

CORRESPONDENCE

ODELL.

Robert McDuffee, of Portland, was about Odell Sunday looking after his property interests. He stopped at the home of J. H. Eggert. Mr. Eggert will look after Mr. McDuffee's land which lies near the home of Mr. Eggert.

J. F. Wheeler, of Seattle, is here directing work on his property at Summit Station.

Wm. Post, of Post, Crook Co., has been here visiting his sisters, Mrs. J. K. Crosby and Mrs. B. T. Young. Elmer Lafferty was a Portland visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shelley, who have been at home in Portland the past few months, are here and will remain in Odell while their residence in Hood River is being built.

C. Phloghaupt was a Portland visitor last week.

Mrs. Matilda Wood, Mr. Clinton Wood and Miss Irene Fisher, who have been spending the winter in California, have returned home and though they think Hood River valley a good place, to which they are glad to return.

Because Odell Creek was the highest in years, there was no school at Odell Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. It was next to impossible to reach the school house from any direction with one exception, that, to be sure, being the direction in which your correspondent may be found at home. To those thinking of locating this has a moral, but it need not be taken too seriously as Odell Creek arranged a program quite out of the way for this occasion.

Mrs. M. E. Chambers, of Turner, O. is visiting at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Ralph Caldwell, of Pine Grove. Mrs. Chambers is the mother of Mrs. Rose Hagey, of Odell.

Miss Alice Lewis, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lewis.

R. D. Shelley, of Carson, Wash. and his children, Master Dale and Miss Vivian, were visitors at Odell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Shelley, of Carson, Wash., arrived home Saturday from a winter in California.

W. L. Carnes is home from a visit supposedly in the Willamette Valley,

One Doctor—Only One

No sense in running from one doctor to another! Select the best one, then stand by him. No sense either in trying this thing, that thing, for your cough. Carefully, deliberately select the best cough medicine, then take it. Stick to it. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for throat and lung troubles. Sold for nearly seventy years. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Why try this thing, that thing, for your constipation? Why not stick to the good old reliable family laxative—Ayer's Pills? Ask your doctor if he approves this advice.

but as he brought with him oranges, lemons and limes he had picked from the tree we will decide that his visit was in fact in Sunny California.

Friday evening, March 4, a number of the young friends of Leita Bowerman gathered at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman, to surprise Leita that being the fourteenth anniversary of her birth. Appropriate entertainment was provided and the evening passed all too quickly. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Bowerman and all went to their homes wishing Leita many happy returns of the day.

The C. E. meeting last Sunday evening was unusually good, among our many good meetings. Gertrude Crosby was leader. Topic, "Christ Our Guide." Next Sunday evening the topic is "Patient Faithfulness That Wins the Crown." The meeting will be in charge of Blanche Lafferty, Leita Bowerman, Gladys Crosby and Ruth Clark. A very earnest sermon by Rev. Troy Shelley last Sunday morning. Next Sunday morning the quarterly meeting sermon by Rev. Walton Skipworth, of The Dalles.

PINE GROVE

There is a rumor afloat that S. Harrison and family, former residents of Pine Grove, expect to return to Hood River and move onto their place at Mt. Hood.

A. I. Mason went to Portland on a business trip the fore part of the week.

E. R. Pooley is on the sick list.

OAK GROVE

H. S. McKenelle, of British Columbia, is the guest of H. E. Wiley and family.

Mrs. Charles Altricht returned Friday from Portland.

Mrs. and Mr. J. A. English have returned to their home in the Oak Grove district having spent the winter in town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nichols were called home Friday evening from Portland on account of the serious illness of their daughter, Ila, who was found to be suffering with scarlet fever.

Several of our young people enjoyed a very pleasant musical in town last Wednesday evening, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler.

F. H. Irwin, who has been spending the past two months in town, has returned to his ranch to commence the spring out door work.

Ivan Miller, aged 17 years, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Miller, died last Friday night after a lingering illness of over a year's duration. Besides his parents, he is survived by two brothers, and two sisters, William Ashley, and Mrs. E. A. Van Andale and Irma Miller. Funeral services were held Sunday morning at the home of the deceased's parents. The sympathy of the entire community goes out for the bereaved family in the loss of one so young and promising.

MOUNT HOOD.

Misses Lizzie Cooper and Laura Purcell went to Pine Grove Saturday as delegates to the county convention, which met there.

Jesse Davidson went to Hood River Saturday to make final proof on his homestead.

On account of bad roads we only had mail three times last week, but conditions are improving and service will be regular from now on.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dimmick spent three days last week visiting Mrs. Dimmick's mother at Odell.

Jas. Langille went to Portland Saturday for medical treatment.

MOSIER.

Everybody is wearing a smile thinking that spring has surely come and how welcome it is after the long winter.

Mosier school is closed for one week and possibly two, on account of measles.

Miss Vina Keiden, of Moro, spent Sunday with Miss Booth of Mosier.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chamberlain went to Portland Saturday on business and to see the flight of the airship.

Miss Irene Fisher returned home Saturday having spent the winter with her grandmother, Mrs. A. Wood, and Uncle, Clint Wood, at Long Beach, California, and other southern points.

J. M. Elliott is spending a week in Portland.

Improvements are going steadily on in Mosier and vicinity, new buildings, land clearing and tree planting.

B. L. Ford made a visit this week to Lenta, returning Sunday with two little neighbor girls to enjoy a few days on the ranch.

Messrs. Burgrat & Vogt spent part of Saturday in Portland.

Miss Viola Kuehn, of The Dalles, came down Saturday to attend the dance.

Wilbur Denny is making a success as "central" mornings and evenings, and likes the work fine.

Several of our young people enjoyed a very pleasant musical in town last Wednesday evening, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler.

F. H. Irwin, who has been spending the past two months in town, has returned to his ranch to commence the spring out door work.

UNDERWOOD.

Mrs. Lena Chambers, who has been spending a few days with P. I. Facksta, returned to Portland Tuesday night.

Mrs. A. J. Haynes, and daughter, Francis, came up from Portland Thursday noon.

Mrs. F. S. Forest and children came up from Portland Wednesday for a few days at the ranch. Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Hazelton spent Thursday in Hood River. The new house is nearly completed and we feel that they have not a hard task or the rest of us, for we can hardly hope to have a home so complete in every detail as theirs, at least not until the "orchard comes into bearing."

B. W. Ariss had a rather exciting runaway one day this week, in which he barely escaped being killed, and the team badly injured, but they all came out of it with a few bruises.

The people here are all on the war path at the prospect of losing the mail delivery. It looks like a case of the tail trying to wag the dog, for there are 121 people who will lose by the proposed change, and only 36 who will be in any way benefited outside of the party who expects to obtain the contract for carrying the mail on the new route, and who originated the scheme to change the route.

E. O. Blanchard, of Hood River, accompanied by a Mr. Newcomb, of Los Angeles, spent Sunday in Underwood and were delighted with what they saw of our country.

At the school election held Saturday, H. C. Lowden was elected director for a term of three years, receiving all but two of the votes cast.

Geo. Darling is the busiest man in the community these days, as the unusual amount of water this spring has washed out the roads badly and in one or two places made them nearly impassable.
