It is said that the scraes and clevasses of the wonderful ice formations were never more beautiful than this summer. The "Snow Snakes" and "be Gophers" are coming from their winter quarters and are painly discernible by those visiting the region.

An unusual phenomenon was recently enjoyed by the Cloud Cap guests A noise, like the rapid fire of a battery of artillery was heard coming from grantillery was heard coming from grantillery was heard coming from their two geyser-like streams of water shot high in the heavens from hotes fored through the iee. The only explanation for the occurrence is that the continued warm weather melted the anow so rapidly that it carried down a large amount of debris and stopped the outlet for the water undernoath the glacier. When the "ressure became too great the holes were forced in the wall of ice.
