

WATCH THIS STORE, THAT'S ALL NOW

Ladies' Shoe Department

Val Duttonhoffer Fine Shoes
$3 to $5

Groovers, soft soles for tender feet
$2.50 to $3.50

H. C. Godman's
$2 to $3

For style, fit and prices we surely are here with the goods.

New Mushroom Children's Hats

The very latest agony in head wear

Just arrived from across the pond
48c, 63c, 92c, $1.33 and $1.42

Trimmed in the newest style
SEE DISPLAY

Next Saturday

9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

See Window Display
ROYAL WORCESTER

Corsets

Values $1.25 to $3.50; odds and ends; all sizes. Special

88c

Our Boys' Suits

are appreciated more when compared with the lines that are represented as "just as good" as Cram's. "There's nothing to it." We win always. And to think they cost no more than the "just as good" kind.

Men's Shoe Department

Florsheims, $5

J. E. Tilts, $3 to $4

Fairfield, $2 to $3

Nap-a-Tans, $2.65 to $8.50

People in Hood River should buy all leather shoes. They cost no more than the paper combinations.

Our Girls' Strap Sandals

Are the wonder and admiration of every miss who sees them.

FRANK A. CRAM

Our Boys' Shoes

are solid as a rock, combining style with moderate prices.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Cold boiled ham at McGuire Bros.

Buy your seed oats at Whiteheads.

Buy your seed oats at Whiteheads.

Early Rose seed potatoes. Whitehead.

Shoes made or repaired at Johnsen's.

Early Rose Seed Potatoes. Whitehead.

Diamond Chick Feed at Whitehead's.

Best line of Spray Nozzles at McInnis.

Hazelwood Creamery Butter at McGuire's.

A brand new survey for sale by Harris on the Heights.

Blacksmith shop for sale by F. E. Harris, on the Heights.

G. H. Carrier, expert piano tuner and repairer. Phone 210K.

Full cream cheese, 22 1/2 cents a pound, at Holman & Nicholson's.

If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnsen's.

Blacksmith shop, tools and stock for sale by Harris on the Heights.

Holman & Nicholson, on the Heights, have some very fine comb honey.

Money to loan on improved farm and T. D. Tweedy.

Home Rendered Leaf Lard at McGuire Bros.

If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnsen's.

Highest market price paid for veal and chickens. McGuire Bros.

Get your spray hose from McDonald Clean new stock, no factory scraps.

Harris on the Heights has several sets of double and single light harness for sale.

Order your wire-wound wooden water pipe early, as it is not held in stock. See Joe Wilson.

If you want to buy, sell or rent Hood River property go to A. W. Ontkank.

Money to loan on first mortgages. Notarial work of all kinds and legal papers carefully prepared. Also fire insurance in the very best companies.

M. Pendergast, who recently bought the Churchward place near Van Horn, has returned from Ft. Worth, Tex., with his family and they are now living on the ranch.

The Apple Growers Union has just received a carload of Rex Lime and Sulchur Solution and has more on the way. They also sell Black Leaf Extract and Arsenate of Lead. Give them your orders.

Car of Utah Land Plaster. Whitehead on the Heights.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney and bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. C. A. Plath.

The Baptist church makes a new departure this week in the establishment of a quarterly meeting. This service will take the place of the former monthly business meeting and will be of a social character as well as the consideration of the business affairs of the church. The Tuesday evening meeting of the young people continues to be marked with interest and encouraging progress is being made in the plan looking toward the finishing of the church interior.

For Sale.

25 acres of peerless apple land, 7 miles out on the East Side.
300 trees 5 years old
100 trees 3 years old
150 trees 2 years old
128 trees 1 year old

678 trees all commercial varieties and in prime condition. Will sell entire tract or subdivide. For information see L. A. E. Clarke, Odell, phone Odell 124; or address Shelley & Son, Carson, Wash.

Rev. Mr. Webb will preach morning and evening Sunday at the Christian church.

Prof. Henry, of the Eugene public schools, visited friends here over Sunday.

W. F. Burrill and wife, of Portland and P. Montgomery, of New Haven, Conn., spent Sunday here.

C. R. Greisen received a cablegram Monday from Hadersleben, Germany, announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. C. M. Greisen.

The Pine Grove grange has scheduled another one of their pleasant dances to be held at the grange hall, Friday evening, April 29.

Miss Hester Howe has issued invitations for a dance to be given this evening at her home south of the city, in honor of Miss Edna Groves, of Corvallis.

Robert S. Thompson came Tuesday from Vancouver and has accepted a position in the store of Frank A. Cram. Mr. Thompson expects to bring his wife and young son here soon.

J. C. Duckwall, of Indianapolis, is spending several days here this week looking over the valley with a view to locating. He is making a month's tour of the west and will later move to the coast.

The ladies of St. Mark's Guild gave a welcome reception Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Levi Clarke, who has been in California during the winter.

Mrs. Clarke is one of the leading members of the guild and has been its president.

Ed Knott returned Monday from Davis Junction, Ill., where he has been for the past few months. He was accompanied by his brother, George Knott, who expects to make his home in Hood River and bring his family here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Delano and son, J. Delano, and George D. Copeland, arrived Saturday from Chicago to join Mrs. Delano's son, R. S. Delano, who recently purchased part of the Dr. Stanton Allen place on the east side.

There will be a grand concert at the Methodist church next Sunday evening. The leading musical talent of the city has been engaged and will aid in making the performance very interesting. Dr. Ford will preach Sunday morning at 11.

The Rev. W. Hiram Faulkes, of the First Presbyterian church, Portland, will confer with temperance workers of Hood River valley Friday, April 22, at 2 p. m., and address the public at 7:30 p. m. These meetings will be held at the Congregational church and all are urged to come and hear one of Oregon's most illustrious ministers.

A large gathering assembled on Sunday night at the Baptist church to hear Rev. J. R. Hargreaves discuss the subject, "The Gentleman in his Church." He set forth some of the obligations connected with church membership.

On next Sunday evening, that subject of unusual interest "The Gentleman in his Relation to Women," will be considered. The orchestra is proving a most interesting feature of the evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Armstrong, the latter's mother, Mrs. C. K. Wolf, of Peoria, Ill., Mrs. A. R. Van Sickle, and son, Lawrence, of Hastings, Neb., came last week to visit L. K. Armstrong and Arthur Van Sickle, on the former's ranch south of town. Mr. Armstrong, Sr., is the president of the Toledo, Peoria & Western railroad and the party came west in his private car which has been here for the past week.

Wednesday last Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Van Sickle, who are sisters, will remain here for the summer with their sons. Lawrence Armstrong has entered the local high school and will also remain here for several months. Dr. E. M. Echard and Fred Echard, of Peoria, came west with the party and after spending a few days in Hood River went on to Port Angeles.

Miss E. N. Barrow, of New York, and Miss Joseph, of Portland, are at the Oregon.

H. Jay Townley, of Traer, Ia., is here the guest of his uncle, M. M. Hill and family.

Fred Jackson was in Portland Tuesday to see the opening of the baseball season in that city.

R. Long and P. P. Schnidel, of LeMars, Ia., came last week to look over the valley with a view to locating here.

Ed Wheeler, Dr. Beaumont and H. A. Moser, of Portland, were here over Sunday inspecting their ranches near Summit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, of The Dalles, were here Saturday to attend the funeral of the former's cousin, Clarence Crockett.

H. C. Coleman and daughter, Miss Caroline, are here from Portland for the summer and expect to build a house on the Ordway place which they recently purchased.

S. A. Clarke has moved with his family to Portland, where he has taken charge of the office work of the Davenport Thompson Co., wholesale dealers in fruit and produce.

Henry Bruce, of Sherman, Tex., died at the Cottage hospital Saturday from alcoholic pneumonia, and was buried a Idlewild Monday. Bruce, who had been drinking heavily, was brought here from the Cascade Locks last week.

Mrs. A. Antonette Stiles, of Portland, Worthy Grand Matron of the Eastern Star, will visit the local lodge and make her official inspection at a special meeting to be held Monday evening, May 2.

W. F. Laraway returned Saturday from Eugene, where he attended the Grand Council of Masonic Royal and Select Masters. Mr. Laraway was honored by being made one of the grand officers.

E. N. Armstrong and wife, of Peoria, Ill., who came last week to visit their son, Leonard Armstrong, spent Sunday at the L. C. Sonneman ranch on the east side. The Sonnemans formerly lived in Peoria.

J. S. Harbison and family have moved to their 80 acre place in the upper valley from Tangent. The Harbisons formerly lived in the valley and Mr. Harbison is a brother of R. E. Harbison of this city.

An association of honest farmers in northern New York is contemplating the renaming of their hills Mount Hood and thereby securing a legitimate label for its apple orchards for miles around. This beats moving to Oregon.

The cantata, which was to have been sung Sunday evening in the Congregational church at The Dalles by the choir of the church here was called off because Mrs. C. H. Sletten and Mrs. J. M. Schmetzler, sopranos, missed the train to the city up the river and the other singers were unable to give the piece alone.

Joe Wilson went to Portland Tuesday for the automobile parade which celebrated the opening of the baseball season in that city. Mr. Wilson is an ardent fan and a great supporter of the Portland team. He never misses getting the first Oregonian from the package when the local arrives from Portland each morning and if the rain has spoiled the game the day before he has no appetite for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hills left Saturday for Sac City, Ia., where they will spend the summer. Mr. Hills will be the agent for the Chicago Northwestern Railway at Sac City. He had been in the employ of that company before coming to Hood River last fall. He recently sold his 16 acre place to Felix Vonnegut, for $19,000. Mr. Hills bought 40 acres from the Bonoboro Orchard Co., and that tract will be developed by them for him. He expects to return to Hood River before the end of the year.

J. L. Firebaugh was in Portland over Sunday.

J. L. Roberts went to Portland Saturday.

A. S. Blowers has purchased a $2500 Franklin automobile.

here this week spending the spring vacation at home.

C. Lewis Mead and wife, of Portland, visited here last week.

Charles G. Loring, of Portland, came last week to visit P. D. Atwater.

Oscar J. Tillison and Vernon J. Gasper spent Sunday in Portland.

Mrs. D. Mortimer and daughter, Lulu, visited in Portland several days last week.

William Branford, of LaPorte City, Ia., has been here for several days looking for a location.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Berg, of Chicago, spent a couple of days here last week looking over the valley.

Mrs. George H. Lill, of Chicago, came Thursday to spend some time looking over the valley.

A. A. Jayne spoke at the Unitarian Vesper service Sunday afternoon on the subject of "Truth."

F. M. Bigelow came from Waterville, N. Y., last week and is looking for a location in the valley.

W. E. McIntosh won a prize of $103 in the piano contest held here by Eilers during the past week.

F. F. McCrea, of the Oak Grove district, left Thursday for a short business trip to Indianapolis.

A. I. Mason was at Gresham last week attending a meeting of the grange of Multnomah county.

The water wagon started on its summer rounds Monday and the dust is being kept down in a proper fashion.

J. R. Shelton came last week from Grand Rapids, Mich., and will be here for a while looking after his ranch in the valley.

E. O. Blanchard, A. D. Moe and M. R. Woodburn, who has a ranch south of town, spent Sunday and Monday in and about Trout Lake.

Miss Mabel Koons is the new bookkeeper in the Home Telephone office in the place of Miss Susan Gearey, who resigned on account of her mother's illness.

Mrs. F. E. Jackson returned Sunday from Coeur d'Alene, where she had been called by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Bart Davidson, who suffered from appendicitis.

Mrs. A. M. Muir and daughter, returned to their home in Bellingham, Wash., after spending a week with the former's sister, Mrs. J. Edgington. Miss Grace Edgington accompanied them home for a visit.

Mrs. G. D. Woodworth and daughter, Idele, returned the first of the week from an extended visit in California. They came up the coast by boat. E. S. Minchin spent Sunday in Portland and returned to Hood River with them.

The high school base ball team will play the alumni on Friday, April 22 at Columbia Park grounds. On Saturday afternoon they will have a track meet. The high school have been doing good work in athletics and would like a large attendance both days.

W. H. Brooke, of Ontario, Ore., but formerly of Kenisha, Wis., was here Saturday investigating the procedure and situation in connection with the local bond irrigation ditch. A project is planned to put water on 135,000 acres near Ontario. Mr. Brooke is a cousin of A. D. Moe.

The sale of the W. Bentley tract of 10 acres for $9,000 to Smith & Holbrook is reported this week by W. S. Nichol. Mr. and Mrs. Smith came here recently from Philadelphia and Mr. Holbrook was formerly with R. W. Sebbins on the eastside. The new owners are building an addition to the house on the Bentley place.

J. R. Steele reports the sale of 20 acres of partly improved land in the middle valley from P. E. Straubal to M. H. Craft, formerly of Mosier. The price was $200 an acre and Mr. Craft expects to move onto the place immediately. Mr. Steele is working 26 men on various places he is improving in the middle valley and he has 3000 trees coming which he expects to plant.

J. K. Bower, representing the Foster & Orear Candy Co., of San Francisco, was here last week and arranged with "Parkers" to handle the agency for the high grade confections. Foster & Orear's are the finest candies manufactured on the Pacific coast and they are rapidly becoming the synonym for best throughout California and Oregon. "Parkers" will be the sole agents in Hood River and their new line will soon be in.

WANTED
To work on the switchboard, 3 girls. Inquire at Central office. Home Telephone Co.

Get early cabbage plants at Whitehead's.

Get early cabbage plants at Whitehead's.

Mrs. D. Mortimer went to Portland Tuesday for a visit.

The St. Mark's Guild will meet with Mrs. E. J. Young Friday afternoon.

A. B. Shelley reports the sale of 40 acres of his place south of Odell to W. D. McCaw.

The Rev. Mr. Warren, of The Dalles, will hold services Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at St. Mark's church.

Reymond Early, Elwood Luckey, Este Brosius, Harry and Burleigh Cash, Sidney Henderson, Albert Garra-brant, Ferdinand Struck, Ray Murphy and Karl Ontkank, all students at the University of Oregon in Eugene are here this week spending the spring vacation at home.

The Music Club reports a good meeting with Mrs. Sletten last week. A practice of the music for the open meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Dumble Tuesday evening. The next meeting of the club will be a week from today at the home of Mrs. A. A. Jayne.

A. S. Hall, from the Willamette valley came last week to take charge of the business of Hood River Electric Light, Power & Water Co. J. Carrington, of Portland, has been here auditing the books of the company for the past week and it is understood the deal is on to sell the plant to outside investors.

The Mosier Fruit Growers' Association has selected A. P. Bateham, Amos Root, C. A. McCargar, J. M. Carroll and D. P. Harvey, directors for the coming year. The board has chosen H. M. Huxley to manage the affairs of the union. Mr. Huxley releases the management of the Hood River union May and will then move to his ranch near Mosier.

BARRETT.

A parcel of dry good was found on Saturday last near the Rockford store. The owner can have the package by describing its contents. Call at Rockford store.

L. E. Dart is putting his land in fine shape and planting out a young orchard.

Joe Hengt has a force of men building a dam on the Hood River Irrigation district and will soon be ready to let the water run so that the berries will not suffer for water this season.

It would be well if the supervisor would attend to the wornout bridge on the north end of Methodist Lane and fill up the deep chuck holes so as to be ready for berry season.

Mr. Manning with his force of men and teams, his now putting the eighty acre into fine shape and setting out orchard on the south end of Rockford avenue.

Christian Science.

Reading room, No. 6 Davidson bldg., corner Cascade and Third Ave. Open daily from 2 to 5 p. m. Services in Reading Room: Sunday, 11 a. m.; Wednesday 8 p. m. Subject for week ending April 24, "Everlasting Punishment."

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Hood River Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

W. T. Baker, real estate agent, Hood River, Oregon, says: "Every winter I suffered severely from lumbago. As soon as the cold weather came on I was in misery and although I doctored and tried many remedies. I could not find the slightest relief. After suffering in this way for three years, my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box at Clarke's Drug Store. The contents of one box of this remedy gave me great relief and I continued its use until I was free from kidney complaint. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for my cure."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Our Experience

Is worth Money to You.

B. E. Duncan & Co.

Fruit Lands. Orchards.

It will please her.

What?

A DIAMOND

When she knows you bought it of

ARTHUR CLARKE

Hood River's Jeweler

Opposite Butler Bank in Brosius Block