Odell. Last week we intended to note Odell's Thanksgiving offering to the Boys's and Girls's Aid Society of Portland. There were eleven boxes of apples, seven sacks of potatoes, twenty-one quarts of fruit and jelly and several packages of clothing and several dollars in cash. Connaway Mercantile Co. delivered the goods at the depot in Hood River in time to reach their destination before Thanksgiving Day.

Boxes! Boxes! Apple and Pear Boxes Stanley-Smith Lmbr Co.

Weinheimer and Mr. and Mrs. Gill spent the summer in Hood River valley, visiting at the homes of W. L. Shelton and V. A. Crow, and they expect to spend the winter in California. O. H. Erhek won first on Orley's at the Apple Fair in Hood River last week. Guy F. Smith won first on Arkansas Blacks at the same time and place. Mr. Smith also exhibited some fine Orleys. Electricians from Portland are here wiring for electric lights about Odell. A bad check artist has been at work. T. W. Atkinson having found a forged check among those returned to him with his statement from the bank. The check was dated about November 15 and the forger evidently carried out carefully laid plans with the result that his apprehension will be extremely difficult. Mrs. Rose Shelley, of Carson, Wash., came up last week to attend the Apple Fair and for a short visit with relatives and friends in the valley. We were very glad to welcome Mrs. Shelley at Odell where she formerly met her often when her husband was proprietor of the Little White Store. Mrs. Geo. W. Crow, of Portland, attended the Apple Fair in Hood River Friday. She came out to Odell Saturday and attended to some business matters connected with Odell property owned by Mr. and Mrs. Crow. Mr. Arthur Crow, of Portland, visited Hood River and Odell Saturday. This was Mr. Crow's first visit to Hood River and he was much impressed with the apple industry and Hood River methods. Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNeill, of the Home Telephone Co.'s office at Odell, have resigned, their resignation to take effect December 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Langley Stevenson have arrived and Mr. Stevenson will act as lineman and Mrs. Stevenson as night operator. Mr. and Mrs. McNeill will go to Sheridan, Ore., where they will occupy and improve a valuable property they have purchased. Mr. and Mrs. McNeill have been residents of Odell about one year and they have been faithful and obliging employees of the Home Telephone Co., and have many friends who wish them success in the new home. Mr. and Mrs. Howell Metcalf, of Bull Run, have many friends in the valley who will be sorry to hear that Frances, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, is believed to be suffering from scarlet fever. George, the little son, has been very ill and at this writing is very weak. Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Young and Gladys Crosby, went to Portland Friday for a week's visit with relatives. Francis, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Odell, has been quite ill of pneumonia. Miss Eva Broomhead spent Thanksgiving Day with her sister, Mrs. C. R. McCoy. Mayme Howard went to Mosier last week for a visit with friends. Mrs. Florence Bushman has been quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDonald expect to spend the winter at the old home in Wisconsin. BARRETT. We are glad to report such a good contribution of vegetables for the Boys and Girls Aid Society. The following donated: J. C. Cutner, 4 boxes apples; W. J. Knight, 3 boxes apples, sack potatoes; G. Sargent, box apples; C. H. Hurlbert, box apples; W. Good-nough, 2 sacks potatoes and pumpkin; J. J. Gibbons, 2 boxes apples; Mrs. McKee, potatoes and apples; Markham old ranch, 2 boxes apples; Mrs. Bray-old and friends, fruit, candy and clothing; A. Howe, sack potatoes; G. P. Christie, sack flour and potatoes; C. E. Conns, 50 cents; A. C. Staten, sack potatoes, sack flour; Davidson Fruit Co., 2 boxes apples; Stranahan & Clark, sack flour; Butler Baking Co., $5; Mrs. E. Brayford, $2.50; T. Sheare, sack potatoes. Will Sandbrooks is receiving lots of mail from Johnny Bull's land and he is tickled to death when he receives three letters by one mail. G. Miner has moved a portion of his furniture to Portland, where he has a winter job for his team. He expects to be back in the early spring. Grant & Tucker were looking over the stock at the Rockford store last week, with the intention of buying out the Rockford merchant. Ben Dawsay and C. Jones are cutting up some large yellow pine in the district which will be sold as fire wood 16 inches long. John Jones and wife visited the Apple Show on last Thursday. OAK GROVE People in this neighborhood were somewhat surprised upon arising Sunday morning to find about a foot of snow covering the ground. This is the first heavy fall of the year. W. E. King spent the past two weeks in Portland. Mr. Vinton and family, of Underwood, Wash., spent Thanksgiving at the home of H. M. Cummins. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dyer departed last week for Portland. The latter proceeded thence to San Francisco for an extended visit and the former remained in Portland for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Albright spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Wedemeyer and Miss Anna Fregge returned last week from Portland. Jay Armstrong came down last week from Portland to spend Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. Harry M. Francis. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rabies went to Portland Saturday to spend the winter. Miss Marie Lemmon came up last week from Portland to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lemmon. Chas. Fisher departed Friday for Portland. James Church and family, of Condon, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Chas. Albright. Miss Bees Albright, who has been visiting in Condon for the past several weeks, accompanied them here. Francis H. Irwin, after spending Thanksgiving at his home in Oak Grove, returned Sunday to Portland, where he is teaching in the Educational Department of the Y. M. C. A. DUKES VALLEY We had about six inches of snow last Sunday. Henderson and McKay were in Portland last week to attend a game of football. Edward Livingston and Clarence Johnson, of Portland, spent Thanksgiving with Cecil and Charley Allen. Mrs. Daisy Dodson, of St. Johns, Wash., spent Thanksgiving with her brother, J. O. A. D., and Mark Cameron. Mrs. Dodson is an old settler of Duke's Valley, having lived on a homestead here since 1891 until 1905 when they traded with Gabriel for a hotel in St. Johns, Wash., where they now live. They are raising wheat at present. Mrs. Dodson was somewhat surprised to see the improvements that had taken place in the last five years. The old neighbors have all gone and Mrs. Dodson is almost a stranger here now. She left for her home Saturday. Ray Creson is in the hospital at Hood River. He underwent an operation for a gland on his eyelid. He is getting along nicely and will soon be out home again. The social given at the school house last Friday was a success. We were surprised to see what the children could do. Their work spoke well for their teachers, who trained them, and each one did his part right and at the right time. The house was nicely decorated and looked cheerful. The baskets were well sold and the returns were a little over $44. This is to get a flag and pictures and other things needed for the school. The Sunday school was small last Sunday on account of the weather. Let us all turn out and get up a program for Christmas and have another good time. We were glad when route No. 2 started to delivering the mail again as we miss our mail carrier after being used to getting it every day. Miss Lena Strager, of Salem, Ore., spent Thanksgiving with Miss Lambert, our school teacher. The medal that was offered to the scholar who spoke the best at the entertainment last Friday evening was won by Eugene Redfield. They all spoke well and it was a difficult task for the judges to decide. This medal was a reward from Miss Lambert.
