

Our Annual Doll Contest

Begins THURSDAY, the 6th, and ends Christmas Eve, DEC. 24th, At 6 P. M.

All past efforts laid in the shade by the splendor and magnificence of the First Prize which will be a Grand French Doll worth $50 which goes to the little girl who holds on X-Mas Eve the largest amount of our cash sale checks which will be issued with each cash sale from October 6th to X-mas eve.

Second Prize, a $30 German Doll will be given to the little girl who has the next largest amount of checks. Ask your friends to save the cash checks for you and soon we will display the beautiful doll in our windows which are from the world famous Marshall Field & Company importations. They have shipped the dolls to us and on arrival we will show them to you in our windows.

Watch for the blue cash register checks. Some one will win these beautiful dolls. Go into the race--the field is open and there's lots of time. Ask your friends to help you. A check goes with each sale whether its 5 cents or $50.00. SAVE EACH ONE.

FRANK A. CRAM

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnsen's. Oleomargarine at Holman's on the Heights. Two pound roll for 65c. Betsy Ross. Make her acquaintance. You will like it. C. A. Plath, agent. Oleomargarine at Holman's on the Heights. Two pound roll for 65c. J. W. Strong, of Portland, was here during the past week. Betsy Ross, 5c domestic cigar, equal to average 10c cigar. C. A. Plath, agent. If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnsen. Wetherspoon, a 5 inch "Fine Domestic Cigar." Regular 2-25c, 3 for 25c. C. A. Plath, agent. Lawrence Gerdes is taking the pharmacy course at Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis. Paul Jones mild Havana Cigars. Once smoked always smoked. C. A. Plath, agent. Good furnished and unfurnished rooms at the Ramona Hotel, corner Oak and Fourth streets. Fire, automobile and accident insurance. G. Y. Edwards & Co., Agents. Phone 228. Write the Union Meat Co., Portland, Oregon, for information about their animal fertilizers, or see D. McDonald, their agent at Hood River, Ore. I have a client that wants to borrow $1,500 and will pay 8 per cent interest and secure note with first mortgage on 100 acres of land in this county, worth $4,500. SAMUEL W. STARK. 613

Shoes made or repaired at Johnsen's. Sherman Buck was in Portland Sunday. J. Minchen was in Portland Sunday. J. L. Herschner was in Portland Sunday. Dr. E. D. Kanaga went to Portland Saturday. Vernon Lill is now night clerk at the Mt. Hood hotel. Oleomargarine at Holman's on the Heights. Two pound roll for 65c. Paul Jones has stood the test of time. Established 1848. C. A. Plath, agent. J. R. Putman has gone east on a short business trip. A. P. Tift, of Portland, was here during the past week. George Sharpe was up from Portland to spend Sunday. Edgar Stevens, of Portland, was here visiting friends Saturday. A. T. Laurie, of Kelso, Wash., is here visiting G. A. McCurdy. Wetherspoon, Lay down "two bits" and "get three." You will buy again. C. A. Plath, agent. Mr. Fruit Grower, Lumberman or Drayman: do you know that MITCHELL WAGONS have held their own against all competition for more than 75 years? Well, that is the case and it is reasonable to assume that there is a reason and there is—in fact several of them. When you want a Wagon, Buggy or Hack see us—we can sell you a good buggy made by the Parry Carriage Co., the largest manufacturers in the world, for $57.50. Compare it with others before buying. BLOWERS BROS.

W. S. Browning, of Mandan, N. D., was here during the past week. M. A. Zeller, of Summit, was in Portland and The Dalles Saturday and Sunday. Wayne Osborne, of Cascade Locks, is in The Dalles hospital with appendicitis. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler left last week for a three weeks trip to California. Albert Tozier, of Portland, was here Sunday in connection with his property near Winitans. E. C. Smith left Saturday for a few days business trip into the state of Washington. W. G. Snow was in Portland Sunday to see his partner, W. L. Upton, who is ill in that city. Myron Bruner and wife left Monday for Rockford, Ill., where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wentz, of Portland, formerly of Hood River, spent Sunday here. George R. Wilbur will speak Sunday afternoon at the 5 o'clock service at the Unitarian church. H. Coburn Allen and Fred McCrea left Friday for a few weeks' business trip to Indianapolis. A. Crandall, of Spokane, was here last week investigating orchard investments in the valley. Christian Science services are held in Reading Room No. 6 Davidson Building, Sunday 11 a. m. and Wednesday 8 p. m. J. F. Keeline came here a few days ago from Council Bluffs, Ia. He is interested in the MacRae tract on the west side.

Mrs. P. S. Davidson was in Portland this week. Will Baker has entered the University of Washington. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Miles Carter, September 22, a boy. Born—To W. S. Akers and wife, of Doe, September 28, a boy. Burt Jayne is attending Washington High School in Portland. John Russell Tracey, of Indianapolis, is spending some time in the valley. Mrs. Arthur Reeves and daughter, Ivelle, have gone to Portland for a short time. Devlin & Firebaugh have placed a large and attractive sign opposite the O. R. & N. depot. The J. U. G. club was entertained pleasantly Friday evening at the home of Mrs. E. O. Hall. C. S. Kappmeyer, who is in Portland for the winter, is spending the week on his ranch above Summit. Secretary Skinner, of the Commercial Club, is sending out the new booklets at the rate of 400 a day. Buy your butter, milk and cream from the Purdy Dairy Co., phone 681. Milk depot, Davidson building. John Galvin, capitalist, of Centralia, Wash., accompanied by Dr. H. W. Simmons and wife, of St. Louis, have been looking over the valley during the past week. I. C. Candee returned to Hood River Sunday after spending several weeks visiting Yakima, Roseburg and Medford. He has practically decided to locate here permanently. Mrs. Charles Collic and daughter, Caroline, and Mrs. C. E. Wallingford, arrived from Indianapolis during the past week to be guests at the home of Clarence E. Coffin on the east side. Charles F. Lane, representing the Citizens Trustee company, of Seattle, is in Hood River accompanied by Mrs. Lane. He has been investigating the business of superintending the organization of banks. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pfeiffer, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lawrence, of Portland, and Miss Iva Mermer, of St. Louis, spent Sunday here the guests of W. R. Warner, 3rd. R. W. Stebbins, a former Hood River rancher, spent last week visiting Maxwellton Orchards, his former home. He is now living in Tacoma, where he is engaged in the contracting business. Dan Skinner, of the Oak Grove section, left Thursday for his former home in Hamilton, Ohio. He will study in the medical department of the University of Cincinnati during the coming winter. Otis Patterson and Oren L. Patterson, brothers, lawyer and banker, respectively, of Canyon City, were here Friday on business connected with timber claims they have in this part of the state. Otis Patterson was formerly in the Land Office at The Dalles being associated there with Jay P. Lucas, present county assessor. Walter Kimball, arrived Friday for a visit with his son, Fordham B. Kimball, at Summit. Mr. Kimball, Sr., is an importer and dealer in art with a large store in Boston and he has just returned from his annual buying trip in Europe. This is his first trip west of the Mississippi and he is much pleased with Hood River. A. C. Hallam, who recently came here from Kansas City, accompanied by Mrs. Hallam, is preparing to do the clearing of the Maron MacRae tracts on the west side. Mr. Hallam already has a good sized force at work and in the spring he expects to bring in some heavy machinery and do the clearing on a big scale. Mr. Hallam was formerly engaged in the railroad contracting business and is experienced in handling large affairs of this sort.

Rev. J. G. Tate will conduct services of worship and preaching in the Congregational church next Sunday at 1 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. Special music. Everybody invited. Rev. E. A. Harris, who recently accepted a call to the Congregational church in this city, left last week for his former home in Streator, Ill. He will return to Hood River shortly, accompanied by his wife and three children and remain here permanently. The Ladies of St. Mark's Episcopal church will give a ten cent tea at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jayne Friday evening. Refreshments will be served and an interesting program given. All are cordially invited. These prize teas were very successful last year, the ladies hope to make this one equally so. A. L. Goess, of Paonia, Colo., a great fruit producing section, and W. C. Kempton, of Trimble, Ohio, are spending considerable time in the valley investigating the business of superintending the organization of banks. E. N. Armstrong, president of the Toledo, Peoria & Western railroad, arrived last week from his home in Peoria to join Mrs. Armstrong, who has been spending the summer with their son, Leonard K. Armstrong, on his ranch in the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong expect to leave for the east in a few days. The meetings at the Baptist church conducted by Evangelist H. Wyse Jones, though somewhat interrupted by the rainy spell, have been of splendid interest and value. Mr. Jones will continue during this week and may be here over one more Sunday. All people of the community are cordially invited to the services. The opening Assembly Dance which was held in the Commercial Club rooms Saturday evening proved a very enjoyable affair for about 35 couples which attended the party. The floor of the assembly hall is excellent for dancing, and the music furnished by Newman's orchestra, was of a high order. Punch was served during the evening. Messrs. Montgomery and Wheeler will probably arrange for a series of these subscription assemblies during the winter. Hood river is well represented in the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, there being a half dozen residents of this city confined in that institution during the past week. The local people ill there are Dr. Malcolm Bronson, Clifford Ross, B. F. Shoemaker, Bert Graham, Mr. Kennedy and wife, Charles Hall. Nearly all of the patients are in the hospital following minor surgical operations, and all are convalescent. It is probable that they will have all recovered and return home within ten days.

The Musical Club will meet with Mrs. Jayne this afternoon. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance will come before the club. Complete returns from the primary election show that the Democrat nominees for joint-representatives for Hood River and Wasco counties are Judge A. J. Derby, of this city, and J. T. Harper, of Tygh Valley. The Ladies Aid Society of Oak Grove, will be entertained by Mrs. Wickham and Mrs. Andrews, Thursday afternoon at a dime social, at the home of Mrs. Andrews. All the ladies are cordially invited. Charles A. Bell and wife returned Friday from a two weeks trip to Portland, Corvallis and other Willamette valley points. Mrs. Bell's home was formerly in Corvallis and some of the places she visited she had not seen for 25 years. Dr. F. J. Worcester, recently of Boston, Mass., now a fruit grower of Hood River, was in Portland yesterday. Dr. Worcester arrived in Oregon last April and declares he is sorry he did not come to the state many years earlier.—Oregonian. A. W. Lafferty, who was successful in getting the Republican nomination for Congress from this district, wishes The Glacier to express his gratitude to the voters who supported him and to say that he will always be at the service of his constituents, if elected. J. H. Fredericy, agent of the O. R. & N., left last week for his annual vacation expecting to spend a couple of months or more in Pennsylvania, New York, Kansas, and other eastern states. During his absence, F. S. Smith is the company's agent, and looking after its affairs here. Mrs. Andrew Jackson Derby and Mrs. Burnette Erwin Duncan have issued invitations for a whist party in the Old Fellows hall Wednesday afternoon. In the evening the ladies with their husbands will entertain with a dancing party at the same place. Miss Belle Steele, daughter of J. R. Steele, of the Middle Valley, has gone to Forest Grove where she is a student in Forest Grove University. Miss Steele goes there on a scholarship on account of making the best record of any eighth grade graduate in Hood River county. O. B. Nye, a lumber dealer, of Santa Cruz, Cal., arrived here Friday to spend a week for ten days looking over the valley. Mr. Nye was here on a short time last year and since that time The Glacier has kept him posted on Hood River doings. He was a schoolmate of E. O. Blanchard, as a boy. Mr. Nye lives but a few miles from the Pajaro valley, the great apple section in California, of which Watsonville is the center, but he says that they look to Hood River for the finest fruit.

THE STYLE SHOP

We Have the Largest and Best Line of MILLINERY ever shown in Hood River now on display at the Style Shop. The pattern hats cannot be excelled in the larger cities and the prices are surprisingly low. We take pleasure in showing these Hats.

---

THE STYLE SHOP

L. MAE WEEKS, Prop.

Miss Lelah Kelsey returned last week from a year's visit in Kansas City and left Saturday for Portland to visit friends. J. H. Rogers and wife, formerly of Greenfield, Ind., came up from Portland Sunday to visit W. S. and J. E. Montgomery. The Dean ferry boat has been sheet ironed to protect it from the floating ice coming down from British Columbia in the winter. Dr. C. U. Schleicher, who has been in the office of Dr. H. D. W. Pineo, was in Pendleton last week for the "Round-Up." Flint Bradford is building a fine two story house on the ten acre place in the middle valley which he purchased from J. M. Lenz. A. Haswell, of Madison, Wis., who is developing some orchard land on the opposite side of the Columbia, was in town Monday. F. W. Keeler, of Keeler Bros, the Denver bond brokers, who bought the Barrett school bonds, was in town Sunday and Monday. Mrs. E. H. Pilon, and daughter, Marjorie, left last week for the east where Mrs. Pilon was called by the illness of her uncle. Repairs to the steamer La Crosse were completed at the Supple Shipyards in Portland Saturday and she returned to Hood River. Mrs. J. F. Batchelder has gone to Portland to spend the winter. Mr. Batchelder will be back and forth between here and Portland. The rural carriers resumed their winter schedule October 1, and beginning last Saturday they leave the post office at 8 a. m. to serve their routes. Mrs. Seth Laraway, of Eugene, her mother, Mrs. H. Everingham and cousin, Miss Taylor, of Glenwood, Iowa, are visiting W. F. Laraway and family. D. A. Turner and wife, of Portland, were in Baker City during the past week visiting their daughter, Mrs. Ed. Rand, wife of Sheriff Rand of Baker County. Fred Lockley, manager of Pacific Monthly, of Portland, was here recently and contracted with the Commercial Club for advertising in his magazine. The middle valley school opened Monday with Miss Etta Brewster as the teacher. Miss Brewster is from Washington but has taught 11 years in Oregon. Cartoonist E. S. Payne entertained the dinner and supper guests at the Oregon hotel with crayon lectures. Mr. Payne gave a talk illustrated with lightning sketches. Mrs. W. M. Langhton, son, Robert, and daughter, Ruth, returned to Portland Saturday after spending a couple of weeks in the middle valley at the home of J. R. Steele. James Lacey, of Portland, came up Saturday to spend a while with old friends. Mr. Lacey formerly lived on the east side where he took up a homestead many years ago. Roger Moe, Herman and Walter Kresse went to Portland Sunday. The last named remained in the metropolis and entered the Behlke-Walker business college.

School Supplies School Supplies

Slocum's Book Store

After numerous consultations with the teachers and a careful study of the market we have assembled one of the best School Supply Lines ever offered in Hood River County. It isn't a case of the biggest tablet for the least money but the right tablet at the right price. This is true of our whole line. Six years of study of the wants of the Hood River schools puts us in the lead.

Tablets	Composition Books	Pens	Erasers
Pencils	Pencil Boxes	Inks	Compass
Crayons	Note Books	Pastes	Rulers
	Loose Leaf Note Books

The Depot For School Books

The Woman of Your Choice

Will certainly appreciate a gift of some of the many articles of Jewelry to be had here. Jewelry is the best of all gifts, and ours is the best of all Jewelry.

ARTHUR CLARKE

Hood River's Jeweler