

PINE GROVE

The committees appointed for arranging the Christmas program, are getting busy, and the children are looking forward to the usual entertainment and Christmas tree.

The Sunday school convention held last Friday and Saturday at the Christian church in Hood River, was a success, so far as the program was concerned, but owing to the weather, the attendance was not large. Did you know there was a Sunday school convention? Would you have gone, had you known? If you were not there you missed some good things. Plan to go next spring. The place chosen is Odell, and the program will no doubt be a fine one.

Tomorrow evening, December 9, at the Pine Grove school house, there will be a special meeting of tax payers to levy the assessment for school purposes. You were not in attendance at the meeting called for that purpose last year, hence we must raise enough for the two years' expenses. Don't forget the date.

The East Fork Irrigating Co. will hold a stockholders' meeting next Saturday, December 10, at 1 p.m., at the Commercial Club rooms, and all interested should be represented either in person or by proxy. This is an important meeting.

Rev. Mr. Crenshaw is giving us some good sermons, and should have a larger congregation.

Mrs. Redfield, formerly of Pine Grove, but now living in Odell, has been the guest of Mrs. Ben Lage.

Fred Browne is visiting Mr. McClain.

L. C. Sonneman spent a few days of last week in Portland, and saw the apple show.

John Hayes, of Seattle, who made a flying trip to Hood River in October, and was here less than a day, was favorably impressed not only by our beautiful valley, but by the fruit as well, has become a "booster" for Hood River.

If the young man from Odell who found the raincoat on the main road to town, about three weeks ago, will call up 2012K, he will learn who the owner is.

FRANKTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Triggs were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Noble Sunday.

Mrs. McKittrick has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Dickenson, for the past week.

F. D. White, of Ruthon, is assisting J. K. Phillips in his mill on Phelps creek.

The Stanley-Smith Lumber Co. are building and repairing their floor preparatory to opening work early in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCusison are again settled at Ruthon after more than a year's absence. Welcome back, John.

Wm. Trigg, who recently purchased the Scott Hoorman place, is making a great showing in his remodeling of the place. He is having the timber cut and other clearing done. He plans to make a hay farm out of the place.

Owing to the illness in Rev. Parson's family there was no preaching at Ruthon Sunday. Sunday school was held as usual. We all sincerely hope that his family will rapidly improve in health.

A Household Medicine

To be really valuable must show equally good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether for children or grown persons Foley's Honey and Tar is the safest and best for all coughs and colds. C. C. Plath.

CASCADE LOCKS.

H. N. Taylor has accepted a position as superintendent of the construction of the City Reservoirs at Mt. Tabor just out of Portland.

J. W. Buttz has been appointed the successor of R. G. Connor as lockmaster at the canal here and the family is occupying the former residence of the Connor's.

Miss Jennie Olin was home from Portland to spend Sunday with her grandmother.

Henry Goyette died Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church Thursday afternoon and the remains taken to Portland for burial. Mr. Goyette, formerly of LaCrosse, Wis., came to the Locks in 1896 and was in the employ of the Wind River Lumber Co., as captain of their tow boat, the LaCrosse, until the summer of 1908 when he received his first stroke of paralysis, which rendered him unable to keep his position. This was followed by another stroke shortly before his death. Complications of dropsy and Bright's disease set in and he died shortly after.

Mrs. E. Alwick entertained the embroidery club Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. P. Lucas, Miss Erma Yettick and Miss Bertha Hendrick were in Hood River Friday night to hear "The Vision of Sir Launfal" read by the class of Miss Melissa Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Temple, of White Salmon, are spending a few days here visiting Mrs. Temple's uncle, Alvert Kelly. Mrs. Temple was formerly Miss Evelyn Corlett, of the Locks.

Turner Leavens, of Portland, visited the Locks last Friday and Saturday.

WHITE SALMON

(from the Enterprise)

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. McClan at Bingen one day last week.

Mrs. C. M. Russell was a visitor in Hood River Friday.

T. J. Lindsay has closed the Maple Hotel at Bingen, and gone to Vancouver to open up in business.

French Stabler and family, former proprietor of Hotel Washington, have returned from their visit at Great Falls, Montana. Mr. Stabler may again become a permanent citizen of this place.

Theodore Shepler was at Goldendale on Mt. Adams Electric Line business. He always reports progress on the road, but he ought to be encouraged by everybody, for the line will be the big thing for the whole country.

A. H. Jewett and wife went to Pasco Monday night on business. Mrs. Jewett has been very much discommoded of late on account of a burn which laid bare the knuckle of her hand.

Robert Fordyce, whose young orchard is near Husum, offered to pay four bits for every worm found in the orchard. It was a safe offer, for he had to pay only fifty cents; one measly worm was found.

Until further notice, Father Roman, of Hood River, will hold mass in the White Salmon Studio the second Sunday of each month, beginning next Sunday, December 11.

Mr. Brown, from Ohio, who has been touring the west and looking for investments, was in White Salmon again this week. He has been here several times during the past summer and fall and likes the place very much.

MOSIER.

Mrs. A. E. Voigt left for Portland the last of the week.

Miss Mamie Howard, of Hood River, was visiting Mrs. Jno. Davenport this week.

L. K. Webb came up from Portland the last of the week, visiting friends over Sunday.

Mrs. A. H. McLane is enjoying a few day's vacation from her duties at the depot, part of the time being spent in Portland.

Mrs. E. E. Masten left this week for Spokane, where she will remain most of the winter.

Mrs. C. G. Nichol and little daughter, Mildred, returned Tuesday evening from an extended visit with relatives in Kansas and California.

A number of prominent Mosier citizens attended the Apple Show at Portland. Mosier was awarded some of the prizes.

Miss H. Chatfield closed her three months' term of school last week, in the Grose district.

Mrs. S. M. Payne left Monday for her home at Red Bluff, Cal. She will visit relatives near Turner, Amity and probably McMinnville, Ore., before continuing on her homeward journey.

Mrs. Jno. Wellberg accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Payne, as far as Portland. H. H. Smith has just completed a nice modern five room residence on his homestead south of Mosier. One feature of the dwelling, which no doubt will add comfort beyond telling, is the large fireplace, for which the brick was burned by Mr. Smith on the home place.

Mrs. T. W. DeBussey has her new residence near completion.

Miss Belle Johnson was a passenger for Hood River on the early train Monday morning.

Members of the Mosier Commercial Club held a smoker, Monday evening, enjoying a few social hours.

W. E. Husky has improved sufficiently to be moved out to his home south of Mosier a few miles.

C. A. Hage came up Monday from Portland to spend a few days with Mosier friends.

C. A. MacCargar came up from Portland Monday evening to be present at the social meeting of the Commercial Club. Other Portland gentlemen were also present.

J. N. Mosier is having some grading and street work done.

Thanksgiving in Manila.

The Government transport Dix arrived at Manila with its Thanksgiving dinner for the soldiers. On the boat there were 30,700 dressed turkeys, 40 barrels of cranberries, 600 pounds of mince meat and 50,000 Oregon apples. Every thing was the best to be had in the market. The Thanksgiving ship having fulfilled its mission, the transport officials are getting ready to dispatch a Christmas ship from San Francisco. This will carry Christmas and New Year's repasts to the soldier boys in the Philippines, also thousands of Christmas presents from friends and relatives in the states. All presents will be shipped free across the Pacific by the Government. Expressage must be paid by the sender to San Francisco. The quartermaster at that point will forward the shipments to the islands.

An Enjoyable Concert.

The concert at the Commercial Club under the direction of the men of the Unitarian church was a success both in the artistic presentation, and in the enjoyment of the audience. Every musical number seemed especially adapted to the kind of concert given, and the character of the audience, and the rendition was exquisite.

The skit dance by Edda Jackson and Julia Creighton added a touch of grace and beauty that left little more to be desired. The Magic, and the farce, with its chief actors, the Bull Terrier and the Baby, supplied the contrast and amusement, that made the long evening enjoyable to the end.

The men of the Unitarian church express on this occasion more their appreciation of those who made this occasion so enjoyable and dignified. Appreciation also is due those who made possible so pretty and suitable a place in which to hold such a concert and for the quiet which reigned in the billiard room. The number present on such a rainy evening indicates that love of art and music is still alive in Hood River.
