We very much regret that the con-tition of C. P. Odell is very unsatis-actory, but hope he may again rally and in time recover health. Claude Skinner is here from Kent bomes of G. E. Bowerman, G. F. and Fred Coe. Mrs. Wood went to Mosier last week for a visit at the home of her daugh ter, Mrs. S. D. Fisher. One of the most successful social affairs ever known in Odell was that last Saturday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Atkinson, the invited guests were delightfully and originally entertained during the inter evening and we believe they would gladily join a ghostly company on other occasions, should they always prove such royal entertainers.
