"GIFT CAR" OF

A plan has been worked out by Robinson, de Reding & Crocker to send to Chicago a carload of apples which will there be reshipped to any point in the east and middle west. It will afford Hood River people an opportunity to send a few boxes of Hood River apples to their eastern friends without paying the excessive express rates all the way. Arrangements.

Vote was less than in the presidential election two years ago. Hy precincts the votewas: West Hood River, 241; South Hood River, 134; East Hood River, 241; South Hood River, 175; Hood River Center, 303; Odell, 99; Falls, 97; Baldwin, 133.

Most of the voters expressed their choice of nearly all the measures and middle west. It will afford Hood River people an opportunity to send a few boxes of Hood River apples to their eastern friends without paying the excessive express rates all the way. Arrangements.

Further investigation of the death of Ruth Southworth, the 17 year old girl who died in a mysterious manner Wednesday of last week, disclosed a second note which had been left addressed to her aunt. This note indicated that the girl had been disappointed in love and this is believed to be motive which caused her to take her life. No post mortem examina-tion was held and the means used by the girl in accomplishing her death are uuknown. The funeral was held

The county prohibition question attracted more interest than my other question submitted to the voters, there being 1054 votes east on that matter and the greatest interest manifested in the state measures was the Home Rule, on which 1008 voters expressed their choice.

Murray Kay, for surveyor, who had no opposition, led the Republican ticket with 1038 votes, while W. E. Hanson, for county clerk, got 1015 votes, the most given to any candidate who had opposition. Willis S. Duni-way, Republican candidate for state printer, received 783 votes, the highest number received by any candidate of his party who had Democratic op-position. Judge A. J. Derby led the Democratic ticket with 766 votes.
