To Property Owners:

Instead of quoting in this week's issue our list of property for sale, we wish to devote the space to a request to the owners of Hood River valley property to give us a description of your kind of property in the town or valley which may be on the market. We already have considerable listed, but need several pieces of all grades to suit buyers. What will please one will not appeal to another, and for this reason we must enlarge our sale list and ask you to give us a description of what you have for sale. We do not ask you to give us the exclusive agency of any of the property you wish to sell unless you care to do so. We look over each piece listed with us, unless we are already familiar with it, and will use our best efforts to find a purchaser. We hope you will let us know what you have for sale, together with all particulars pertaining to the property.

DAN SHANNON AT TABERNACLE

EVANGELIST DRAWS BIG CROWDS

Meetings Sunday and Every Evening During the Week Stir Up Enthusiasm

A representative of the Glacier attended the revival services which are being held in the Tabernacle, Saturday evening, and had the pleasure of listening to Evangelist Dan Shannon. Mr. Shannon has a personality all his own and from the time that he steps into the pulpit, until he leaves it, the audience is interested, not only in what he says, but in every action. He is so "unexpected," as some say. They do not want to miss a thing, and it is necessary to pay strict attention to him, in order to get the full benefit. His sermons and stories keep the congregation in a pleasant mood. In fact, he refuses to go ahead with his sermon until every face in the audience is wreathed in smiles. This is very much of a task for some, who have spent years in trying to get the "religious face," as they suppose. But he succeeded in his efforts Saturday evening. It is said that a few old ladies were known to smile or look pleasant for the first thirty years, or since the last big blizzard, actually grinned. Let us hope that it doesn't wear off. Mr. Shannon took for his text, that old familiar one "Adam when art thou?" and before he had closed his talk a goodly number no doubt wondered where they were at. Most of our readers, of course, remember the

Jesse Davidson Kicked by a Horse

Jesse Davidson, of Mt. Hood, was quite badly injured by being kicked in the back of the head by a sharply shod horse, Friday afternoon, and is still unable to be about his duties. Mr. Davidson had been over to the blacksmith to have one his horses shod, and had started home again, and was riding the horse bareback, when passing near where the telephone wires were strung, he asked one of the crew to hold the wire down until he could get the frightened horse across, or over the wire. The man held the wire down as requested but let it fly up as soon as the horse was over. All Oregon horses are afraid of ropes or wires, and as the wire made considerable noise it frightened his legs about the horse, but to no avail, as the horse continued to buck viciously, and finally succeeded in throwing him off, and while still in the air the horse kicked Mr. Davidson in the back of the head, rendering him unconscious for some time. He was taken home and a physician called and everything possible done to relieve the pain, but the blow seems to have affected his spinal column and back.

Up to the present time no new occupations have set in and it is hoped by his many friends and relatives in the valley and elsewhere that he will soon be able to be about again.

Free Library Benefit

The minstrel show for Friday evening at the Opera House given by the local talent, with music on string instruments, beautiful dancing by children in elaborate continental costumes, dummy love song by the shirt-waist girl, will afford one of the greatest pleasures that Hood River people have had in some time. The ladies of the Woman's Club are sparing no pains in making these beautiful costumes as a gift for a free library, every one in Hood River should show their appreciation by being present.

New Transfer Wagon

Snow & Upson have just turned out their wagon shop a new transfer wagon for the transfer & Livery Co. It is the first wagon to be built completely in Hood River, and is hand made throughout, and presents a finished appearance that is a credit to the shop.

The wood work is the best oak the joints put together with white lead, all parts double braced with heavy Norway iron. There are four sils under the bed, while the factory wagon has three. It has a roller bearing fifth wheel, a tool box under the foot rest on the drivers' seat, and the wagon has a capacity of 5,000 pounds. The end gate is bound with angle iron, nicely turned around the corners, while iron bands line the bed of the box to protect it from heavy articles being loaded. The painting was done by J. B. Hunt, and is an artistic job.

DAN SHANNON

Some as portrayed in the Bible, where Eve handed Adam the apple (now called "lemon"), and when the Lord called to Adam, he was ashamed to come forth and tried to hide behind some fig leaves. Shannon said that a whole lot of people tried to hide behind smaller things than that, but at the last day, when the "sheep and goats" were gathered together, there would be more goats lined up from Hood River than "sheep", and this is supposed to be the meaning of the "lemon" too. There are too many hypocrites in the world, not only in the church, but in all classes of society, Shannon says, who are afraid to make a "stand". He says that they ought to feel like he does, about being a sinner. Since experiencing religion it makes him feel as happy as "a fox in a hen roost". In speaking of the mighty works of God in making the earth he said: "God made the earth, and sent the sun, moon, and stars; God made woman, and since that time, neither God nor man has rested." This seen to please the male part of the congregation, judging from the applause coming from that part of the audience. All through his addresses the stories he tells illustrate his points and keeps the audience interested and always expectant.

As to the results of these meetings, we are unable to tell, except that they ought to be for the good of his hearers to accept the religion he offers.

The choir, conducted by Harry M. Ross, is one of the interesting features, as well as Mr. Ross' solos. There are some very good voices in the choir and they are the best Hood River can produce, which every one knows is good. The solo given by Mr. Ross Saturday evening was enjoyed by all. The air used was that old Scottish one, "When Comin' Through the Rye".

Quite a chorus of children voices have been trained for work in the revival services and they do their part with credit. In fact, the children are manifesting a deep interest in the work all along the line, not only in taking part in the meetings, but in advertising the meetings throughout the city.

The Tabernacle is nicely lighted by a score or more of electric lights as well as three arc lights, and the ventilation is perfect. The building will hold about two thousand people. The seats are very comfortable considering that they are made of plain boards. They have very comfortable backs. The ground is thickly covered with shavings so that the feet of the congregation are kept clean and warm. Mr. Shannon does not believe in giving the audience a chance to get cold feet, and has therefore had a liberal supply of shavings spread on the ground.

The Tabernacle is located at the base of Eugene street on 12th street, and the building is substantial and is being filled nightly by interested audiences. All churches participating in the revivals have closed their churches for the time being and are attending these meetings.

Mr. Shannon made a special effort to raise one hundred dollars Sunday and was successful. Up to the present time the financial aid from the congregation collected at the tree will offerings have not been enough to pay the expenses of the light and actual expenses of the meeting, but the prospects are brighter for the future. The meetings at the tabernacle are increasing in their interest and attendance. More than a score of persons have been reclaimed or converted up to Sunday evening last. The people are standing by the meetings

4TH OF JULY AND OTHER EVENTS

Commercial Club and Business Men's Organizations to Support Celebration

At the regular meetings of the Commercial Club and Business Men's Associations, it was decided to make united efforts to assist in the Fourth of July celebration and other events to come off at Hood River this summer. A special meeting has been called at the Commercial Club rooms Tuesday night to discuss these projects.

The Fourth of July celebration will have first place and it is proposed to have a demonstration on that day that will be worth while, and no one can afford to go away from home and miss it. It is expected that the matter will be arranged at the club meeting Monday evening, but there were but few present and it was decided to call a special meeting for that purpose for Tuesday night to get out a crowd. The Business Men's Association, which met on the following night took the same action, and it will be a public meeting open to the public spirited men of the city.

Owing to the illness of President Early, the meeting of the club was presided over by Truman Butler, vice president, and a directors meeting was held and routine business transacted. The resignation of W. H. Walton as secretary was accepted and C. D. Nickelsen appointed at a salary of $60 a month. Mr. Nickelsen will devote most of his time to the

Implement House Changes Hands

J. B. Nickelsen has sold his implement business to C. H. Vaughan and C. F. Gilbert, who will conduct the business under the name of the Vaughan-Gilbert Implement Co. Mr. Nickelsen will remain with the new firm for the present until Mr. Vaughan retires from the bank, and until the new firm get thoroughly familiar with the business. Mr. Vaughan is obliged to leave the bank on account of his health, and availed himself of the opportunity to get into a business which would not be so confining.

Mr. Gilbert is well known and made a host of friends here while in the hotel business, and later selling automobiles, and his mechanical ability will work in very nicely in the implement business.

Mr. Nickelsen is the pioneer in the implement business here and has built up a fine business that necessitated the building of the large brick building a year ago, and his successors are very fortunate in stepping into a well established business.

Memorial Services

The G. A. R. have made partial arrangements for memorial services and have decided to meet at Hersey's corner, near the cemetery, with the W. R. C., at ten o'clock of the morning of May 31, and from there will form in line and march to Idlawild cemetery. The regular memorial service of the order will be held over the grave of some comrade, to be selected later.

The memorial sermon will be preached Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. C. W. Corman at the tabernacle.

Presbyterian Brotherhood Convention

There will be a great convention of the Presbyterian Brotherhood in Portland June 8 and 9, 1909. All the Presbyterian churches of Oregon are being asked to send delegates, and it is expected that these will number several hundred. The principal speakers will be men of national reputation, who will come to the coast following the meeting of the General Assembly at Denver in May. The Portland meeting is but one of four to be held on the coast, the places and dates being as follows: San Francisco June 3 and 4; Portland, June 8 and 9; Seattle, June 10 and 11 and Spokane, July 14 and 15.

County Purchases NEW ROCK CRUSHER

The county court have purchased a new rock crusher, which will be installed by June 1 on the road along the Davis place, on the old east side road, near town. A ledge of fine rock for crushing extends on. In the road at the place, running back on the Davis place. The court wished to buy a small piece of ground on which this rock ledge is situated, but the price asked was considered exorbitant, so concluded to work the rock which extends into the road.

The new crusher will be fitted up with bins for holding the different size rock, and some sort of motive power will have to be provided to operate the machinery.

The location of the rock will make it a down hill pull to the east road, and within a short distance to where it will be used, and the work can be done economically.

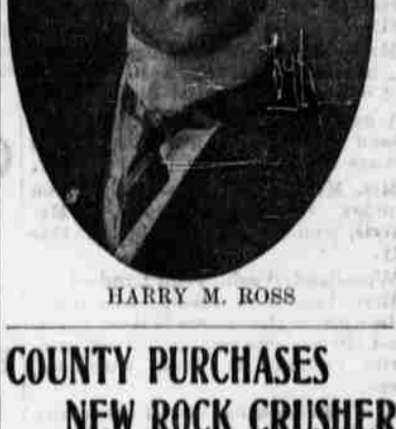

Work on a permanent macadamized road will be commenced at the city limits on the east side, and as much road will be made this year as are funds available. The cost of installing the plant this first year will necessarily limit the amount of work to be done, but next year the county will be in good shape to extend the work several miles.

It is proposed to treat the east and west sides alike in the matter of permanent roads, but the state will be made on the east side first, and then take up the main highways on the west side.

Watches for Commencement

Watches that will last a life time, engraved for the occasion, at Laraway's. If it comes from Laraway's, you know the quality.

P. M. Morse returned Tuesday from Portland with his family, and they have moved into his new house on Columbia street.
