LOCAL PIG SKIN ARTISTS' COMBAT

Well, well, well! There was some football game at the Chapman Park last Sunday when the Hood River Athletic team spread a banquet to the pig skin artists from the heights and in which they served their guests with goose eggs and wound the menu up with a 16 to 0 sauce. Of course it could have been 116 to 0 if the Athletic squad had not taken up so much time in smoking cigarettes while the globe was in scrimmage. Foot ball is a mighty heady game and it takes a pile of brains to figure out just what the other fellows are going to do when the first syllable of the signal sounds. The Athletics won their game because of their superior knowledge of the game as a science. The hill knights, clad in the regulation paraphernalia, loomed up pretty good in their preliminaries before the game, and they are a mighty gritty lot of fellows, which fact is fully evidenced in their staying with the game to the end, and this in the face of inevitable defeat. Money, Tate and Little Joe Carson were on the job all the time and have the stuff in them to make good on any all-star team. Shively, Hartley and Sexton were the diamonds in the rough for the down-town team, and this trio did sure make some shining. When Sexton carried the hog-skin past the 2 by 4's with a lighted smoke in his mouth it surely made the rooters loosen up. Well, with Howell as referee and Kay as umpire it was surely some game. Come again, boys.

Sunday School Convention.
The County Sunday School convention was held at the Christian church last Friday afternoon and evening, and all day Saturday. The weather was unfavorable, and as a result the attendance was not large, but all who were present enjoyed the good program, and profited by the helpful and stirring words of all who took part.

The address of welcome was given by Rev. Mr. Handaker, of the Christian church.

A very interesting paper on "Beginners in the Sunday School" was read by Miss Grace Turney.

Rev. C. A. Phipps, our State Sunday school secretary, was with us through the sessions, and spoke on "The Equipment of the Model Sunday School" and "Right and Wrong Methods in Teaching a Class."

Mr. Phipps always has something good and is full of Sunday school ideas. He is worth hearing. The subject of Rev. Harris' address was "The Importance of Religious Education." "Training for Citizenship," by Rev. E. T. Simpson. "The Religious Poet of Israel," by Rev. J. R. Hargreaves. "Friendly Helpers," by Mrs. E. J. Nickelsen. These were some of the good things that were greatly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be present. Miss Belle Ellis sang a solo and the Primary class a song, both of which were helpful, and showed that the little ones want a part in the Sunday school work. The Committee on Nominations, composed of T. S. Handaker, Ralph Savage and C. A. Puddy, reported as follows:

President, M. D. Odell; Vice-president, Ralph Savage; Secretary and treasurer, R. H. Vaughn; Supt. Teacher Training, Rev. Parsons; Supt. Home Dept., Mrs. J. A. Wilson; Supt. Elementary Dept., Miss Grace Turney; Supt. Adult Dept., Rev. James Davidson; Supt. Good Citizenship, Rev. E. T. Simpson; Supt. Temperance, Mrs. J. W. Rigby.

Committee on Resolutions reported as follows: Resolved, That we extend our appreciation of the courtesy of the officials of this church for the use of this church edifice for our convention, and to the people and pastor for their hospitality and their many tokens of kindness to us.

Resolved, That we appreciate the inspiring and helpful talks and addresses and helpful talks and addresses of Bro. C. A. Phipps.

Resolved, That we extend our thanks to all who have helped in any way to make this convention a success.

Respectfully submitted,
Isaac Peart,
Mrs. Lee Morse.

The committee on Finance, composed of R. H. Vaughn, Mrs. N. A. Wilson and Mrs. S. E. Bartmess, suggested that the plan adopted at the state convention be followed, namely, to ask the Sunday schools to give toward state work four cents per member and for county work, 1 one cent per member. The reports of the committees were received and adopted. The place decided on for holding the next convention was Odell. President F. G. Coe was elected to represent the county association at the state convention to be held at Corvallis. It was decided to organize a Teachers' Training Class and the different schools are asked to remember the date, December 16, at 7:30 p. m., and the place, Christian church, Hood River. Our pledge for state work is $35, of which $18.50 has been paid. Will the schools that have not yet responded, kindly see that their apportionment, five cents per member, reaches the Secretary at an early date?

R. H. Vaughn, County Sec'y.
