

WE ARE MAKING A CLEAN SWEEP

MID-SUMMER SALE

End of the Season Prices at Almost the Best of the Season

Our Fall Suits have already been shipped. We must make room for Fall goods. Our entire stock of SCHLOSS BROS. CO. BALTIMORE CLOTHES are offered at wonderful prices.

All Suits up to $18.00 for $13.75	All Suits under $12.50 - $8.00	$25.00 Suits at - $19.75
$20.00 Suits at - $15.75		$27.50 Suits at - $22.75

This sale needs no introduction to careful men---needs no long-winded arguments. A glance at these prices will convince anyone that these are Bona Fide reductions from honest first prices. We offer the correct styles and materials, a splendid run of sizes. In short, absolutely desirable clothes, and real opportunities to Save Money.

Shoes for Men, $2.89
$4.00 Grade

MORLAN & LATHROP

Shoes for Ladies' 98c and Children for

ODELL

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Plog and daughters, Edna and Olga, and sons Harry and Ludwig came home Saturday night from a week's stay at Newport.

G. F. Coe, of Hood River, and Eleanor Coe and Leita Bowerman will leave Monday for Cannon Beach where they will enjoy some time spent on the border of old ocean.

A party of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Crosby last Saturday evening to remind Miss Gladys Crosby that she was passing another milestone on life's journey.

The evening was pleasantly spent playing games and later partaking of dainty refreshments. All present wish Gladys many happy returns of the day.

O. H. Ehrek, Fred Crockett, Joe Lenz and Mr. Ferguson, the barber at Odell, returned Friday evening from several days' outing at Lost Lake.

A lawn social will be given Friday night (tomorrow) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ehrek. A short program, ice cream and cake, and an enjoyable evening promised. Auspices Methodist Ladies Aid Society of Odell. Everyone cordially invited.

After an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman, Earl Stewart left last week for Pendleton, Ore. From that point he will go into Idaho, then to South Dakota and later to his home in Michigan.

The many friends of Mrs. Matilda Wood will be anxious to know that she expects to return this week to her home in Odell after having spent the time since last November in California.

Wm. Ehrek, of Hood River, visited at the home of his son, W. C. Ehrek, and daughter, Mrs. J. H. Eggert, one day last week.

Noel Davis is home from an extended stay in California.

A treat in the form of a musical entertainment is promised for Odell in the near future. Announcements will appear later.

Eva Boyd received notice recently telling her that her standing in the Class of 1911, Hood River High School, was so high that she was awarded a scholarship. Her many friends offer congratulations.

Monday evening of last week Mrs. E. T. Folts invited a few young ladies and gentlemen to the home of her cousin, Miss Wood, of Portland, who is visiting her.

Mr. and Mrs. James English have sold to Geo. Kumer, of Portland, ten acres at a consideration of $5000. Mr. English still owns twenty acres and expects soon to build a comfortable residence thereon. Mr. Kumer will remain in Portland for the present.

F. A. Kemp, of Duluth, Mich., was a business visitor at the store of T. W. Atkinson Saturday, remaining until Sunday afternoon. Mr. Kemp is a travelling salesman and Mr. Atkinson took advantage of this opportunity for ordering fall and winter goods.

The following party went to Lost Lake Sunday: Mrs. T. M. Mitchell and daughters, Margaret and Magdalene, Marie Gould and friend, Jessie Henry, Miss Wieden, Darrell Gove, Edward Jessen, Sherman Lafferty and Alex Lacey.

Mrs. W. F. Young, of Carson, Wash., came last Friday for a few days' visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lafferty.

This is a busy week about the new church at Odell.

Next Sunday morning is Rev. Troy Shelley's regular appointment at Odell.

OAK GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ellis, of Portland, are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Miller.

A. O. Anderson departed last Wednesday for Hillsboro, North Dak., on business.

A party of ten young people, with Mr. and Mrs. Fay Dinsmoor as chaperons, returned last week from a week's camping trip in the neighborhood of Lost Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. King spent two days last week in Portland.

Miss Irene Irquhart, who has been in the employ of the Henrichsen Jewelry Co., of Portland, is home for an extended stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall have been spending the past several weeks at Long Beach, Wash.

Herman Preege and family and John Stranahan and family are camping near Cooper's Spur.

H. A. Canning spent two days last week in Portland and Salem on business.

Miss Margaret Hackett, of Portland, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Ellen McCurdy.

J. C. Bowman and family went to Portland Thursday for a short stay.

Miss Gertrude Irwin spent last Wednesday and Thursday in Parkdale and Mt. Hood.

Oak Grove people were indeed grieved to hear of the loss of the Dr. Skinner home and its contents. The collection of books which were among the doomed, composed one of the finest libraries in the Valley.

MOSIER

S. D. Fisher spent several days transacting business in Portland this week.

J. M. Elliott was in The Dalles Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Sellinger went to Portland Thursday.

C. A. Brown left for Portland during the week to attend to business affairs.

Mrs. Alex Stewart spent several days upon the ranch this week.

Leslie Webb, of Portland, spent a few days in Mosier this week.

Miss Sadie Hildreth came from Portland Tuesday at which place she had visited relatives and friends.

A. M. Roop came early to town last Thursday and drove home the proud possessor of a nice new buggy. The purchase was made of the firm of A. Stewart, who deals in such necessary conveyances for farmers.

Geo. S. Hail returned to Mosier Thursday after an absence of eight months.

Bernie Nichol arrived Friday morning from Wamego, Kansas, where he has been enjoying farm life with his grandparents.

R. W. Simpson transacted business in The Dalles Friday.

Mrs. K. L. Cooper and Mrs. Ruppe, are spending week or so as the guests of relatives in The Dalles.

L. H. Wilson, of Oswego, visited his sons, Guy and Winfield, last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Boss came home the first of the week from a short recreation at the seashore.

Miss Flora Macdonald arrived Tuesday morning from Salt Lake City, Utah, to remain some time here with her mother and brother.

Mr. Mayer spent a few days in Portland during the week.

L. A. Mathews was in Portland a day or so this week.

Miss Alice Mosier is visiting friends at Willbur, Oregon, in the Upper Willamette Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Carroll visited Portland last week and while there selected part of the furniture and other necessary furnishings for their new residence which is nearing completion.

G. P. Morden spent a few days in Portland the past week with his wife and small son.

C. J. Fredrickson had business at the county seat during the week.

Mr. Vander Putten and family are now living at the Mayer Ranch.

Thos. Lellott, Jr., spent part of his vacation at home with his parents, returning to Portland the last of the week.

Mrs. W. A. Stark spent most the week in Mosier with her daughter, Mrs. Akers, and sister, Mrs. Cobb, before returning to Hood River.

Mrs. E. Dunsmore and grandson went to the Dalles Friday evening.

Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Fred Evans Wednesday afternoon.

R. L. Dwight and family and F. W. Garlick and family have moved to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans and son go tomorrow (Tuesday) to the coast for a two weeks' stay.

H. T. Snyder has moved over to Lyle.

At a meeting of Mosier people Saturday evening at Lamb's Hall the following citizens were chosen as directors in the new Commercial Club movement: F. A. Shogren, Dr. R. M. Ross, Dr. Robinson, H. M. Scaree, C. J. Littlepage, J. N. Mosier, Dr. Macrum and J. H. Firebaugh.

Geo. Chamberlain and Chas. Bennett left Sunday for a recreation trip in the mountains for 10 days or more.

Another party consisting of Geo. Huskey, Ed. Dunsmore, Dr. N. Johnson, and Fred Templemeir started out camping Sunday and more rumors of huckleberry parties leaving this coming week for the various "homes" are heard. We wish them all plenty of sport and good luck.

FRANKTON

Judge Gantenheim came up from Portland Sunday to spend the day looking over his ranch.

V. R. Absten spent the early part of last week at Husum, Wash.

Mrs. E. Shelly Morgan is entertaining company from Portland at her summer home on Phelps Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Rash, of Husum, Wash. were guests at the home of R. S. Cohoon Wednesday and Thursday.

Last week Wm. Trigg sold 15 acres of the south side of his ranch to some Japs.

Rev. Parsons, of Hood River, held services at Columbia school house Sunday night. A large audience greeted him and a splendid service was enjoyed by all. Rev. Parsons is an earnest, consecrated man and his sermons are forceful and helpful. He will fill his regular appointment again next Sunday afternoon. All are cordially invited to attend.

WHITE SALMON

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKureber Friday.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Serbaugh, of Bingen, this week.

Mrs. J. B. Hendricks, of Lakeport, Cal., is visiting at the home of her father, E. P. Wray.

Miss A. E. Mettle arrived from Minneapolis Thursday morning for a visit with Mrs. Homer G. Day.

A petition signed by nearly all the property owners of Camas Prairie has been presented to the county commissioners for the creation of an irrigation district.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodearmel, of Minneapolis, have been visitors at the home of H. Waldron the past week. Mrs. Rodearmel is a sister of Mr. Waldron. They came West chiefly for investigation of certain mine properties of Wallace, Idaho.

People going to and from Hood River via the stairway have bumped into a fence. Mrs. Swartz, owner of the property at the head of the stairs, has had the fence on the east side moved over about 30 feet and the short steps preliminary to the main stairway pulled up.

Capt. E. W. Spencer is having work rushed on the development of his forty acres on Spring Creek. A crew of men are getting the ground in good condition for fall planting. Work has now started on a dam by which an artificial lake will be made about eight acres in extent. The Captain is having a beautiful summer home and will occupy it part of the year.

R. W. Boddingshouse, chief examiner Chicago Title & Trust Co., has been in White Salmon the past week. His two sons have been in the West for the past two years and are now developing their property, ten acres of which they have slashed and ready to burn near the Overbaugh place and forty acres east of H. Waldron's that they will later give their attention to. Mr. Boddingshouse is highly pleased with the White Salmon country and enthusiastic over its prospects.

Frank Mann, of Lawrie & Mann, New York City, has arrived with his family and will begin the immediate construction of a fine house on his 20-acre tract three miles up the valley.

Mr. Mann has heavy investments in Central Oregon, but will make the White Salmon valley his permanent home. He is delighted with the natural beauty of this section and its advantages.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuhse, with his father not included, have also arrived from New York City and will put up a $300 concrete house on their property five miles up the valley.

PINE GROVE

Rev. Hazelton, of Portland, gave a fine address at the church Sunday morning in the interest of the Rescue Home of Portland. He spoke also in the evening to the young people, which was greatly appreciated.

Rev. Grosinger will fill the pulpit next Sunday morning.

The Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. Steverkrupp last Friday afternoon, quilting claiming their attention. A large number were present.

Wilbur and Elmer Ivy, sons of Rev. Ivy, of Portland, are spending their vacation in the country and in touring through the valley were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Thorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scobee visited friends in Bingen last week.

Miss Zoe Scobee entertained a party of 12 little girls recently on the occasion of her birthday.

Mr. H. M. Vannier is entertaining her cousin from Iowa, whom she had not seen for 31 years.

Lester Jeffries and Ray Hamm left for Spokane last week, the former to engage in business there. Mr. Hamm will return to his home after an absence of several weeks.

Mrs. Marie Maatker, who has been visiting in Minnesota, returned last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Jarvis and children returned home July 19th after a visit of 2 months with friends in the East.

Mrs. Sam Campbell returned Sunday evening from a visit to Minnesota.

CENTRAL VALE

Mr. Leslie and family, of Portland, have moved on Mrs. Lenz's place here. Mrs. Leslie is a daughter of Mr. Hardacre.

J. P. Thomsen is baling his big crop of oat hay. His is the largest hay field in Central Vale and shows what our little valley will do in the way of hay.

M. D. Cameron, of Pine Grove, was seen in our midst Sunday. He has promised to be here again next Sunday.

Our Bible School is prospering, despite the hot weather and deep dust, which bespeaks the interest taken.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. Paul Hansen. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

We have heard that L. J. Dunaway and family are going to leave here for California next Saturday. We'll all be sorry to lose them, as they've been with us several years, coming from Roseburg, Oregon, to this place. One of the Lejay Bessan girls was heard to say that she didn't know who would answer the questions Miss Ware asked the girls when Florence left. Miss Florence, as secretary of the class and an enthusiastic worker in the Bible School, will be greatly missed.

Here's a warning to the sports (?) who are killing our Chinese Pleasants. You will be reported if it is not stopped. These birds are very beautiful and are no detriment to us. The laws protecting them must be enforced.

A Hood River market started delivering meat in an auto last Tuesday, Tuesdays and Saturdays, it is understood, are the delivery days. Several patrons were secured for the market by Miss Palma Hagen.

Nels Hagen and family spent last Sunday at the home of Job Sheppard.

Someone has suggested that we have weekly choir practice at the school house. We have the new song books and it would be well if we could learn some new songs.

L. E. Roberts and family were visiting at the home of Mrs. Alice Leisinger Sunday.

A well known Des Moines woman after suffering miserably for two days from bowel complaint, was cured by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all dealers.

Look Over This List of High-Class Groceries That We Carry

Gold Medal Butter, Chase & Sanborn's Coffee and Tea, Armour's Lard, Hams and Bacon, Diamond W Canned Goods, Van Duzer's Extracts, Olympic Flour, National Biscuit Co. Cookies and Crackers, Libby's Milk, Sunny Monday Soap.

"Quality Counts" THE STAR GROCERY "Good Things to Eat" PERIGO & SON

SUNDAY SPECIAL Brick Ice Cream LIST 1911

- Aug. 6. ROSE
- " 13. COFFEE
- " 20. FILBERT
- " 27. VIOLET
- Sept. 3. CREAM DE MENTHE
- " 10. FIG
- " 17. ORANGE
- " 24. BANANA
- Oct. 1. PLUMB
- " 8. PISTACHIO
- " 15. MINT
- " 22. MARSHMALLOW
- " 29. BONA SERRA

Any of the above flavors served at the Hazelwood Parlors on above dates. Your patronage solicited.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO. Phone 44

BRING THE CHILDREN here and allow us to catch them in a childish pose. In after years you will enjoy the memory of the present, if their cuteness is preserved by one of our PORTRAITS. Our studio is excellently equipped with modern appliances for the production of high class photographs. Have your portraits made here. You'll secure the best work, and at prices that will not tax your pocketbook. Deitz Photo Studio

NEW MEAT MARKET

Was Opened SATURDAY, JULY 29

In Holman's Old Stand, Kauffman Building, on the Heights

GIVE US A TRIAL

Yours for Courteous Treatment and Prompt Service

FILZ BROS.

Phone 147-X

Hotpoint Electric Irons

At the Special Price for a Limited Time Only

$3.50

Fifteen Days Free Trial to Sept. 1

Phone Your Order and We Will Deliver One Anywhere in the City.

Pacific Power & Light Company

Phone 55