TESTS PROMISE

bloom. The fruit spurs are thick on the trees and the fact that in the tests all the fruit bud buds till out and bloom forth with good healthy blossoms is cited as good evidence that at present the crop is giving fine promise. The experts may that the long continued winter with an unuscall amount of snow has been an ex-cellent thing for the trees and that ber of orchards it is predicted that the apple crop of the Hood Kiver valley this year will far exceed any previous yield.

Big K. of P. Celebration. The members of the Knights of Pythias and their tamilies gathered at the lodge ball Tuesday evening to celebrate the anniversary of the tounding of the lodge. The first thing on the program was an excelient supper which had been prepared by the ladies and following this was a very pleasing musical program which was finished up with a minstrel show, given by some of the members. collowing the entertainment the floor was cleared and the knights and ladies enjoyed dancing until a late hour.

A very interesting and impressive part of the celebration was the pre-sentation of veteran's badges to V. C. Brock and M. H. Nickelsen, who are two of the oldest members of the order in this section of the country. these badges are granted as an hon orary token of esteem by the lodges or their memters who have been knights for 25 years.

Hear the O. A. C. Experts. The citizens of the Hood River valley will have an opportunity next week to hear four of the toremost horticultural experts of the North-west sat the three institutes which will be held in the grange balls. Frofs. Cordley, Bridwell, Jackson and Griffith, of the Oregon Agricultural College, will lecture on im-portant topics with especial reference to the conditions here in the Hood River valley, and there will be an opportunity to ply these gentlemen with questions. The meetings will be at Pine Grove, Tuesday, Mt. Hood Wed nesday and Park Grange, Thursday. Every fruit grower in the valley should make it a point to attend at least one of these meetings. Three Deaths at White Salmon.

Minstrel Show Coming. The Commercial Club minstrel

show will be pulled off in a few weeks and it will be the best production of the sort which has ever been put on here. Arthur Clarke, the veteran ministrel producer, is in charge of the show and together with Secretary J. C. Skinner he was in Portland last week and gathered up about 25 rattling good songs from which the musical numbers for the show will be selected. The com-mittee in charge of the show will good show will result.

Iowa Man Invests $25,000.

Mrs. Labadie Pleases. Mrs. Harriett Labadie appeared at ing a reading of "The Servant in the House." The drama, which made a distinct hit in the east two years ago, is of an allegorical nature, "the servant" being named "Manson" production the character was made to resemble, even in the make, the current conception of the character of Jesus Christ. Mrs. Labadie showed a wonderful versatility in reading with good expression the lines of the eight characters appearing? in the lay. To one who and seen the play t was evident that she imitated the delivery of the original actors to a great extent.

The Neighborly Club. The Neighborly Club met with Mrs. Murray Kay, Feb. 24. The meeting was especially a farewell for Mrs. Wm. Kerr, the prime mover in organzing this club. Just before refreshments were served Mrs. Reed, the president of the club made an impressive speech and presented Mrs. Kerr with a very beautiful booklet designed and decorated by Miss Carter and composed of quotations and loving wishes from the club members. A letter was also read from Mrs. Stafford, an absent member wising Mr. and Mrs. Kerr 'God speed.'
