

Republican Nominee For County Judge

Chas. N. Clarke

whose honesty, integrity and fair dealings among his fellow men won for him the nomination of County Judge on the Republican ticket, has for the past twelve years been engaged in business at Hood River, is an active member of the Commercial Club and has always taken a leading part in those things which brought about the development of Hood River County.

Mr. Clarke is a man with a broad and active mind, who does things, is progressive and a supporter of the Better Roads movement, has made a financial success of his own business, and is in every respect competent and qualified to discharge the duties of County Judge, with great credit to the County as well as himself, and having won the nomination, is entitled to the support of not only the Republicans, but of every man in the county who stands for a progressive county.
