ODELL.

E. C. Mahaney was a business visitor in Portland a few days last week.

The funeral of Claire Crockett, who died April 10, at Tempe, Ariz., was held last Saturday forenoon from the M. E. church in Hood River, Rev. Troy Shelley officiating. Relatives and friends from Portland and The Dalles and also from Rupert and Nampa, Idaho, attended. A large number of friends from the old home in Odell gathered to assist in the last that earthly friends could do for one of whom they thought well. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The body was laid to rest in Idlewild cemetery.

Last week L. D. Boyd sold the pleasant home in Odell to Eastern parties at a consideration of $30,000. The tract sold consists of forty acres. We are glad to note that Mr. Boyd and his family are not leaving Odell, as they plan to build a home on a ten-acre tract just north of that sold.

Mrs. Clyde Lyman, who has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Atkinson, left Saturday for her home in Goldendale, Wash.

Surveyors were out the first of the week platting the land south of the railroad just west of Odell station into town lots, and we may look for a live town at Odell in the near future. Being but human, your correspondent must own she might hope for a town not exactly where those lots have been laid off, but being loyal to Odell, she is for Odell no matter where the powers that be may decide to place the town.

E. C. Mahaney has sold to O. M. DeWitt forty acres of land on the Heights East of Odell at a consideration of $1000.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Sunday, April 1, at 2:30 in the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lewis, when their daughter, Alice Seymour, and Mr. Charles Hill were united in marriage. The beautiful and impressive ring service was selected and Rev. Dr. House, Pastor of Westminster Congregational church, of Spokane, officiated. Members of the Altruria Octette, of Portland, of which the bride was a member, sang "This Is My Wedding Day." Bertha Lafferty, an accompanist, acquitted herself in her usual faultless style. Relatives and near friends numbering about fifty witnessed the ceremony. There were orange blossoms in abundance, they having been sent from Southern California. The bride has friends at Odell, who have known her from childhood and with one and all the verdict is the assume that rarely, if ever, have they seen so many lovable and womanly attributes blended in one character.

The groom is a young business man, of Portland, and those qualified to state speak very highly of him. The young people have the congratulations of all. They left for Portland the evening of their wedding day and will be at home in that city. Out of town guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Scott, J. Letz, Dr. Goldar, Miss Heilman, director of the Altruria Octette, and members of Altruria Octette, Miss Nellie Johnston, Mrs. Leynard and Miss Bertha Leynard, all of Portland; Robert Searey, of The Dalles.

Your correspondent is very happy to say that at this writing her condition is quite satisfactory and she sincerely hopes she may not have occasion to report unfavorably in the future.

Mrs. Alice K. Poole has been quite ill. Her daughter, Mrs. Nettie Crockett, is with her for a time.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

Dr. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.
It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.
