

CORRESPONDENCE

ODELL.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Mc Coy, Wednesday, Feb. 23, a daughter. Their many friends will be pleased to learn that the condition of both mother and child is very satisfactory. L. A. E. Clark expects to spend this week near Echo, where he will direct the pruning of a peach orchard belonging to Page & Son, of Portland. Miss Ethel House, of Hood River, came out Friday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lafferty. C. R. Musiker is home from an extended stay at Grants Pass. The February business meeting and social of the C. E. Society, of Odell, was held Wednesday evening, Feb. 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Boserman. The evening was very pleasantly passed in a social way and the refreshments were unsurpassed in quality as well as quantity. Messrs. O. H. Ehek and M. Hawthorn solicited and served the lunch and we present for them many appreciative letters to display their skill along these lines. Mrs. L. D. Boyd is home from a visit with relatives in Portland and Newberg. Everett Lafferty came home Sunday from an extended business visit near La Grande. After an illness extending over more than a year Mr. Cushman passed away at his home in Odell Sunday, February 27. Had Mr. Cushman lived until July 15, of this year he would have been 73 years of age. He leaves to mourn his loss, his widow, Mrs. Florence Cushman, a daughter, Mrs. Emily Bishop, of Portland, three sons, Edward B. and Orrie, of Odell and an older brother, whose address is at present unknown. To these bereaved relatives all extend sympathy. Mr. Cushman was a Mason and also a member of the G. A. R. The funeral was held from the home Monday at 10 a. m., Rev. Troy Shelley officiating. Interment in Idaho wide cemetery, with the Masons in charge of the service. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, of Astoria, have been here for a visit with Mrs. Ferguson's brother, M. Hawthorn. Rev. Troy Shelley is home from an extended trip through Southern Oregon. Mrs. Lanna Hammond is visiting friends in Odell. Miss Eva Broomhead, of Dee, visit-

Tickling in the Throat

"Just a little tickling in the throat!" Is that what troubles you? But it hangs on! Can't get rid of it! Home remedies don't take hold. You need something stronger—a regular medicine, a doctor's medicine. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral contains healing, quieting and soothing properties of the highest order. Ask your doctor about this. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Constipation positively prevents good health. Therefore, how can you have an active liver as a great preventive of disease. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best cough medicine.

at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. R. McCoy Saturday. The quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church, of Pine Grove and Odell will be held at Odell Saturday and Sunday March 12 and 13. The business meeting will be held in the church at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, March 12. The morning of Sunday March 13 there will be a sermon by Rev. Walton Skipworth, of The Dalles, district superintendent. Following this sermon the sacrament of The Lord's Supper will be observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rodemar, of Waterloo, Iowa, who purchased the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kieme, will arrive March 7 to take possession of their property. Odell welcomes those who are coming and is glad to note that Mr. and Mrs. Kieme are not leaving the community, as they are having constructed for their occupancy a beautiful modern bungalow a short distance west of the one they have sold. Mr. and Mrs. Pilsen, who purchased the Stewart property, formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Strong, will move the house to a spot of higher land a little farther west than the present location. The house will be rebuilt and converted into a modern home.

Mrs. E. H. Kemp will go to Portland Thursday for a visit with relatives. Odell creek was the highest in many years Sunday. Rain and melting snow made a vast amount of water to carry away in a short time. Mrs. C. H. Sprout, of Hood River, visited her sister, Mrs. E. I. Hull, over Sunday. Miss Ida Bryant, of Hood River, visited her sister, Mrs. E. T. Folts, a few days last week.

The members of Hazel Rebekah Lodge are preparing for an open meeting within the next few weeks. A good C. E. meeting last Sunday evening. M. Hawthorn had been appointed leader and his sister, Mrs. Ferguson, of Astoria, who is recognized as a leader in good works, took charge of the meeting. At the close of the C. E. meeting Rev. Spaulding delivered one of his inspiring sermons. Next Sunday morning Rev. Troy Shelley will conduct services at Odell.

Every Mother. or should be worried when the little ones have a cough or cold. It may lead to croup or pleurisy or pneumonia—then to something more serious. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure the trouble at once and prevent any complication. Chas. N. Clarke.

BELMONT. Rev. H. C. Clark, of White Salmon, visited with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stout and attended services one evening during the week. Mrs. Clarke is improving.
