

FALL GOODS ARRIVING

New Anvil Brand Shoes
For Particular School Girls

New Fall Ladies' Waists
In Colored hand Trimmed

New Line of Hand Bags and Suit Cases Opened

Special Shoe Offer
Ladies' and Big Girls' Tan Ankle
Pumps, Regular $3.50 and $4.00
values,
Special, $2.00

New Line of Fall Ladies'
Neckwear
These Are Extra Good Values
25c to 95c

FIRST SHIPMENT BOY'S SUITS Fall 1911 Now Ready

New Napa Tan Shoes
For Boy's School Wear

New Holeproof Hosiery
For the Whole Family

New McKibbin Hats
None Better Made

Special School Offer
Boy's Golf Shirts, Regular 50c
and 65c Values, Your choice
Each
25c

Boy's Corduroy Suits
Values up to $7.50, Ages 8 to 16
Years, Your Choice the Suit
$4.72

FRANK A. CRAM ALWAYS UP-TO-DATE

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. H. J. Frederick spent Monday at The Dalles.
F. A. Cram was a business visitor in Portland yesterday.
Automobile insurance written by Hood River Abstract Co.
M. L. Goff was a business visitor in The Dalles last week.
H. J. Frederick spent Friday in Portland on business.
Try our pure pork sausage. We stand back of it at Central Market.
Leslie Butler was a business visitor in Portland last week.
Dr. J. F. Watt was a business visitor in Portland last week.
Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gleason were Portland visitors last Friday.
For a nice prime beef roast go to the Central Market.
Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Armstrong were White Salmon visitors last week.
Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Reed were Portland visitors the latter part of last week.
"A thing of beauty and a joy forever."
Husley-Davidson Motorcycle at McDonalds.
Joseph A. Wilson left last week for a fishing trip in the Upper Deschutes country.
Mrs. Elvira Cobb, of Mosier, has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. S. W. Stark.
See our auto gauntlets. Davenport Harness Co.
Mrs. Paul Hansen and daughter, Gertrude, were visitors in The Dalles last week.
Mrs. J. E. Rand arrived yesterday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith.
Christian Science services are held in Reading Room No. 6 Davidson Building, Sunday 11 a. m. and Wednesday 8 p. m.
Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Dutro returned Monday from a vacation spent on the West Fork of Hood River.
C. A. Molden, of the Bragg Mercantile Co., is spending a vacation on his ranch in the Horse Heaven country.
Fine line of automobile gloves. Davenport Harness Co.
Chief Engineer Geo. W. Boschke, of the Harriman lines in Oregon was here last week inspecting the new station.
Mrs. Johnson, of the Belmont district, was called to Spring Valley Monday because of the illness of a relative.
Now is the time to buy cheap slab wood. A. C. Lotts, phone 310-X.
Mrs. E. C. Smith and Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Kanaga returned Monday from a hunting trip near the headwaters of Eagle Creek.
Reymund B. Early left Friday for Stanford University, Calif., where he will enter the Law Department of that institution.
Now is the time to buy cheap slab wood. A. C. Lotts, phone 310-X.
Dr. and Mrs. H. D. W. Pines and little daughter, Margaret, have returned from an extended camping trip in the Upper Valley.
L. F. Morris, who has been hunting in the region near Green Point, killed an enormous bear last week. Bruin's skin measured 7 feet.
If your guests ask you where you got such nice chickens for your Sunday dinner, don't forget to tell them of the Central Market.

Miss Craft, of the Cottage Hospital, left last week for a visit with her parents at Pendleton.
Mrs. J. E. Slade and family, of Husum, Wash., was in the city visiting friends Saturday.
If you have a snag in real estate or want one left us now.
G. V. Edwards & Co., Agents.
R. D. Gould began the laying of the storm sewers in the paving district of the city yesterday.
Mrs. H. J. Frederick and daughter spent last week in Portland returning home Sunday evening.
Wanted—Girl for general housework. 719 State St.
Geo. H. Thomas, of Elder's Piano house, spent several days recently visiting his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Frederick.
Miss S. Frederick passed the examination for and accepted a Government position at Seattle and left for that place August 18.
Household goods for sale. Enquire C. L. Clapp, Avalonway.
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mosely, of Clinton, Ia., are here visiting their son, Chas. A. Mosely, of the Mt. Hood Hotel.
Miss Eva and Melinda Probst, of Centralia, Wash., arrived last week for a visit with their sister, Mrs. Chas. Larsen.
Beautiful new bungalow on State street for sale cheap. Easy terms. Apply at 1013 State street.
Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Johnson, of St. Paul, Minn., were here yesterday and were shown over the Valley by their old friend, A. D. Moe.
C. C. English, the noted artist from Francisco, Calif., spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Geo. P. Crowell. Mr. English made the trip here because of Mr. Crowell's illness.
All kinds of Fruit and Mercantile Stamps made to order. Phone 37.
Miss Edna Murray, of Portland, who has been visiting at the Ridgefield ranch, while on her way home last week stopped a day with Miss Viola Wilson.
Jno. Hurst, at wholesale grocer, of Clarksville, Tenn., who with Mrs. Hurst is making a tour of the Northwest, spent Saturday looking over the Valley.
Dry 16-inch slab wood for sale at $2.00 per cord. Pine Grove Box Co.
Edward Klohn, a resident of Iowa, is here visiting the family of C. Dethman. Mr. Klohn is accompanied by Mrs. Klohn.
W. S. Beattie, of the Beattie & Hoffman, firm of printers in Portland, has been here for several days looking over the Valley.
For Rent—Modern furnished house on Columbia street; plumbing complete. I. Leland Henderson, (Inc.).
S. A. Clarke, a former resident of this city, who has been in Florida for a number of years, will arrive here Saturday for a visit.
Lew Morse, formerly sheriff of the county but who is now operating a large stock farm in the John Day region, is visiting in the city.
Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's E. N. Armstrong, president of the Toledo, Peoria & Western R. E., spent the week end here visiting at the ranch home of his son, L. K. Armstrong.
Pifer's book store carries the school books and school supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dayton and daughters, Misses Florence and Frances Dayton, of Portland, have been here visiting at the home of Prof. and Mrs. L. F. Henderson.
Pifer's book store carries the school books and school supplies.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Palmer, Prof. and Mrs. L. F. Henderson and Mrs. Constance Henderson spent the week end in the Trout Lake country of Klickitat county. The party motored into the region.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Plath and child returned Tuesday night from a week's vacation spent on the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Plath was met by Robt. E. Plath, Mr. Plath's brother, and N. C. Blakeley, of Spokane, Wash.
For the fine stemmed pea green alfalfa hay, the finest in the west, write to The Newport Land & Construction Co., Hermiston, Oregon.
Mrs. S. J. A. Helmer, who has returned to Portland, in order to be near Mr. Helmer, who is taking medical treatment, visited her Mt. Hood place last week.
Miss Mary Harbison, who will leave soon for her home in Hillsboro, was pleasantly surprised by a number of her girl friends yesterday. The party held a luncheon picnic.
If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's.
Geo. R. Castner, county fruit inspector, has received a communication from the Utah State Fair commission inviting him to judge fruit at the State Fair to be held at Ogden.
For Sale—Entirely new Majestic range, wood baseburner, dining room set and other household furniture. Phone 2143-L.
Now is the time to buy cheap slab wood. A. C. Lotts, phone 310-X.
Grace church, Sixth and Oak, Rev. J. R. Parson, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Sermons by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30. Earl Bartmes, leader.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Stevens, of Portland, while on their way home from Trout Lake, Wash., where they have been spending a vacation, visited Hood River friends last Saturday.
Our Hamburger is always nice and fresh, or we will make it to order at Central Market.
W. J. Gower, who recently removed here from his ranch in Central Vale, to Victoria, B. C., received news last week of the death of his sister, Mrs. E. L. Everett, of Watson Wamman, Birmingham, England.
J. H. Sutthoff was here Sunday visiting with his family in the Oak Grove district. He was accompanied by Seattle on his return by Billie Hausman, who has been here visiting for the past three weeks.
Six room bungalow for sale. Corner Cascade Avenue and 10th Street. Modern. Enquire of owner on premises.
Ed Rendell, of St. Paul, was here and at White Salmon last week to call on old St. Paul friends. He called at the home of W. B. Dickerson, whom he intended to surprise by a visit. Mr. Dickerson, however, was away on a camping trip in the mountains.
Lost—Probably between Postoffice and Base Ball ground Thursday, Aug. 24, pair gold rimmed spectacles. Finder please return to Mrs. T. L. Eliot, care Wm. Stewart and receive suitable reward.
A. A. Baldwin, of Canby, was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

Miss Nan Guthrie and Miss Belle Wolford, of Avermore, Pa., after a visit with the family of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Haworth, left Thursday for a tour of California before returning to their eastern home.
M. R. Noble and wife and daughter, Emma, J. O. Eastman and wife and daughter, Winnie, Wm. Eby and wife and daughter, Ruth left Saturday to spend the week end at Seaside. They will visit the exposition at Astoria on the return trip.
Get your school books at Pifer's book store.
At the First Christian church next Sunday morning Minister T. S. Hand-saker will preach on "The Desire of the World." Evening theme, "The Kingdom of God." Special music at each service.
Evangelist C. L. Organ and wife, of Des Moines, Ia., will begin a series of meetings in the Union church at Odell next Thursday evening under the auspices of the Christian church. Rev. Organ comes highly recommended as a speaker of power.
Wood for Sale—All kinds, carlots only. H. K. Davenport, Phone Odell 66.
St. Mark's Episcopal church—Sunday, September 3, Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m.; sermons and Holy Communion, 11 a. m.; Sunday School, 10 a. m. Rector Simpson will preach at 3:15 p. m. at the Methodist church in Oak Grove.
For Sale and Exchange—Buy Hood River apple and timber lands of owner at prices that please buyers. At Winans' on Mt. Hood R. K. Good Milling proposition, also good buggy. See W. R. Winans on premises, phone 17 Odell. P. O. Dee, Ore.
Get your school books at Pifer's book store.
Mrs. W. E. Shay had the following visitors last week: Mrs. O. F. Tipton, of Gladstone; Mrs. Ben Johnson, of Wyeth, and father-in-law, Dr. J. H. Johnson, of Los Angeles, who is starting on a tour of the world; and Mrs. C. S. Roberts, of Portland. Walter Shay, Jr., of Wyeth, spent Sunday with his parents.
Chas. Knutson, of Chehalis, was here the first of the week, visiting at the home of his father-in-law, A. T. Zeek. Mr. Knutson says that Chehalis crops are fine this year. Especially will the hop farmers harvest profitable crops.
Insure your automobile against accident. See Hood River Abstract Co.
The Congregational Aid will entertain Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Cass, 925 Eugene street. The men will furnish an interesting program and the ladies will serve refreshments. All members, their husbands and friends are cordially invited to attend. Sec. Mrs. George Wilbur. Furniture and first-class range for sale. Enquire C. L. Clapp, Avalonway.
Rev. E. O. McOmber, pastor of the local Methodist church, is in Spokane attending the Columbia River Conference of the Methodist church. Mrs. Geo. Lynn is also attending the Spokane Conference, a delegate from the local congregation.
Place your order for wood now with the home of good and it can be hauled. Good 4-lb. oak at $5.50, delivered. Conaway Merc. Co., phone Odell 191. a24
John Franz, of The Dalles, was a visitor to the city Saturday.

J. Snyder, a resident of Underwood, Wash., has been exhibiting at the Franz store this week a tomato, which he claims is practically blight proof. Mr. Snyder has been experimenting with tomatoes for the last five years and the blight proof plant is a result of his work. In severe tests this season, he claims that his tomato showed that only five per cent of the plants were affected by blight while 75 per cent of the ordinary ones were affected.
If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson's.
The trials of Fred Forsland and Charles Davenport, which were held before Judge A. C. Buck and a jury at the court house Monday afternoon, resulted in a hung jury. The men, who reside near the border of the county on the Mosier road were accused of having shot grouse out of season.
Miss Pearl Bradley, Miss Gertrude Calkins, Eldon Bradley, Newton de Long, of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Howe, who joined the campers last week, returned Saturday from a vacation spent in the Lost Lake region.
After a little rest at the Valley Christian church, services will be resumed next Sunday morning and evening. The pastor, Mr. Peart, will preach at both services. Subject in the morning will be, "There was given to me a Thorn in the Flesh." In the evening the theme is, "You and I" which will be the first in a series of special sermons in present day topics. All will find a hearty welcome. Come and bring a friend with you.
All kinds of insurance in old company. G. Y. Edwards & Co., Phone 228-K.
J. H. Blake, a prominent Kansas City commission merchant, was here over the week end looking over the Valley's apple prospects. While here he was driven over the district by W. A. Morgan. Mr. Blake says that he handled a good many Hood River apples last year. "The reliability of the pack and the quality of the fruit," he says, "will make it bring good prices anywhere."
Miss Grace Furrow, a graduate of the Iowa State Teachers' College and formerly a student at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music at Oberlin, Ohio, who has been visiting friends here this summer, will remain here for a year to conduct lessons in music.
E. A. Franz has sold his residence at the corner of Oak and Ninth streets to Chris Dethman, who with his family will remove to the city in the next few weeks. Mr. Franz says that he will build a new residence in the city as soon as he can find a desirable lot.
A. L. Crocker, Henri de Reding, James Lemmon and E. R. Poloy toured by automobile to Camas Prairie last week. The return trip was made by Goldendale, The Dalles and Mosier.
Peter G. Burkhardt, a retired capitalist of Reynoldsville, Pa., who has been here for the past five weeks visiting his sister Mrs. G. A. Van Anda has returned to his home.
The Loyal Berean Class of the Christian Bible School held the regular monthly business meeting at the home of Samuel Barker, on Belmont avenue, Monday evening September 4, at eight o'clock.
Wanted to rent—A 15 to 20 H. P. Traction engine. Write Jacobsen-Hud Co., 407-413 Stanton St., Portland, Ore.

ARE YOU READY

For the Opening of School?
WE ARE
Tablets, Pencils, Crayons, Pens, Erasers, Composition Books, Note Books, Loose Leaf Note Books, Inks, Water Colors, Brushes, Etc.
Depot for School Books
ALL THE SPECIAL BOOKS TO BE USED DURING THE YEAR.
Our years of experience enables us to carry just what is needed.
..Slocum's Book and Art Store..
The Place That Does the Framing

At the Baptist church next Sunday evening, Mr. Hargreaves will open a series of sermons on "Superstitions, Fallacies and Realities." The different themes will be treated in contrast as follows:
"The Atonement of Heathendom"; "The Atonement of Jesus Christ"; "The Church and the Kingdom of God"; "Ceremonies Sacredotal"; "Ceremonies with Spiritual Significance"; "The Name of Christ"; "The Mind of Christ." Carefully prepared song service will precede each sermon. Services open at 7:30.
We had a mild winter last, will have a hard one this winter. Don't put off buying your wood until it is $9.00 per cord, but buy good oak now at $5.50, delivered. Conaway Mercantile Co., phone Odell 191. a24
While working on the new building of the Hood River Apple Vinegar Co. last Friday Ray Robinson was seriously injured when a large timber struck him in the face.
Miss Nona Lawlor, who has been visiting Mrs. C. Allen Reed, returned last week to her home in Portland.
Wood for Sale—Good 4-foot oak wood $5.50 per cord, delivered. Conaway Mercantile Co., phone 191. a24
Miss Ruth Armstrong, of Salt Lake City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Armstrong, visited here last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Landers and son, of Chicago, arrived Sunday to look over the Valley.
Miss Nita L. Briggs, of Portland, is here the guest of Mrs. G. H. Robbins.
Hood River Sweet Cider, Hires Root Beer and Soda Waters of all flavors can be obtained for family use at all the confectionery and grocery stores at $1.00 per dozen with an allowance of 50 cents per dozen for the return of bottles to the party from whom purchased. Keep a few bottles in a cool place during warm weather.
HOOD RIVER APPLE VINEGAR CO.

BOOST—Home Made Cigars. Why not buy and smoke Home Made Cigars when you know they are made of clean tobacco. There is no better cigar on the market than Father George 10c cigar and Little George 5c straight. Erl's Guarantee is back of them. Send in your orders and you will be pleased with the Goods.
Respectfully yours,
John Erl,
Hood River, Ore.
The Endeavor Society of the Christian church meets at 7 p. m.; the leader for Sunday evening is Mrs. P. G. Schroeder. The newly elected officers are: President, Mrs. Schroeder; Vice-president, Harry Gash; Secretary and Treasurer, Dr. E. R. Carpenter; Pianist, Mrs. Merie Waldie; Chorister, Mr. Schroeder.
We get our meats in fresh every day. Our prices will fit your pocketbook at Central Market.
Sunday, September 3, the Sunday school and morning service at the Unitarian church will be held as usual. The subject will be "The Church; its decadence; its reconstruction." A cordial invitation is extended to all.
Wanted to rent—A 15 to 20 H. P. Traction engine. Write Jacobsen-Hud Co., 407-413 Stanton St., Portland, Ore.
John Erl, the proprietor of the Hood River Cigar factory, was a business visitor in White Salmon Monday.
O. J. Nelson, of Goldendale, was a week end visitor in the city.
Spirilla Corsets.
If you have not worn a Spirilla Corset you have not known real corset satisfaction. Its patented boning makes it the most flexible, durable, comfortable, lightest, coolest, most sanitary corset ever made, and it permanently retains its shape. Appointments to suit your convenience in your own home. Send card or phone Mrs. H. M. Castner, corsetiere, phone 118-K, 272 Cascade street, Hood River. a17H