

Great Piano Contest

THE GREATEST THING THAT HAS EVER BEEN PUT ON IN HOOD RIVER

The Lyon-Taylor Co., of Chicago, is going to give away $1,330.00 worth of their celebrated KRAUSE PIANOS on the contest that has been inaugurated at our store.

If you want one of these instruments get in the race at once. This contest will be put on and conducted by J. M. Wood, proprietor of Wood's grocery store, Hood River, Ore., and A. D. Moe, proprietor of the Hood River Glacier.

5--FIVE PRIZES--5

- No. 1. $350 Krause Piano Given Away FREE.
- No. 2. $260 allowed on new Piano if purchased within a year.
- No. 3. $250
- No. 4. $240
- No. 5. $230

These prizes to be given to the Lady, Gentleman, Church, Lodge or any Society that brings in the most cash to the store for groceries, or to the Hood River Glacier for subscriptions. Any cash counts, whether it is cash over the counter, cash the first of the month on monthly accounts, or cash on back accounts.

The contest will be decided by a system of voting, on the basis of one-half cent for each vote. (For illustration, $5.00 will buy 1000 votes.) Mayor E. H. Hartwig will carry the key to the box containing the votes. He will open the box and count the votes every Monday and the result will be published weekly.

The contest will start April 3, 1911, and end Aug. 3, 1911. The price of groceries will not be raised. They will be sold the same as they are sold in the other stores in Hood River for goods of like quality. The price of the Glacier will be $1.50, the same as it has been all the time. We expect to get our money back from the increased amount of business we will do.

The Piano can be seen in the window of Wood's grocery store. Come in and try it. The piano is warranted to be first class in every particular.

Yours for business,

Wood's Grocery Store

The Skeleton at the Wedding.
A. G. C. Liddell was once best man at a wedding at which one of the presents was, to say the least, unconventional. This is his story in "Notes From the Life of an Ordinary Gentleman." "Considerable excitement was raised among the spectators when it was rumored that a tall oak box placed against the wall contained a skeleton, and all sorts of rumors were rife as to the significance of such a curious wedding gift. The real explanation was simple. An eccentric old gentleman had once found the bride, who was fond of drawing, making a study from a skull and had vowed that he would give her a whole skeleton when she was married. The result was that after protracted negotiation he secured the framework of an Austrian grenadier, which, I believe, it was found most difficult to import. This was not the sole trouble connected with the gift, as when the young couple set up house the servants shied at this strange inmate of the establishment, and he had to be presented to a hospital."

Yarmouth's Herring Feast.

The brazier is not generally considered to be the acme of style where a dinner is concerned, and as an article of diet it is generally believed to be almost exclusively used by the lower classes of society, yet Yarmouth, "the home of the herring," has its annual herring dinner, when the whole menu from hors d'oeuvres to cheese consists of herrings and sprats—the latter herrings in their infantile stage—served up in various ways. It must be said that some of these ways are so ingenious and wonderful that it is very difficult to recognize the familiar fish with which Yarmouth owes so much of its prosperity, yet there is no doubt that the ubiquitous herring in every dish served up at its famous meal is present in some shape or form. Thus for once the herring is honored in accordance with its true value, for the dinner is presided over by the mayor of the borough and is attended by all the leading men of the town.—London Tit-Bits.

The Ancient Oracles.

Herodotus mentions between seventy and eighty oracles of one sort and another. There is no reason for thinking that the people who patronized the oracles had other than the liveliest faith in them. The two great oracles were those at Delphi and Dodona, though there were several others that stood well with the people. The predictions were, of course, nothing but predictions, since it is now generally understood that the promoters of those famous institutions were only ordinary human beings like those who patronized them. The deliverances of the oracles belong to one of two classes—first, those founded on secret information and, second, those in which the oracle had absolutely no ideas on the subject and took refuge in sheer vagueness. It was the faith of the people rather than the infallibility of the oracles that kept them up so long.

Albrecht Durer's Tankard.

One of the quaintest of drinking vessels to be seen at the Brauerstrasse, is a Nuremberg inn which has remained unaltered since it was built in 1400. Sausages, sauerkraut and beer are the only commodities obtainable, and the limit of accommodation is reached when ten customers are present. Yet several fortunes have been made out of the house, for it was the favorite haunt of Albrecht Durer, and the pewter he drank from is still treasured. This is a double vessel, one tankard fitting neatly into the other, and was reserved for Durer and his wife. According to tradition, when the artist was in a good humor he used to fill the inside tankard for his wife, and they would clink lovingly together. When domestic storms were brewing he kept the tankards together and let his wife go thirsty.—London Graphic.

Black Chocolate Icing.

When a black chocolate icing is wanted and there happens to be no chocolate in the pantry, cocoa can be substituted for it in the following manner: Mix together six even tablespoonfuls of cocoa with five of sugar, one of butter and three of hot water. Cook the mixture until smooth and in the right condition for spreading. Test it by putting a little in a saucer and setting the saucer on an outside window ledge or where it will cool quickly. This icing is rich and dark and not very sweet.

The Tailor's Chance.

"Weel, Tam, are ye gann hame w' your work?" was the invariable greeting of a doctor to a tailor of his acquaintance when he met him carrying a bundle. Once the tailor saw the doctor walking in a funeral procession, "Weel, doctor, are ye gann hame w' your work?" he asked.—From "Reminiscences," by Sir Archibald Geikie.

Not at His Best.

"I was surprised," said the Rev. Mr. Goodstern sternly, "to see you playing golf last Sabbath. I should think you'd do better."

"Oh," replied Goodstern, "I usually do much better! I was in wretched form last Sunday."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Lying in Wait.

"I've been sent down town to buy a taboret. What's that?"

"Don't you know? It's one of those things that stand around about shin high in the dark."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Property has its duties as well as its rights.—Drummond.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back if not satisfied. Only 50 cents at Chas. N. Clarke's.

ASTORIANS PREPARE FOR CELEBRATION

Furniture enough to fill 29 big cars has been purchased in Astoria by the residents who are planning to have everything in shape for the Astoria Centennial crowd which is due with the opening of the pageant on August 10. Five carloads of beds have been shipped there and four more carloads are known to be on the way.

Everybody in Astoria is preparing for the greatest crowd that ever visited the city. The merchants are wearing great smiles because of the extensive purchases by the housewives of new bed linen, glassware and fancy articles to decorate for the visitors.

At this time more than 6,000 persons may be housed in comfort in addition to the capacity of the Beach Hotels and the Astoria Hotels. Two school houses are being converted into hotels, and the old Flavel House is being reopened under the direction of the Astoria Centennial. Every extra bed in the city has been assured, and those who write in to the Committee in advance may be assured of receiving just the kind of accommodations they need. It will be possible to lodge families with Catholic families, and take care of other religious denominations as well.

The Committee on Arrangements have formed an information Bureau with S. S. Friebe in charge. He knows the location of every bed, whether it is single or double size, knows exactly what houses have baths in the and what ones are without, can tell you whether there is a telephone in them house or not, and in fact produce more information than a United States census report.

All this detail was worked out under the personal orders and directions of General Manager A. A. Troup, who has wide experience in handling record crowds, and big crowds are expected in Astoria because of the unusually low rates created by the railroads. These who contemplate a trip to Astoria will be furnished any information they ask without charge by the Committee.

Sprains require careful treatment. Keep quiet and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely. It will remove the soreness and quickly restore the parts to a healthy condition. For sale by all dealers.

Valley Christian Church.

The forum opened Sunday evening with E. C. Smith, a prominent lawyer, of Hood River, the speaker of the evening. Dr. Friebe was unable to be present. Mrs. Aubagen sang a very touching solo, "Face to Face," at the close. More than one heart was touched, as witnessed from the sobs from all parts of the house.

Next Sunday evening Dr. Dumble will deliver an address on "Right Living"—from the Viewpoint of a Medical Man.

Owing to the inclement weather last Friday evening the ice cream social given by the Endeavors did not pan out as well as was expected.

Endeavor was well attended Sunday evening, the topic, "Lessons from Animals," was one from which we could all glean something and the leader, Beatrice Boyce, had a most interesting meeting. This is her maiden attempt by the way, and she did exceptionally well. We are just a handful, but we're pretty much alive.

Our choir leader is trying to organize a chorus choir for the summer months, or as long as the forum continues. At present the leader, W. E. Caulier, is on an outing at Lost Lake with his brother and B. S. Murphy.

A baseball game is coming off soon between the "Live Wires" and the "Loyal Sons," that is if the "Live Wires" don't get cold feet. We've got 'em pretty badly buffaloed already. They've got a hunch that they're some athletes. Why, their teacher even said he'd don the gloves and go a few fast rounds with any five of us. Out of pity for them we accepted their challenge but will only put up three men.

Announcement of Examinations.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces examinations on August 2, 1911, to obtain eligibles for appointment to the position of Physician (Male) at $150 a month, and Trained Nurse at $60 a month, for service in connection with the care of the injured employees on The Dalles-Celilo Canal, Oregon, Engineer Department at large. The examination will be held in The Dalles, and all qualified persons are urged to make application for and take examination. Application Form 1312 may be secured from the Commission's local representative at the post office, this city, or from the Secretary, 11th Civil Service District, Federal Bldg., Seattle, Wash.
