WASHOUGAL

About 48 miles from Hood River on the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway, and on the Columbia River 25 miles from Portland, Oregon. CHEAP LAND compared with other places of our productive Northwest, but the richest soil in the country. We want to show you, NO electric STORMS, hot WINDS or flying sands in summer or SNOW in winter. Purest spring water to be found anywhere, and the finest climate. That is what makes this as fine a fruit section as can be found anywhere for Peaches, Apples, Pears, Quinces, Prunes, Cherries and all other classes, as well as the smaller fruits. Wheat, oats and other grain, potatoes and other vegetables yield heavily per acre, as well as clear timothy clover and other grasses, and all this is done WITHOUT IRRIGATION. It's a big dairy country, too. What more do you want? We ask that you make a visit here before deciding upon a location, and to call on
