PRESENTED WITH WATCH AND STICKPIN

As a fitting wind-up to the Spokane Show, the Commercial Club held an informal smoker in the club rooms last night, to which a good crowd was present and fittingly celebrated the carrying off of the big prizes at the National Apple Show. It was made the occasion of a good social time among the members of the club, and quite a few of the country members were present. Light refreshments were served during the evening, and in appreciation of the services of Charles Hall and E. H. Shepard at the show at Spokane, who were untiring workers for the fame of Hood River, a little surprise was sprung on the gentlemen. A fine gold watch was presented to Mr. Hall, finely engraved by W. F. Laraway, as follows: "Presented to Charles Hall by the Hood River Commercial Club, 1910." To Mr. Shepard was presented a diamond stickpin. It came as a complete surprise to the recipients and was duly appreciated.

BAND BOYS ARE WELL SATISFIED

The band boys are well satisfied with the treatment which they have received at the hands of the city council in regard to the street show given here under their auspices last month. Resolutions have been passed by them instructing the secretary to write a letter to the city council thanking them for the courtesies received, especially in the refunding of the license money paid, notwithstanding the fact that the refund came in the shape of a warrant which must be held until there are funds in the city treasury to pay it.

The article which recently appeared in the Portland Journal stating that the band was unable to cash the warrant at a heavy discount would imply that the boys were out $166 and they were very much incensed about it. As a matter of fact, the matter was treated as a joke by the boys, who understood the situation, and while they wished to use the money this winter in the employment of an instructor, they are not feeling bad or in any way "sore" at the city officials. The statement in the News that Mayor McDonald promised that the warrant could be paid in March, is denied by the Mayor, who says he has made no promises of any kind. That the warrant will be paid at no late date is certain, but the exact date of its payment depends on the payment of taxes to replenish the city treasury, which will come during the early part of the new year.

That the incident has been used to discredit the credit of the city and cast odium on certain of the city officials by publication in a Portland paper, is very much regretted by the band boys, who say that it was done without any authority or knowledge of the organization.

The ladies who have not yet got their new fall hats should take advantage of the big sale at the Style Shop. One half off on all patterns and our own make hats.

The Relief Corps meets Saturday. Important work. All members are requested to be present.

Judge J. W. Murphy, of Glenwood, Iowa, one of the judges of the Spokane show, will be here this week to look over the Hood River display. W. F. Laraway, who has known Judge Murphy for many years, says he is one of the best judges of apples in the United States.

H. C. Atwell, president, and Frank W. Porter, secretary, of the State Horticultural Society, will be here Saturday and try to make arrangements for a 150-box display of Hood River apples at the Portland show next week.

J. E. Montgomery, who has been acting as editor of the Glacier for over a year, has severed his connection with the paper and takes a position with the American Central Life Insurance Co., for which his father, W. S. Montgomery, is state agent for Oregon. Mr. Montgomery has made many friends in Hood River who will be pleased to know that he will continue to labor and do a part of the time at least, and which his success in his new venture, Mr. Montgomery's relations with the Glacier management have been very pleasant and satisfactory, and while we regret to lose him, we predict for him that success in his new field of labor which always comes with untiring energy, strict integrity and strict application to business.

YOU are probably one of the great majority of gift buyers who have found that a book is the best thing to give for Christmas. Nothing else that costs so little is one-tenth as acceptable. Nothing else that costs so little provides such a wide latitude for satisfying the individual tastes of the giver (or recipient). And certainly with nothing else can you make make so personal and intimate a gift for a dollar or so.

THIS is especially true of an interesting new novel—attractively illustrated and bound. And how little trouble,—you go to your bookseller with a list of titles, tell him where to send them, and your Christmas shopping is done in about fifteen minutes.

Here is an Especially Convenient List. Use It—The "Christmas Problem" you hear so much about will cease to exist.
