The Sunday School is pretty well attended. Let every one come out and bring some one with them. There will be a Christmas tree and if you go to Sunday School you will receive some candy.

There will be a basket social at the schoolhouse on November 25. There will be a program and every one is invited to take a part in the program, as well as the basket social. The ladies are all invited to bring baskets with something good to eat and the men and boys are going to bring their pocket-books with the dough to purchase the baskets. The baskets will be sold to the highest bidder. There will be a medal given to the pupil who speaks the best, the school board to be the judges. The reward is from the teacher, Miss Tambert.

Our schoolhouse is full. The board had to get ten more seats and now they are at a loss to know where to put them, as the house is full. We will build another room next summer and get two teachers. This is needed at present. Miss Tambert is handling the school as well as could be expected under present conditions.

The mail carrier on route No. 2, has quit and we sure miss him as he was giving us good service and we would be glad to help to pay him if his service could be secured. Several have ordered their mail sent to Newtown postoffice. They are trying to get a rural route established from there to cover Duke's Valley, Willow Flat, Middle Valley and a part of Odell and Pine Grove.

J. P. Thomsen is having his meadow plowed up and is going to reseed it to clover and timothy.

The Apple Land and Orchard Co., claims a record for five year old apple trees. They have nearly 40 acres on Willow Flat in Newtown and Spitznberg and this year they have picked over 5000 boxes of packed apples. This is over two boxes to the tree straight through. The trees will be six years old next spring.
