FREE LIBRARY GETS BOOST LADIES ENTERTAINMENT SUCCESS

Nearly $200 Raised as Starter For Free Library Fund. Entertainment First Class.

The minstrel show given under the auspices of the Woman's Club last Friday evening for the purpose of starting a public library fund for the city of Hood River, was a success from all a standpoint, civic, historical and social. The exceeding worthy object which prompted this delightful entertainment, and which inspired Hood River's leading business men to contribute their talent and labor in an effort to have the club realize its ambition, was fully appreciated by the best element of citizenship. And the Opera House could not nearly accommodate the crowd that sought admission at the advanced prices asked, many being turned away. Over $180 was netted from the entertainment, and when, in the future, Hood River's public library becomes a reality all will remember the genial spirit which prompted the Opera House on this occasion when the songs and instrumental jokes of our business men and the dancing of our children brought smiles and laughter, while the ingenuities and executive ability of the club women brought cheers from the pockets of a large and representative audience.

With every dollar put into a good book, the future good this modest amount of money may accomplish cannot be estimated.

With Truman Butler as the dignified interlocutor, the grand, black-faced comedians who essayed the role of minstrels made an instant hit with the audience. Arthur Clarke and Clay Brock, Rev. J. V. Bandy and A. L. Perry proved very clever and when the songs and instrumental jolks of our business men and the dancing of our children brought smiles and laughter, while the ingenuities and executive ability of the club women brought cheers from the pockets of a large and representative audience.

With every dollar put into a good book, the future good this modest amount of money may accomplish cannot be estimated.

What proved one of the most pleasing features of the evening was the children's dancing under the personal direction of Prof. Begg. This sort of entertainment was under the supervision of Mrs. J. A. Epping and Mrs. Del. Rand, who arranged and executed the program most successfully. Opening with a court minuet by four couples in Colonial costume, the children soon proved themselves formidable rivals of their black faced competitors. In this minuet were dancing Katherine Baker and Thurston Laraway, Elizabeth Epping and Harold Ingles, Mildred Hoyle and George Hatcher, Elizabeth Hadley and Joe Williams. The Dutch dance was one of the quaintest conceits of the performance, and was well executed by Lorraine Allen, Edna Button, Frances Cramer, Alan Button, Suzanne Kay, Bazil Williams, Edna Jackson and Glen Hunt.

In the Oxford, Little Beryl Clarke and Newton Clarke simply brought down the house with their cunning steps and their dancing. Little Miss Mary Whitehead proved perhaps the most graceful and agile dancer in the intricate sword dance, while the skirt dancing of Katherine Baker was heartily enjoyed as it deserved. Prof. Begg was especially well received, and his personal performance with these young children, and Terpetchors can well be proud of such devotees. Between these dances Miss Davis sang "The Dumpy Shirlwalder Girl," her characteristic rendition has been considered small, it is never there a start and the Women's Club intends sending every effort to the growth of the fund it should interest every citizen of the town, and judging from the royal support given by parties who had never worked together before is a fact worthy of a professional theatrical manager. The Women's Club wishes to express its thorough appreciation of the services of Mr. Clarke and also Mrs. Epping and Mrs. Rand and Prof. Begg. The program rendered under Mr. Clarke's direction was as follows:

Opening Chorus, Yankee Doodle Boy.

Solo, "Somewhere", Mr. Paul Hubbard.

"Pay More Attention To Me, Man", Mr. A. L. Perry.

"By your Side", Mr. Glen Gillette.

"I Ain't Got No Use For Sleep", Mr. Arthur Clarke.

"My Dream of You", Mr. Lou Darling.

"Jungle Town", Mr. Clay Brock.

"Where the Mocking Birds Are Singing", Mr. Charles Clarke.

"Camp Meeting Time", J. V. Bandy.

Parody on "All Coons Look Alike To Me" by Arthur Clarke, J. V. Bandy, and the entire company.

Dispersed by the Sheriff.

Plantist, Miss Ida Bryant.

Local Teams Suffer Defeat

The Oregon City high school team defeated our local high school team at Columbia Park, Saturday, by a score of 7 to 4. But six innings were played as the visitors returned home by boat.

The first local team was defeated at White Salmon Sunday, by a score of 8 to 1. The last inning proved disastrous to the local boys, as up to that time the score stood even 1 to 1.

Change in Train Schedule

Following is the new schedule for the O. R. & N., going into effect Sunday last. It will be observed that the evening west bound train is some 25 minutes earlier, as is the evening eastward express. Both east and west morning trains are a quarter hour later than formerly.

Westward—No. 5, Oregon Express, 5:10 a. m.; No. 3, Soo Spokane-Portland, 6:45 a. m.; No. 11, Pacific Express, 7:25 p. m. No. 7, Portland Special, 5:55 p. m.

Eastward—No. 12, Atlantic Express, 10:40 a. m.; No. 8, Chicago Special, 11:55 a. m.; No. 6, Eastern Express, 8:25 p. m.; No. 4, Soo Spokane-Portland, 9:30.

Woman's Club.

The Woman's Club held its regular meeting May 12, and elected its officers for the next club year as follows: President, Mrs. J. F. Hatcher; first vice president, Miss Mary McLean; second vice president, Mrs. Chas. Cramer; financial secretary, Mrs. J. H. Heilbronner; treasurer, Mrs. E. O. Blanchard. Each member is expected to donate a dollar toward the free library fund at the next meeting, and tell how she has entered it. The last meeting of the club will be held at 8 o'clock at K. of P. Hall, May 26. Officers will be installed and a program rendered.

E. L. Smith Invests

F. D. Mathew sold on the Powell Valley Road a five-acre tract to E. L. Smith, of Hood River, for $5,000. Adjoining this tract Mr. Smith purchased another five-acre tract from Gibber Dell and Mrs. Anna Carpel for $5000 making his a fine ten-acre tract. Mr. Smith is a Hood River apple man. The land is close in and the price considered low—Oregonian.

MUST PAY CONTEST COSTS IN ADVANCE

Hereafter all costs in land contests before the local land office must be paid in advance. In the past, under the regulations, the practice has been to pay the costs from time to time during the trial, but from this time forward an estimate must be made and the costs paid in advance or else sufficient security must be deposited. This is the tenor of a new ruling received which reads as follows:

Hereafter the estimated cost of reducing to writing all testimony to be taken before the register and receiver in a contest case shall be collected in advance from the contesting parties on the date of the hearing and before the hearing begins, or, under rule 58 of practice, the party liable thereto may be required to give security in advance of the trial by deposit, in a reasonable sum or sums for the payment of the cost of transcribing testimony.

Receipts will issue for the amounts collected in accordance with paragraph 6 of the departmental order dated June 1, 1908. If an additional amount above the estimated cost is collected, additional receipts will issue therefor, and the amounts deposited to the official credit of the receiver, as hereinafter directed.

"Money so receipted for will be deposited to the official credit of the receiver of public money as 'unearned fees and other trust funds,' and so held until the complete record of the case, in connection with which deposit has been transmitted, is filed in the local land office, when payment may then be made to the contest clerk and the 'net balance,' exclusive of such balance, deposited to the credit of the treasurer of the United States, and any excess amount returned to the proper parties. Report will then be made of such collections and expenditures, as heretofore, upon the abstract of collections and expenditures in contest cases."

WILL MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

The adjourned meeting of the Commercial Club held Tuesday evening, when all interested in having a grand and glorious Fourth of July celebration, should have been present, was not very well attended, on account of the several attractions that took the members elsewhere. It was decided by those present to adjourn the meeting until Friday evening and have dodgers struck off and distributed about town so that there would be no excuse for the members and others not showing up and voicing their ideas as to whether or not Hood River should or should not "Let the Eagle Scream."

Several communications were read in regard to the Commercial Club purchasing or renting suitable quarters, and were, on account of the small attendance, laid on the table until the next meeting.

It is hoped that there will be a representative meeting tomorrow night, so that all important matters may be taken up and discussed, especially in regard to the celebration, a strawberry festival and the matter of new quarters for the club. As it is a matter of public benefit it should be on hand at 8 o'clock, Friday evening.

A. F. Cram acted as chairman of the meeting in the absence of the regular presiding officer, Mr. Nicklessen, who was recently elected secretary of the club was at his post.

FORESTERS' GRAND COURT MEETS MEET AT PORTLAND NEXT YEAR

Nearly one hundred delegates were in attendance, besides quite a number of the better halves of the delegates accompanied their husbands and enjoyed the outing.

Quite a number of our business houses were decorated in the lodge colors—the stars and stripes.

The opening session of the court was held in the K. of P. hall, Grand Chief Ranger A. L. Brown, of Salem, presiding.

The session was devoted to the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, seating delegates, and the usual run of business, besides election of officers.

The following were elected for the coming year: O. C. R., P. E. Struck, Portland; G. S. C. R., Ed. Wright, LaGrande; G. Treas., John Eklund, Portland; G. Secy., Chas. Elwell, Portland; G. Woodward, P. P. Leineweber, Astoria; G. J. Woodward, M. D. Sumner, Marshfield; G. S. Beadle, O. C. Jenkins, Seaside; G. J. Beadle, A. C. Gunn, Portland; G. Trustees, G. M. Peterson, Salem, John Lauer, Grants Pass, S. Kafka, Supreme Representatives—John A. Watson, Portland; W. F. Grunow, Portland; L. J. Adams, Silverton; Linn E. Jones, Oregon City; convention to be held at Toledo, Ohio, in August this year.

Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mrs. F. R. Peterson and daughter, Mrs. C. L. Parmenter, Mrs. A. Dr. A. McLaren Mrs. O. C. Jenkins.

The evening was taken up with a strawberry festival furnished by Hood River Court No. 42, for the benefit of the visitors. There were several pleasing features or the evening, consisting of toast, a short program, and address of welcome. Dr. Brosius, with his usual genial way acted as toast master.

The session Tuesday morning was taken up by the several visiting lodges in trying to secure the next session at their respective cities. Gervais, which was championed by W. B. Brown, finally lost out to Portland, when the matter was put to a vote. But they knew "Brown was in town while he had the floor."

A. E. Prink of Court Webfoot No. 2 of Portland, was recommended for Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger.

The afternoon session was short and sweet. Installation of officers took place, and the question of semi-annual meetings of the Grand Court was decided in favor of holding the meeting annually as before, the vote being 40 to 13. Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger Leitzel, was the installing officer.

The Lodge passed resolutions of condolence on the death of Geo. F. Houghton, of Columbia No. 2, Portland, who died at that city Tuesday evening.

Their special car was attached to the Portland local Wednesday evening. The court having finished its session at 4:30.

They all claim to have had the time of their lives and appreciate the treatment that they received at the hands of the local lodge here as well as the citizens of Hood River.
