

Hotels Have Special Dinners.

The Mt. Hood and Oregon hotels have been making an innovation during the past few days by serving special dinners which have been very popular with Hood River people. The Mt. Hood has served two very excellent Sunday evening dinners and the work of Charlie Gum, Chinese chef, has been highly approved by the diners. Monsieur Gum made a special trip to Portland last week to secure delicacies for the Sunday dinner. Not the least enjoyable features of the Mt. Hood series is the music by the Mandolin Club which plays a program of popular airs each Sunday evening.

At the Oregon, special dinners during the week have been marked by elaborate menus and a program of concert numbers on the Oregon Victrola. Friday evening and Saturday noon were the meals of especial effort last week and the service offered was most pleasing to the patrons. These special meals in the well appointed new grill room section of the Oregon dining room are getting a large patronage from people in both valley and town.

U. B. Men's Class.

At the home of Rev. J. B. Parsons, Thursday night, a number of men met to lay plans for definite work among their fellows. The church having the facilities for doing such extensive work among men, many things materially came up. However, the chief thing accomplished was the organization of a Bible Class to be held at the Sunday school hour. "The Men's Forward Movement Class" was chosen as a name, and their motto: "We can if we will."

Rev. Mr. Brayford was in attendance and a stirring talk on "The Possibilities of Men Among Men." Officers and committeemen will be chosen at the next meeting. At the conclusion of the business the ladies who had met elsewhere rushed into the parsonage bringing an elaborate luncheon for all. The movement is full of promise, about 29 men having signified a willingness to attend this class already.—Contributed.

Woman's Bible Class.

On Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. S. E. Bartmess, the ladies and friends of the U. B. church organized a Woman's Bible Class of 29 members, Mrs. E. K. Bartmess acting as temporary chairman. The officers are: Mrs. J. R. Nickelsen, president; Mrs. Bert Strabahan, secretary; Mrs. Wheeler, treasurer. Mrs. Hartley was unanimously elected the teacher of this enthusiastic band of women who greatly feel the need of a closer study of God's word and a more heartfelt interest in the great work of women's spiritual needs.

A challenge was given the men's class on attendance at Sabbath school, membership and finances. The contest will last for three months and at the expiration of that time the class which is in arrears is to entertain the victors. A series of meetings is to commence in the church the first of October and a hearty welcome will be given to any and all who will come to worship with us by its members, friends and pastor, Rev. Parsons.—Contributed.
