

ADVERTISE HOOD RIVER

Gift Car of Hood River Apples Will Leave for Chicago on December First

This is an opportunity to send some of Hood River's Best to your Eastern Friends

On December 1st, Robinson, Reding & Crocker will send a car of apples to Chicago to be reshipped local express to any point in the Eastern and Middle States.

There have been many orders for small shipments to the East which could not be sent on account of excessive freight rates. By sending a car load a great saving will be made to our patrons.

We have arranged with a large firm in Chicago to deliver fruit in that City and to reship by express to points outside of Chicago. Apples will all reach destination in time for Christmas.

Persons may prepay express from Chicago to final destination or the apples may be sent collect from that point.

The cost of sending a box of apples from Hood River to Chicago by express is two dollars and a half. Our price for this occasion will be one dollar and a quarter and other places proportionately as low.

We will make an especially good price on our "extra fancy" Winter Bananas, Spitzburgs and Newtons, for this particular shipment. To any growers wishing to send their own fruit to Eastern friends we will be pleased to offer the advantages of our car.

Eastern people or persons residing outside of Hood River may avail themselves of this opportunity and they should send in their orders at once.

This is a great chance to spread the fame of Hood River Valley with its great advertisement, its apples.

Last, but not least, on our program, was the serving of nuts, home made candy, pop corn and apples, bringing to close an evening long to be remembered and which is but the forerunner of more to come.

"Long live the Grange" was in every heart as the goodnight were said and the horses' heads were homeward turned.

Hall-Bronaugh.

Announcements have been received in this city of the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Bronaugh and Joseph E. Hall, Jr., which occurred Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. Earl C. Bronaugh, in Portland. The marriage was a quiet home affair and came as a considerable surprise to Mr. Hall's friends here. The bride is known to many Hood people as she visited here last winter. Mr. and Mrs. Hall went to Spokane and later to LaGrande on a brief honeymoon and returned here Monday evening, taking a part month at the Hotel Oregon. Mr. Hall is the manager of the hotel and they are expected to live there during the winter. It is probable that in the spring they will occupy the new bungalow recently built on Mr. Hall's farm in the Oak Grove section. The date on the home cards is December 1.

Word being received here Monday morning that the bridal party would be here on the evening train, a number of friends gathered at the depot with bells, horns, etc., and the demonstration was a right hearty one. The hotel was also fixed up for the occasion with bows of paper and streamers leading from the staircase to their apartments, and the happy couple were showered with rice until the lobby floor was covered.

BURGLARY AT THE PARIS FAIR

Tuesday night a window was broken in the back of the Paris Fair store and the thief made off with a stack of 73 pennies which were left in sight, and it is thought took a suit of clothes and possibly shoes and underwear. There was very little disturbed around the store, and but for the broken window and missing pennies, it is doubtful if the loss would have been discovered. A stack of clothes of the number 40 size was pulled out, otherwise the cloth covers were left in shape, and nothing else around the store was out of order.

The windows at the back are guarded by iron fireproof doors, but were left open which made it easy for the thief to break in from the alley without much fear of discovery. That more goods were not taken leads to the suspicion that it was the work of some hobo who merely wanted to stock up with personal clothing.

There is no clue to the thief, and but a few of the hobo class have been loitering around the town of late, Marshal Lewis keeping them moving.

Live Wires at Pine Grove Grange.

An epidemic of apoplexias has been rampant in the valley for the past few months, and almost everyone has had a touch of the malady. Its effect has been felt in the Grange during the fall months, but most of the members are now convalescent and a goodly number attended the Grange meeting last Saturday evening, despite the inclement weather. It was one of those good old fashioned meetings where neighbor greets neighbor with a hearty handshake, and indulge in friendly discussions of topics of interest to all Grangers and non-grangers alike.

The regular order of business being disposed of, the Worthy Lecturer took charge of the meeting and entertained us in a most enjoyable manner. Among the subjects that received a good share of attention was the need of a telephone in the O. R. & N. freight house, the removal of which has caused a great inconvenience to almost every family in the valley. Also the establishing of a "free to all telephone service" in the office of the postmaster, as at the present time only a few have access to telephone number, which favoritism seems hardly just in matters of business.

The introduction of the question box is proving an important factor in our meetings, bringing up for discussion a wide range of topics from agriculture to politics. Had some of the voters at our last election at Hood River been Grangers and attended the meetings, methinks their ballots might have been marked a little more intelligently, at least, they need not have voted both yes and no on the same subject. Oh, you anti-suffragists, a woman certainly could not have done any worse than that.

Miss Lulu Hunt was very entertaining with a humorous recitation, and Miss Doris Haner sang a popular ballad very prettily. Miss Maggie Cochran was well received in a recitation in verse, on the origin of Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Mason gave a very interesting report of the National Apple Show held at Spokane, relating many amusing incidents always attendant upon such trips. In all probability next year many more of the valleyites will attend the Apple Show and boost for our little Eden of the West.

People are much delighted and enthused with the idea of the Lyceum entertainment course, to be presented at Pine Grove hall this season, and are looking forward to a treat next Saturday evening, November 26, when Bess Gearhart Morrison, the first attraction on the season ticket, will give a program of character readings, the
