Thompson left Friday evening to join a number of his class-mates and fraternity brothers of the Oregon Agricultural College in Portland, from which place they will start on an automobile trip to Government Camp, where a short outing will be spent. Mr. Thompson is a member of the Delta Omega fraternity.

An entirely new use has been discovered by a prominent real estate man of the city for those little coral beads that are at present so popular as necklaces. Just before retiring one evening recently, thinking he was taking pills he took a generous dose of the beads, which had become unstrung and placed in a pill box for safe keeping.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mendonhall, of Portland, where Mr. Mendonhall is general agent for the Fidelity & Deposit Company, of Baltimore, Maryland, are spending several days in the Valley. Mr. Mendonhall was an official timekeeper at the Astoria regatta. He also took two first prizes and second money in one event with his sail boat.

Miss Eva Brock, who leaves next week for Whitman College in Washington, has been the recipient of a number of delightful social functions this week. Saturday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. V. C. Brock, she was entertained with a dinner. Her cousin, Harold Wilkins, an attorney of Portland, was present. On Tuesday evening Mrs. C. H. Honey was the hostess of a dinner party given for Miss Brock.

Prof. L. D. Bailey, of Corvallis, where he is Assistant Plant Pathologist in the Oregon Agricultural College, after a two day's investigation of fruit conditions in the Valley in the company of Prof. W. H. Lawrence, returned Saturday. Prof. Bailey, who will conduct tests this winter in fruit spot diseases, says that the local apple community looks exceedingly well to him. This was his first visit to the Valley. Indeed, he had only been in Oregon but two months, having recently arrived from Wisconsin, where he was a graduate student and assistant at the State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Beers, who have been visiting at the home of Carson C. Masiker on the East Side, returned by boat to their home at Oregon City. Mr. Beers is a son of Alanson Beers, first Governor of Oregon under the Provisional Government, organized at Clatsop on May 2, 1843. Alanson Beers was a blacksmith and came to Oregon with the missionaries in 1837, reaching Lee's Mission on the 17th of May. Jonathan Beers was born at Salem, Oregon, in 1848, and was an uncle of Mr. Masiker's first wife, who died in 1875 at Haystack, Wheeler county, Oregon.

Date Set for Hood River Apple Fair. Workmen have begun excavation on the lot opposite the Hotel Oregon preparatory to the construction of the basement of a building to be erected by the Hood River Apple Fair Association. October 9, 10 and 11 are the dates set for this year's show. Growers are asked to prepare their exhibits as soon as possible.

"We will construct a substantial shelter over the basement this year," says Prof. C. D. Thompson, and the site will make a suitable show place."

A. T. O. Establishes Alumni Chapter. At a banquet held at the Hotel Oregon Friday night the members of the Alpha Tau Omega Greek Letter College fraternity established an alumni chapter in the Valley. Frank E. Deen was elected president and Chester Huggins secretary. Those present at the banquet were: Francis Irwin, Este Brosius, Chester Huggins, Karl Outhank, Ted Williams, William Baker, Roger Moe and Lynn Young. The latter was an invited guest. Mr. Moe, who is one of the fraternity's pledges, will leave Saturday morning for Portland, from which point he will leave next week to attend the University of Oregon at Eugene. The members of the fraternity will hold a banquet in Portland Saturday night. Those returning to the University of Oregon are Este Brosius, Karl Outhank, Ted Williams and Chester Huggins. William Baker will return to the University of Washington at Seattle.

Conference Appoints Ministers. Rev. W. B. Young, who comes here from Palouse, where he has been minister of the Methodist church, has written Dr. W. S. Nichol announcing that he will arrive here tomorrow night and will fill the pulpit of the Ashbury M. E. church, to which he was appointed by the recent Conference at Spokane. Mr. Young is a brother of Benjamin Young, pastor of the First Methodist church in Portland.

Other appointments were: L. W. Chandler for the Belmont church; C. M. Carson for Pine Grove and Odell; and H. C. Clark returned to White Salmon. Rev. E. McOmber, the former pastor of the city church will take charge of a pastorate in Illinois, his former home. Rev. H. J. Wood, former pastor of the Belmont church goes to Grand View, Wash. Rev. M. J. Purdie was appointed to The Dalles church. Rev. Walton Shipworth, district superintendent, was succeeded by Rev. H. O. Perry.

Rally Day. Next Sunday will be Rally Day for the Sunday school of Riverside church. The school will meet with the congregation at 11 o'clock at which a special program will be given. Miss Maude Howard will speak in behalf of the school and Pastor Harris will give an illustrated sermon. Special music will be provided and all scholars and parents are especially urged to be present.

Rev. E. A. Harris occupied the pulpit of the Christian church last Sunday evening in the place of Rev. Mr. Handsaker, who has been quite sick.

Entertainment Planned by Guild. The members of the St. Mark's Episcopal Guild and friends are planning an entertainment for the latter part of the month. Several short vaudeville stunts will be prepared and a program of songs, readings and special stunts will be rendered. The city and Valley's best dramatic talent will be seen. The scene of the event will be Heilbronner's Hall.

Musical Treat Promised. At some date during the early part of the month of October the members of the Congregational church are planning an exceedingly good musical program. The occasion will undoubtedly be a treat for lovers of good music; for a number of the Valley's most talented musicians have promised to participate.

MAYOR REFUSES TO SIGN WARRANTS

Mayor E. H. Hartwig, by his refusal to design the warrants for payment of the sum of $32,441, the valuation placed by the jury on the water system of the Pacific Power & Light Co., will delay definite action by the city. The mayor has expressed that he will veto the ordinance providing such procedure. However, the council is unanimously in favor of the ordinance.

Mayor Hartwig gives as his reasons for the action that the warrants will become commercial paper, which may bear an interest of 8 per cent for six months, the time allowed for an appeal. He also asserts that he will become personally liable.

L. V. Driscoll, formerly of Pittsburg, Pa., but who has been a resident of the Valley since May, has purchased from Pete Shively a half interest in his horseshoeing shop located on Fourth street. Both are expert horseshoers. They will continue their work along the same lines.

Wanted—Contract by someone to clear 20 acres of land on Central Orchard tract. C. R. Bone, phone 161-M.

White Salmon Man Injured by Chain. Charles Hubbard, of White Salmon, is lying close to death as a result of using a chain in the grubbing of stumps, says a dispatch from that city to the Oregonian. His throat is gashed to the jugular. When the chain broke under the tension three or four links hit Hubbard, standing 25 feet away, tearing across his neck like shrapnel from a cannon.

Chas. Castner Teaches Pack at Boston. Charles Castner, who has had a broad experience in apple packing in the Valley, left Saturday for Boston, where he will conduct a packing class for the State Horticultural Society of Massachusetts. Hood River's apple pack has become famous the world over.
