

NEW M^cKIBBIN FURS

A FUR LINE WITH A HISTORY RUNNING OVER FIFTY YEARS
 Scarfs $1.50 to $35; Genuine Pony Coats $75; Muffs $2.90 to $35; Child Sets $1.50 to $10

Fall Comfort will be found in our excellent line of Peerless Outing Flannel Wear Night Gowns 48c to $1.75 Outing Underskirts 23c to 98c See Window	New Brandigee, Kincaid & Co. Suits; Overcoats and Raincoats Ederheimer, Stein & Co. Xtragood Boys' & Young Men's Suits and Overcoats FLORSHEIM SHOES FOR THE MAN WHO CARES New Line of Fancy Linen, Lunch Cloths, Doylies, Scarfs, Etc. Forrest Mills Underwear Union Suits, 50c to $5. Single, 25c to $2.50	Ladies' Coats The New Presto Collar Our line strongly features this 20th century innovation. Prices $5 to $30. Children's Coats The largest line are shown here. $2.95 to $10.00. Boys' and Girls' Capes
--	--	--

FRANK A. CRAM

Blankets and Bedding of all kinds. The Best Products.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's.
 Olemargarine at Holman's on the Heights. Two pound roll for 65c.
 Betsy Ross. Make her acquaintance. You will like it. C. A. Plath, agent.
 Olemargarine at Holman's on the Heights. Two pound roll for 65c.
 Betsy Ross, 5c domestic cigar, equal to average 10c cigar. C. A. Plath, agent.
 If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson's.
 Wetherspoon, a 5 inch "Fine Domestic Cigar." Regular 2 25c, 3 for 25c. C. A. Plath, agent.
 A new floor has been put in the waiting room of the O. R. & N. depot during the past week.
 Paul Jones mill Havana Cigars. Once smoke'd always smoked. C. A. Plath, agent.
 Good furnished and unfurnished rooms at the Ramona Hotel, corner Oak and Fourth streets.
 Fire, automobile and accident insurance. G. Y. Edwards & Co., Agents. Phone 228.
 Write the Union Meat Co., Portland, Oregon, for information about their animal fertilizers, or see D. McDonald, their agent at Hood River, Ore.
 I have a client that wants to borrow $1,500 and will pay 8 per cent interest and secure note with first mortgage on 100 acres of land in this county, worth $4,500. SAMUEL W. STARK. 613

George J. Watson was in Portland on business Thursday.
 Olemargarine at Holman's on the Heights. Two pound roll for 65c.
 Paul Jones has stood the test of time. Established 1818. C. A. Plath, agent.
 Bert Kinzie, clerk at the Hotel Pendleton, at Pendleton, was here Thursday.
 Mrs. Charles Miller, of Oregon City, is visiting at the home of W. H. Warren.
 Miss Bess Albright left Monday for Condon, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. J. W. Church.
 S. C. Armstrong and wife, of Spokane, were here looking over the valley last week.
 Oliver L. Brown, of Philadelphia, Pa., who has interests in Mosier, was in the city last week.
 Saturday, October 8, will be Hood River Day at the District Fair in The Dalles next week.
 Miss Nettie Buck, of Portland, was the guest of her parents, A. C. Buck and family, last week.
 Wetherspoon. Lay down "two bits" and "got three." You will buy again. C. A. Plath, agent.
 Mr. Fruit Grower, Lumberman or Drayman: do you know that MRS. W. S. WOODS have held their own against all competition for more than 75 years? Well, that is the case and it is reasonable to assume that there is a reason—and there is—in fact several of them. When you want a Wagon, Buggy or Hack see us—we can sell you a good buggy made by the Parry Carriage Co., the largest manufacturers in the world, for $57.50. Compare it with others before buying. BLOWERS BROS.

J. M. Wood and wife were in Portland the latter part of last week attending the Food Show.
 Miss Lenore Adams went to Portland Saturday and she will attend the Portland Academy this winter.
 Dr. E. G. Goth left Friday for Indianapolis, where he was called by the serious illness of his mother.
 Editor Fred G. Dunsmuir, of the White Salmon Enterprise, were guests of E. S. Payne and wife Sunday.
 Christian Science services were held in Reading Room No. 6 Davidson Building, Sunday 11 a. m. and Wednesday 8 p. m.
 L. L. Specamer, wife and daughter, of Madison, Wis., were here during the past week looking over the valley.
 Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Rand, of University Park, have been visiting his sister, Mrs. R. E. Harrison, the past week.
 Capt. C. P. McCan has been suffering with a sprained ankle during the past week, having sustained it by stepping on a loose board.
 Among the notarial commissions issued by the secretary of state last week was one to Miss Edith M. Andrews, of Hood River.
 The services at the Unitarian church next Sunday are as follows: 10 a. m., children's church; 11 a. m., preaching service; 5 p. m., musicale.
 W. F. Larway was in Salem last week attending the State Conclave of the Knights Templar. He was elected Grand Prelate at the meeting.
 Mrs. John R. Oatman is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rahles at their summer home in Hood River.—Oregonian.

E. H. Hartwig, attorney, was in The Dalles last week on an equity case in the Circuit Court.
 A. W. Stone, of Morrisville, Vt., came last week and spent some time looking over the valley with a view to investing in fruit land.
 Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Hoffman and Miss Lisa Wood, of Portland, were week-end guests at the bungalow of E. R. Moller in the valley.
 Mrs. Herbert Henry Darling and son, Herbert Henry Darling, Jr., of Brookline, Mass., were here the latter part of last week visiting friends, and relatives.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carrington desire to express their appreciation for the kindnesses offered by the neighbors and friends in the event of the loss of their daughter.
 Max Kostum, of Chicago, arrived last week and is with E. G. Naper on the latter's east side ranch. They are erecting the new house just finished by Mr. Naper.
 Louis Henderson, son of John Leland Henderson, returned recently on a leave of absence from the Philippines, where he has been engaged on the United States Land Survey.
 Ladies of town and vicinity are invited to meet with the United Brethren Ladies Aid Society at the home of Mrs. O. B. Hartley next Friday afternoon, for a Kensington program and lunch.
 Miss Blanche Harrison returned to Forest Grove last Monday after spending a week at home. Miss Harrison will continue her medical studies under the direction of Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman.
 Mrs. Frank Cook and daughter, Nettie, of San Francisco, arrived last week for an extended visit with the former's brother, James Taylor, and family on the east side. Mrs. Cook and Mr. Taylor had not seen one another for 18 years.
 Miss Marie Brehm, set out by the Presbyterian Assembly, a permanent Board for temperance work, will speak in our city Tuesday evening, October 4. See poster for time and lecture. Miss Brehm has charge of the great temperance parade soon to take place in Portland.
 One of the rare opportunities to secure a home in town is this of five rooms, pantry, no bath fitted up as yet, good woodshed; well kept lawn, sidewalk in front; fine view; desirable neighborhood; lot 90 by 100 on corner. Only $1700 takes it now. Call 259.
 Hood River will be represented this year by six students in Willamette University at Salem. F. R. Jackson, Will Foss, Misses Janice and Grace Edgington, Pearl Bradley and Ada Mark left during the past week for Salem to enter the University.
 Four acres well drained land close to town; very good for fruit, but even better for truck farming; nearly all cleared; partly in hay at present; will make a fine little home place; fine water; you can get this now for only $225 per acre. Call up 259, to ask about it.
 Mrs. H. J. Frederick and daughter, Merle, returned the latter part of last week from a five weeks visit in British Columbia and the Sound country. While there they visited seventeen towns and cities, crossed the Sound eighteen times to different points and visited five islands, returning home much pleased with the trip.
 Services will be held next Sunday at the Congregational church to be conducted by Rev. H. C. Lowden, of Underwood. Mr. Lowden was formerly pastor of Providence, R. I., but at present is owner of a fruit farm at Underwood, and pastor of Congregational churches at Stevenson and Underwood.
 The Woman's Missionary Society, of the Congregational church met with Mrs. A. W. Onthack, September 12, and elected the following officers: Mrs. A. W. Noble, president; Mrs. Augusta Price, vice-president; Mrs. E. C. Buck, secretary; Mrs. G. H. Castner, treasurer.
 Sidney Story, for fifteen years Park Commissioner of New Orleans; ex-member of New Orleans Municipal Assembly; father of reform measures which have solved civic problems in his native city, and one of the foremost speakers in Dixieland, will deliver an address in Hood River some time next month, his topic being "Model License Law, the Only Cure for the Evils of Intemperance."
 J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the Harriman lines in Oregon, came up from Portland Saturday in his private car and spent the day in the valley. The party on the O'Brien car included Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Sr., Miss Lillian O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stanley and son, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald, of Portland, Miss Brown, of San Francisco and Miss Kelly, of Pittsburg. The visitors were taken for an automobile trip around the valley being accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Early and Mrs. John Stanley.

At the Baptist church this week Rev. H. W. Jones, the coast evangelist of the Baptist Home Mission Society and a preacher known to several in Hood River, is conducting religious conferences. Mr. Jones will be here on next Sunday and possibly during next week. The services of the week nights open at 7:30, those of Sunday at the usual hours. The church takes this opportunity to extend a general invitation.
 Among the informal entertainments given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Koeneckman last week, was a luncheon at the Portland Hotel Monday afternoon at which Mrs. Laura Darden was hostess. The guests were Mrs. R. H. Wallace, Mrs. O. A. Lyman, Mrs. C. C. Smith, Mrs. Harold Koeneckman and Lucille Smith. The same night another dinner at which the same persons were guests was given by Mrs. R. H. Wallace. This was followed by a theater party to the Orpheum given by Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Lyman. The Koeneckmans leave Portland soon for Hood River to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wallace for a fortnight, after which they will return to Portland preparatory to their departure for a trip around the world. Their home is in Cologne, Germany.—Oregonian.

Mrs. Mabel Carter, who taught drama painting last year at St. Helen's Hall, Portland, wishes to get a class in Hood River. A few sample pieces of her work will be on exhibition for a few days in Arthur Clarke's window. Expert firing also done. Phone 2143K.
 Miss Adah Hicks entertained a dozen guests at a dinner party Saturday evening. The dining room was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and the favors consisted of jack-o-lanterns done in water colors. On the reverse side of each favor was a clever rhyme describing the guest who received it. A delightful dinner was served. Those present were: Misses Hope Shelley, Hulda Weber, Blanche Powers, Ruth Helstrom, Mabel Young, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanson, Ernest Leaf, of Portland, Honor Green, of White Salmon, G. J. Watson and H. E. Johnson.
 Cards have been sent out for an Assembly Dance to be held in the Commercial Club Assembly Room Saturday evening. This is the first dance which has been planned for the new club rooms but it was demonstrated the evening of the housewarming that the floor was an admirable one for dancing. It is planned to have a series of assemblies during the winter. James E. Montgomery and Charles L. Wheeler will have charge of the affair.
 Dance tonight at Pine Grove.
 Stephen B. Reed, who has lived in Hood River for about three years, died last week at the age of 88 years. Mrs. Nellie Warren, of this city, is his daughter.
 Mrs. Herman Plath Succombs.
 Mrs. Herman Plath, aged 72, of North Yakima, died Thursday at the home of her son, Carl A. Plath, in this city, having all been ill with pneumonia since her arrival here two weeks before. Mrs. Plath was slightly improved and hopes for her recovery were being entertained when the end came suddenly. She was born in Germany and came to this country early in life, having been in Minnesota in 1862 at the time of the New Ulm Indian outbreaks, which she and her husband experienced. Mrs. Plath is survived by her husband, five sons, Robert E. Plath, of Spokane, F. B. Plath, of Chewelah, Wash, Carl A. Plath, of this city, Dr. Otto E. Plath, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Harry W. Plath, of Albany, Minn., one daughter, Mrs. E. E. Veldkamp, of North Yakima. The two last named brothers were the only members of the immediate family not here at the time of the death of Mrs. Plath. The funeral services will be held at the home of her son, Carl A. Plath, in North Yakima, where the burial took place.

THE STYLE SHOP

We Have the Largest and Best Line of MILLINERY ever shown in Hood River now on display at the Style Shop. The pattern hats cannot be excelled in the larger cities and the prices are surprisingly low. We take pleasure in showing these Hats.

THE STYLE SHOP
 L. MAE WEEKS, Prop.

School Supplies School Supplies Slocom's Book Store

After numerous consultations with the teachers and a careful study of the market we have assembled one of the best School Supply Lines ever offered in Hood River County. It isn't a case of the biggest tablet for the least money but the right tablet at the right price. This is true of our whole line. Six years of study of the wants of the Hood River schools puts us in the lead.

- | | | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------|--------|---------|
| Tablets | Composition Books | Pens | Erasers |
| Pencils | Pencil Boxes | Inks | Compass |
| Crayons | Note Books | Pastes | Rulers |
| Loose Leaf Note Books | | | |
- The Depot For School Books

Capt. Dan Morgan Smith

Former Assistant Corporation Counsel, Chicago

and one of the most brilliant speakers of the day, whose services are in demand from one end of the country to the other, will speak in Hood River at the

Commercial Club Hall, Monday Evening
 October 10th, on

"Prohibition Tragedies"

Captain Smith's address on this subject has been delivered scores of times and has gained him the plaudits of ten of thousands of his listeners. It is an interesting, fascinating and eloquent discussion of a subject that affects every home.

Don't Miss it. Admission Free

The Woman of Your Choice

Will certainly appreciate a gift of some of the many articles of Jewelry to be had here. Jewelry is the best of all gifts, and ours is the best of all Jewelry.

ARTHUR CLARKE
 Hood River's Jeweler