its mineral properties would be in no wise impaired. It is the one thing in right that will make Stevenson a city of 6,000 inhabitants within the next six or seven years. By all means do everything to help it along.—Stevenson Pioneer.
