NEW BELL ASSURED FOR THE HEIGHTS

A large audience of men and women was present at the joint meeting of the business and social clubs of the Heights last Friday night and the auditorium of the Baptist church was nearly filled. The meeting, while the address of J. C. Tate, the principal speaker, dealt with certain phases of religious work, was for the purpose of discussing some of the Heights' most vital needs and, too, it was an expression of genial neighborly good will. Rev. J. R. Hargreaves, pastor of the Baptist church, was chairman of the meeting. A number of musical selections were rendered by a double quartette of boys from the literary organizations of the Heights. After the address by Mr. Tate, which bore on the value of centering community with church life, a collection was taken up for the purpose of placing a large bell in the belfry of the Baptist church, which may be rung not only for announcing religious services but also to be used in warning the people of the Heights in case of fire or any other disaster. The citizens responded liberally and in a very short time $100 had been subscribed. The sum of $100 was paid at the desk during the evening. Since then it is understood that further contributions have considerably increased the fund.

Taken altogether the meeting was of extraordinary interest. While for the purpose of conducting a practical matter it was an expression of the good feeling toward and interest in the church of the community. The purposes of the bell, which will cause it soon to become locked in the memory of all the neighborhood, are beautifully set forth in the following lines of an anonymous writer:
"Now doth its brazen throat, measure with rhythmic note, hours that so swiftly float out on time's ocean.
"Now from some ivied tower, streams the sweet chiming-power, pleading for Sabbath hour, prayer and devotion.

"Now when the midnight sky, red with flames mounting high, telling of havoc nigh, hark the bells thunder.
"Now 'tis a merry peal, hands joined for weal, when God doth set the seal man may not sunder.
"Now 'tis a solemn dirge, that our hearts both urge, by the grave's very verge, life's quick dispelling.
"Ring it for time, or fire, or prayer, wedding, knelling.
"Sad be its tone, or gay, none may this truth gainsay.
"Just as the bell is tolled--will be its telling."

Grace U. B. Church News.

Presiding Elder H. C. Shaffer preached last Thursday night and conducted the last quarterly meeting of the year. On Saturday afternoon the Junior society had a Mad March party in the gymnasium with about 50 in attendance.

Sunday was a great day, perhaps the best in the Rev. Parson's pastorate. Monday evening the Rev. R. G. Summerlin, the state evangelist, began a series of revival meetings. This was an inspiring service and everyone is expecting a great awakening in Hood River. Mr. Summerlin is a remarkable man, for a long time he was the bully of Coos county. He is a man's man and never fails to reach men of all classes. Sometime ago Dan Shannon met Rev. Summerlin and urged him to accompany him as a co-partner on his evangelistic tours.

Revival Closes.

The revival at the First Christian Church closed last Sunday with a rousing service. There were six additions to the church during the day, making a total of 19 during the meeting. The church is planning for greater things along all lines. The Sunday School has increased 50 per cent within the last few weeks. Last Sunday the attendance was the largest in the history of the church. Already plans are under way for a great evangelistic campaign in the early autumn led by an evangelist of national reputation.

A Fierce Night Alarm

is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, O., [R. R. No. 2] for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote, "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages by before it. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

Revall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorder in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Revall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c
