At last the question over which some of our neighbors have seen fit to contend for a number of years has been solved and the proposition of a permanent dock is settled for good. For a number of years the people of White Salmon and vicinity have been rebuilding and maintaining the pres ent dock with the assistance of the boat companies, and this they have found not only expensive but uesatis-factory. At a meeting of the Com-mercial Club last week a committee vas appointed to look after the prop osition of a more substantial dock and confer with the boat companies, Joseph Groff, of the Mount Hood a stock company with a capital of
