YAKIMANS FIGHT RED SPIDER PEST

Declaring that Horticultural Inspector F. A. Huntley has failed to warn the rancher in time to prevent damage from the red spider, County Commissioner M. E. Olson, who is also a rancher and president of the Yakima Valley Fruit Growers' association, is sending out another warning to the valley urging immediate action in all parts affected by the pest, says a dispatch to the Spokane Spokesman-Review.

The simple remedy suggested by Inspector Huntley, namely, the use of plenty of water, is not sufficient, according to Olson. A spray is needed. Dry sulphur is found to be effective in some cases, but a wet mixture Olson has found more effective.
